Leaders In Girl Scout Activities

Mrs. W. A. Holloway, left, commissioner of the local Girl Scout council, and Mrs. Marjorie Skeeters Pena, right, director of the organization, which observed its twenty-fifth anniversary the past week.

Crater Lake Council Girl Scouts Directs Organization

The Girl Scouts of Medford are an especially active organization and this past week observed the twenty-fifth anniversary of the national founding with many special features. The scout program is directed by the Crater Lake council which includes several prominent women of the community, and Mrs. Marjorie Skeeters Pena, the local executive.

Mrs. William Holloway is commissioner and directs the council personnel. Mrs. O. B. Morrow is deputy commissioner and Mrs. Jack Heyland is secretary-treasurer.

The committees are as follows: Badges and awards, Mrs. George Henselman, chairman; Mrs. E. B. Pickel, Mrs. Allyn Smith, Mrs. E. M. Drysdale.

Finance, Mrs. Leonard Carpenter, Mrs. Raymond Driver and Mrs. Heyland.

Camp, Mrs. Driver, Mrs. Carpenter, Mrs. H. H. Pringle, Mrs. S. M. Tuttle, Mrs. Conrad Weasala.

Training and personnel, Mrs. O. B. Morrow, Mrs. G. O. Humphreys and Miss Helen Bullis.

Public relations, Mrs. Ward Hammond and Mrs. Robert Frame.

The council meets on Wednesday of each week with the badges and awards committee featured. In addition to the regular council members on this committee are Mrs. Porter J. Noff and Mrs. J. C. Boyle. This group selects the 50 examiners and instructors for the proficiency badges earned by the individual girl scouts.

Mrs. Pena, as the executive, carries out the plans and suggestions from the local council and gives training courses for the leaders and assists in the leaders' organization. She visits the troops and helps the leaders with their individual group. She also publishes a monthly bulletin for these leaders and will direct the summer camp at Lake of the Woods (Camp McLoughlin).

A new class for leaders who are unable to attend the general course in the afternoon will start Tuesday and will be held from 7 to 9 p. m. at scout headquarters. On Wednesday from 1:30 to 3:30 p. m. the troop progress course will be held for all leaders having girl scouts behind their tenderfoot rank in their troops.

Crater Lake Guild Entertained Monday

Crater Lake Guild of the First Presbyterian church met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Walter Flinn on the Jacksonville highway. The meeting opened with the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting and the appointment of three new committees. These were membership, Miss Margaret Kerr, chairman; Mrs. Darrell F. Huson and Miss Edna Eifer; transportation, Mrs. Weldon McLee and friendship, Mrs. Mary Crossfield.

The reports of the treasurer and of standing committees were heard, after which Mrs. E. P. McFarland of the Phoenix Presbyterian church, led the devotion and gave an inspiring talk on "Building for Eternity."

Plans for the December meetings were then discussed and it was decided to hold two meetings in December to enable the guild to make its customary distribution of Christmas gifts. The regular meeting will be held December 6 at the home of Mrs. Frank Ray and a Christmas party will be given December 14 at the home of Miss Frederica Brommer. Members will bring their white Christmas gifts for the less fortunate at this time.

Mrs. Harry Prentice and Arthur Muse entertained with three accordion and guitar duets "Moonlight on the Colorado," "Sharpshooters' March" and "When My Dream Boat Comes In," which were greatly enjoyed. As the feature of the program Mrs. John Gribble gave a most interesting talk on the Orient, illustrating her story with many beautiful and unusual things which she brought back on her recent trip. She told of many fascinating experiences and was most gracious in answering questions on the various places she visited.

After Mrs. Gribble's talk Mrs. Prentice and Mr. Muse delighted guests with more stirring music. Mrs. Flinn was assisted in serving by Mrs. Ethel Coverstone, Miss Emily Brown and Miss Margaret Kerr.

Closing time for too late to classify Ads is 1:30 p. m.

Miss Oliver to Be Married at Church Service

Miss Katherine Oliver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Oliver, will be married to Paul B. Newcomb, of Medford, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Newcomb of Los Angeles, Wednesday morning at the Sacred Heart Catholic church. The ceremony is planned for 9 o'clock with Father Francis W. Black officiating.

Miss Elsie Oliver will be maid of honor for her sister and Misses Martha DeSouza and Helen McDonnell are to be bridesmaids. Lowell Dupray will be best man for Mr. Newcomb.

Eusebe Dallaire will play organ music and Mrs. Zita Maddox is to sing preceding the ceremony.

Miss Oliver is a graduate of St. Mary's academy and Mr. Newcomb attended school in Hollywood.

Two showers were given Miss Oliver the past week. Mrs. Robert Redpath entertained for a miscellaneous shower Sunday evening with Miss Josephine Hunter assistant hostess. Sixteen guests were present.

On Thursday evening Miss Mary Lou Hardin was hostess for a shower and twenty-three guests attended.

The Rogue River Valley College Women's club will hold the regular monthly meeting Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. A. Work, 527 South Holly street.

Mrs. Susan Felch Campbell will give the book review on "Bugles Blow No More" by Clifford Dowd.

Daughters of Nile to Meet Saturday in Grants Pass

The quarterly luncheon of Zuleima Temple, Daughters of the Nile will be held on Saturday at the Redwoods hotel in Grants Pass. The temple includes Nile members of Medford, Ashland and Grants Pass and alternates meeting in the three places.

Luncheon will be served at 12:30 o'clock and the meeting will follow at 2 o'clock with Mrs. N. G. Bates of Ashland, the queen of the temple, in charge.

Hard Times Party Is Held Friday

The Golden Links class of the First Baptist church held a party at the lovely country home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Niedermeyer Friday evening with about thirty-five guests present.

Mrs. A. J. Anderson was chairman of the arrangements and an evening of games and other entertainment was enjoyed. The members dressed in hard times costume and Mrs. Fay Paris and N. A. Meade won prizes for the best costumes.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Niedermeyer and her committee.

Mrs. Singleton To Visit From Salem

Mrs. Elva Singleton of Salem will arrive in the city tonight and will be the house guest of Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Bunch for a few days.

The Garden Club

Those who attended the meeting of the Medford Garden club Thursday evening enjoyed the pictures of Bermuda, where flowers grow so luxuriantly and frosts are unknown.

An invitation was extended to all members interested in city parks to meet Fred W. Scheffel Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the council chamber at the city hall for a discussion of proposed parks.

It was suggested that all members save the pennies received in change for one week and drop them into the locked box on the Garden Center table in Hansen's Hardware store. Such contributions will be used to buy magazines for the Center.

Seeds which should be planted this fall have been placed in the seed tray for free distribution.

College Club Plans Meeting Saturday
