

MEDFORD MAIL TRIBUNE

Published by MEDFORD PRINTING CO. 14-21-23 N. 1st St. Phone 14

Subscription Rates: Daily, one year, $1.00; Daily, six months, $0.60; Daily, one month, $0.20

Official Paper of the City of Medford Oregon, under Act of March 5, 1919

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PUBLISHERS BREWING FULL LINE WIRE SERVICE

Member Oregon Newspaper Publishers Association

Ye Smudge Pot by Arthur Perry

Mr. Hoover, former president, again mounts the rostrum, and warns the nation against "propaganda"

A Crescent City, Calif., resident was radio-rumored to have fallen heir to $0,000 pounds

Democratic indignation over the proposal to charge $25 per plate at the Andrew Jackson banquet

Next Monday a bust of the governor will be presented to the Governor at Salem

PREPARATION SERMON (Red Bluff, Calif. News) "You can't make an impression on a panther with a flashlight"

The University of California football team, hailed individually and collectively, as the greatest gridiron squad ever to wear football pants

The first citizen of the season to inspect a gas tank with a lighted match, will recover. Unlike the "unloaded" gun galoot, it was not thought the match was unlighted

SLAP ON THE WRIST (Fort Rock News) "Someone broke into our school house north of Fort Rock"

15,000 Oregonians seek the first 100 license plates for 1938. There has been nothing like it since 7000 Democrats was tied to be postmaster

Autoliet Killed. VANCOUVER, Wash., Nov. 9.—(AP)—C. W. Spandish, of Salem, Ore., was killed and his wife critically injured late yesterday in a collision between their automobile and a Pacific Transport truck at the east end of the Woodland bridge

Put Medford on the Map

YEARS ago the best orchestras and the concert artists, that came to the coast, came to Medford. That unfortunately is no longer true

But they will come—at least many of them,—if Medford will guarantee them a certain amount. This can be done—and an effort is now being made to do it

THIS isn't a new organization to Medford. It was established a decade ago and was an outstanding success. But like other desirable things of a cultural nature, was liquidated by the depression

Now it is to be revived, and some of Medford's most public spirited and enterprising citizens are behind it. We wish the effort every success and urge all our readers, who can afford a few dollars, for entertainment of the better sort, to enthusiastically support it, by securing memberships

The more members, the more concerts, and the better artists. Medford has always been a musically minded town, and this slow starvation in the realm of good music has gone far enough. We know of no one thing in this direction more needed, nor more worth while—than to place Medford on the coast musical circuit once more

The establishment of a large and growing Civic Music association unit will DO IT!

Hoover and the Ku Klux

WE wonder if former President Hoover read this week's Liberty. If so his remarks at the Colby college centennial, were very timely

For the people of this country may well be warned against the sort of propaganda, that appears in this magazine from time to time

The latest offense is an article by Dr. Hiram Evans on the Ku Klux Klan

It really isn't an article, it's a "free ad," a country-wide appeal for support and membership, written in the ingratiating and plausible style of a patent medicine fakir, under the signature of the Great Imperial Wizard

ALTHOUGH the editors of Liberty, apologize for publishing such an article by printing a small-type condemnation to introduce it; we don't believe Hiram the painless tooth extractor, will have his feelings hurt, by that

For in this K. K. K. blurb, he boasts of the profits of the organization, the strong and enviable position of the lodge treasury—(didn't go into the red even during the depression) and certainly this free boost, in a magazine of general circulation, should add at least 10,000 new names to the doctor's sucker list

AND that is all the doctor really cares about, as his article clearly shows. Of course he puts up the usual window-dressing, about 100% Americanism, the Christian religion, white race supremacy, etc., etc., but only a casual reading between the lines, shows what the "DOCTOR" is really after, is—money, money, money, and the power that goes with it

FOR example:

The Ku Klux Klan opposed to the Jews? Mercy no, only against non-Christians and 100% for the Christian religion!

The Klan opposed to the Catholic church? Perish the thought, it merely opposes the Pope when he maintains he is "the exclusive agent of God Almighty"

Opposed to the negro? Why the very idea! The Klan has no racial hatred in its heart. All it opposes is blacks marrying whites and whites marrying blacks. The scholarly doctor has a big word for this. He terms it "miscegenation" and goes far back to ancient Egypt to prove that unless it is stopped, this great "land of the free and home of the brave," is doomed

No religious intolerance, no race hatred; no quarrel with the U. S. constitution or the Bill of Rights; no appeals to lawlessness and Judge Lynch,—oh, no nothing of that sort, says the doctor,—just sweetness and light, and 100% Americanism.—so step up boys and pay your ten dollars for a 60 cent night-gown and all will be well!

AS Mr. Hoover pointed out, the effectiveness of "propaganda", depends largely upon the selection of half-truths, to gain popular confidence, dressing them up as whole truths, and then when the poor fish has swallowed the bait so deeply he can never get rid of it, play him for your own selfish purposes entirely

This was the Hitler technique, and the same procedure was followed to a greater or less extent in Italy and Russia. There was to be a finer country and a higher freedom for the masses, and when this point had been driven home, and generally accepted, there was a sudden right-about-face, and the man in the street discovered his finer country and newer freedom, meant the firing squad unless he waved his handkerchief every time the dictator sneezed

AND so the wily Dr. Evans, by the half-truth route, adroitly juggling of high sounding phrases, and ignoring completely the contemptible un-Americanism and avowed lawlessness of the Klan; presents the country with a "build-up", that thanks to Liberty promises to net him at least a hundred thousand dollars at the expense largely of gullible and inexperienced youth

It is really an outrageous and a shameful thing! But as Mr. Hoover points out, with our free press and free speech what it is,—and we hope will always remain—there is little that can be done about it except:

We quote: "You will ask what we are to do about it all. The first answer is reform in the morals of the users of truth. We must incessantly expose intellectual dishonesty and the purpose that lies behind it. The antidote for untruth is truth. Half-truth can be defeated with the whole truth. This antidote works with discouraging slowness at times, but unless we maintain faith in our medicine civilization will disappear"

William Congreve, famous for comedies, wrote one tragedy, "The Mourning Bride." Both Chaucer and Villon wrote ballads requesting financial assistance from their patrons

Personal Health Service

Signed letters pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped self-addressed envelope is enclosed. Letters should be brief and written in ink

Many individuals who have a dry, irritable skin, especially in the winter season or while living in a northern climate, suffer a great deal from burning and itching of the skin for hours sometimes after bathing water until a clear mucilage is obtained. Then add the glycerin and the lotion. Label: Skin Lotion. Apply a few drops to skin of hands after washing and before they are quite dry, two or three times a day

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS Intermittent Limping Subject to trouble you described as intermittent limping—sort of cramp comes on when I walk a few blocks, and have to sit down and wait some time for it to pass? (R.W.M.)

Multiple Neuritis Any cure for multiple neuritis? Is this the same as multiple sclerosis? (L.W.A.)

Ed. Note: Persons wishing to communicate with Dr. Brady should send letter direct to Dr. William Brady, M. D. 265 E. Camino, Beverly Hills, Calif.

but cannot get going any more. Smith's benny has been too widely lauded and patronized for anyone to wear it with dignity. It remains about the only person who can wear the brown derby and still be taken somewhat seriously

The debutante heiress, Gloria Baker, has become one of the most extravagantly publicized maids of the season. And a choice target for the gossip writers. If she visits a night club and applauds the orchestra she is chronicled next day as mooning over the saxophone player. "Mimi," as she is known to her intimates, uses the same technique as her half brother, Alfred Vanderbilt. She is attended by a different domzel every time she steps out. It is a matter of record, that young Vanderbilt was never seen with the same lady two nights in succession. An accomplished turfman, he plays the field

Canine barometer: Our cousin's Sealham is amazingly storm conscious. A half hour before rain, lightning or thunder comes up the dog begins trotting around, panting and trembling. Just before the deluge it hides in a closet or under the bed. The severity of the storm is indicated by the animal's fright

Every now and then our household is upset by harking back to the long ago. This morning at breakfast we let loose a gale of guffaws—my wife and I—recalling the times we used to butter our hands for the taffy pull

The St. Regis has made an entrance off Fifth avenue to its King Cole bar, where hangs the original over-exploited Maxfield Parrish portrait. It was done originally for the old Knickerbocker bar, owned by the Astor estate, and when Vincent Astor took up the active direction of the St. Regis he had it moved there. The King Cole canvas and the Ben Hur electrical chariot race sign were two of the Broadway high spots when I came to town. King Cole was the topic for much banter in the vaudeville skits and off-color gags in the saloons. I first saw it with Bob Davis and Ray Long but was more interested in living figures at one of the tables—Caruso talking to two gentlemen (Freeman and Weber and Fields. And later into the room came Rex Beach in a hunting coat, just back

Every night, nearly, I walk the dog by Corum's hotel—sometimes as late or early as 9 a. m., and as I would know him from sight by his photographs I am certain I have never seen him coming—or being carried—in. It is just one of those things

The flowing Windsor tie, such as the sartorial trade mark of Morris Gest, is in again. It was a high favorite in the Robert W. Chambers novel days. A recent film, featuring artists who appeared with Windsor bows, helped to perk up a new interest in a vanishing style. Russell Patterson, the artist, wears a Windsor now and then, and so does Joseph Hergeshelmer

But hat manufacturers say Al Smith has spiked all chances of reviving the brown derby. It used to bob up for a seasonal flare every five years or so

Every now and then our household is upset by harking back to the long ago. This morning at breakfast we let loose a gale of guffaws—my wife and I—recalling the times we used to butter our hands for the taffy pull

The St. Regis has made an entrance off Fifth avenue to its King Cole bar, where hangs the original over-exploited Maxfield Parrish portrait. It was done originally for the old Knickerbocker bar, owned by the Astor estate, and when Vincent Astor took up the active direction of the St. Regis he had it moved there. The King Cole canvas and the Ben Hur electrical chariot race sign were two of the Broadway high spots when I came to town. King Cole was the topic for much banter in the vaudeville skits and off-color gags in the saloons. I first saw it with Bob Davis and Ray Long but was more interested in living figures at one of the tables—Caruso talking to two gentlemen (Freeman and Weber and Fields. And later into the room came Rex Beach in a hunting coat, just back

Every night, nearly, I walk the dog by Corum's hotel—sometimes as late or early as 9 a. m., and as I would know him from sight by his photographs I am certain I have never seen him coming—or being carried—in. It is just one of those things

The flowing Windsor tie, such as the sartorial trade mark of Morris Gest, is in again. It was a high favorite in the Robert W. Chambers novel days. A recent film, featuring artists who appeared with Windsor bows, helped to perk up a new interest in a vanishing style. Russell Patterson, the artist, wears a Windsor now and then, and so does Joseph Hergeshelmer

But hat manufacturers say Al Smith has spiked all chances of reviving the brown derby. It used to bob up for a seasonal flare every five years or so

Flight 'o Time Medford and Jackson County history from the files of the Mail Tribune 10 and 20 years ago

Comment on the Day's News By FRANK JENKINS STRAWS in the wind: The voters of San Francisco turn down a proposition, running into the tens of millions, to build subways on Market street and elsewhere in the business district, although admittedly San Francisco could use subways

The voters of Marion county (Oregon) defeat a plan to build a new courthouse, although Marion county's courthouse is old and out-of-date. The voters of Deschutes county go against a proposal to spend $150,000 for a new city-county building at Bend

WELL, one guess is as good as another, but these widely scattered voters probably figured that federal spending, which must ultimately be repaid out of federal taxes, is so extravagantly heavy that it is wise to be extremely cautious about local spending

THE fact is slowly coming home to all of us that tax money isn't Santa Claus money. EVERYBODY has to bear his share of the tax burden. If he doesn't do it directly, he does it indirectly. Taxes are a part of the cost of production and have to be added to the cost of everything that everybody buys

THIS one is too good to keep: Due to one thing and another, the newspaper published by this writer was scandalously late for several days in a row recently, and one evening about 6:15 the telephone buzzed and a sarcastic voice at the other end of the wire wanted to know: "Is this the publisher of the evening paper?"

Upon being assured that it was, the subscriber fired this sizzling shot: "Well, I just wanted to tell you that you know how the whole world ought to be run, and just what is wrong with everything, and you can tell the New Deal what to do and the president where to head in, but you can't get out an evening paper the same evening"

AS Pollyanna would probably have said, it's nice to know that subscribers appreciate the paper enough to be sore when it's late, and it's better for us to have our short-comings told to our faces than behind our backs

And the NEXT EVENING the paper was out on time. A little sharp criticism is good for all of us—puts us on our toes and brings us to time in road building, which has been tried out in certain states, will be widely adopted as a money-saving measure. It seems that more roads are ruined by water seeping in from below than from the wear and tear of traffic on the surface. The new process prevents the decay of roads from the bottom by waterproofing the soil underneath. This is called "soil stabilization"

Mr. MacDonald will meet with hundreds of engineers in what is described as a "road clinic" to be held by the National Asphalt conference on December 8 in Memphis

Engineers from Missouri, Nebraska and South Carolina will take a prominent part in the program, as these three states have pioneered in large scale waterproofing of their roads. While congress prepares to battle

Warren Billings enters Folsom prison to serve life sentence for San Francisco preparedness day bombing

Mrs. H. Albert Therolf unknowingly was the cause of excitement Thursday night when leaving the Page theater she drove home in Geo. Hunt's car. The Therolf car and the Hunt auto are both Oakland and looked alike in the dark. Later when Mr. and Mrs. Hunt left the theater and discovered their car was gone they notified the police. After all the theater patrons were gone only the Therolf car was left in the vicinity. By its number the police found out the identity of the owner and a telephone message to the Therolf home quickly straightened out the situation

SALEM, Nov. 9.—(AP)—Thousands of wild geese, driven southward at the end of the northwest's Indian summer, stopped over here and kept Salem residents awake most of last night. The geese flew into Salem from the north and spent the night flying over the city

VANCOUVER, Wash., Nov. 9.—(AP)—Queen Lavonne Ledahl, 19, of last summer's Oregon Trail pageant at Eugene married James F. Taylor of Springfield, Ore.

SALEM, Nov. 9.—(AP)—Thousands of wild geese, driven southward at the end of the northwest's Indian summer, stopped over here and kept Salem residents awake most of last night. The geese flew into Salem from the north and spent the night flying over the city

VANCOUVER, Wash., Nov. 9.—(AP)—Queen Lavonne Ledahl, 19, of last summer's Oregon Trail pageant at Eugene married James F. Taylor of Springfield, Ore.

over the right of the government to regulate wages and hours, the secretary of agriculture goes and does it. Under the Sugar act of 1937, Mr. Wallace is authorized to establish "fair and reasonable wage rates" for agricultural labor

Southern senators are gazing with longing eyes at a political plum ripening in Secretary Wallace's garden: director of the southern division of the A.A.A.

Cully A. Cobb, who held the job, resigned in September to become president of the Ruralist Press of Atlanta, Ga. The likely candidate for the office is the man who is now acting director, I. W. Dugan, considered an authority on cotton. He is a native of Georgia, has degrees from two universities

The last syllables of academic splendor are disappearing from the facade of the late University club, new home of John Lewis' United Mine Workers. Three new stories have leaped upward and the sandblast is rapidly removing the Latinized names of America's honored halls of learning, which were once proudly carved across the face of the building

At this writing, "Tonensis" is all that remains of what was once "Hamilton." Next to go will be "Brunensis," which many mine workers (and others) probably do not know is the name of the chief justice's alma mater, dear old Brown

Geese Visit Salem. SALEM, Nov. 9.—(AP)—Thousands of wild geese, driven southward at the end of the northwest's Indian summer, stopped over here and kept Salem residents awake most of last night. The geese flew into Salem from the north and spent the night flying over the city

VANCOUVER, Wash., Nov. 9.—(AP)—Queen Lavonne Ledahl, 19, of last summer's Oregon Trail pageant at Eugene married James F. Taylor of Springfield, Ore.

SALEM, Nov. 9.—(AP)—Thousands of wild geese, driven southward at the end of the northwest's Indian summer, stopped over here and kept Salem residents awake most of last night. The geese flew into Salem from the north and spent the night flying over the city

VANCOUVER, Wash., Nov. 9.—(AP)—Queen Lavonne Ledahl, 19, of last summer's Oregon Trail pageant at Eugene married James F. Taylor of Springfield, Ore.

SALEM, Nov. 9.—(AP)—Thousands of wild geese, driven southward at the end of the northwest's Indian summer, stopped over here and kept Salem residents awake most of last night. The geese flew into Salem from the north and spent the night flying over the city

VANCOUVER, Wash., Nov. 9.—(AP)—Queen Lavonne Ledahl, 19, of last summer's Oregon Trail pageant at Eugene married James F. Taylor of Springfield, Ore.

SALEM, Nov. 9.—(AP)—Thousands of wild geese, driven southward at the end of the northwest's Indian summer, stopped over here and kept Salem residents awake most of last night. The geese flew into Salem from the north and spent the night flying over the city

VANCOUVER, Wash., Nov. 9.—(AP)—Queen Lavonne Ledahl, 19, of last summer's Oregon Trail pageant at Eugene married James F. Taylor of Springfield, Ore.

SALEM, Nov. 9.—(AP)—Thousands of wild geese, driven southward at the end of the northwest's Indian summer, stopped over here and kept Salem residents awake most of last night. The geese flew into Salem from the north and spent the night flying over the city

VANCOUVER, Wash., Nov. 9.—(AP)—Queen Lavonne Ledahl, 19, of last summer's Oregon Trail pageant at Eugene married James F. Taylor of Springfield, Ore.

SALEM, Nov. 9.—(AP)—Thousands of wild geese, driven southward at the end of the northwest's Indian summer, stopped over here and kept Salem residents awake most of last night. The geese flew into Salem from the north and spent the night flying over the city

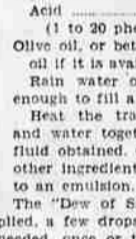

VANCOUVER, Wash., Nov. 9.—(AP)—Queen Lavonne Ledahl, 19, of last summer's Oregon Trail pageant at Eugene married James F. Taylor of Springfield, Ore.

SALEM, Nov. 9.—(AP)—Thousands of wild geese, driven southward at the end of the northwest's Indian summer, stopped over here and kept Salem residents awake most of last night. The geese flew into Salem from the north and spent the night flying over the city

VANCOUVER, Wash., Nov. 9.—(AP)—Queen Lavonne Ledahl, 19, of last summer's Oregon Trail pageant at Eugene married James F. Taylor of Springfield, Ore.

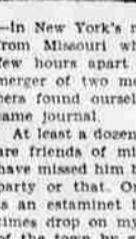

Portrait of a man, likely Dr. Brady.

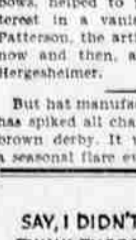

Portrait of a man, likely Dr. Hiram Evans.

Portrait of a man, likely Dr. Hiram Evans.

Portrait of a man, likely Dr. Hiram Evans.

Portrait of a man, likely Dr. Hiram Evans.

Portrait of a man, likely Dr. Hiram Evans.

Get Behind Washington Headlines

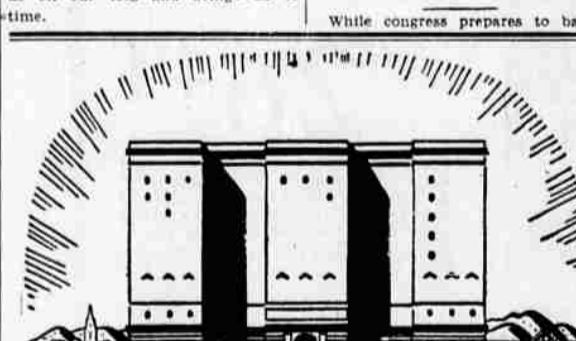

By H. R. Baukhage Copyright 1937, by The North American Newspaper Alliance, Inc.

get G&W

it's Good Whiskey

San Francisco NEW STYLE...OLD CHARM Today's panoramas from Nob Hill sweeps the great Bay Bridge and the rising World's Fair "Treasure Island"

STOMACH ULCERS Chinese herbs will give you relief—no matter what you are afflicted with—you owe it to yourself to use this opportunity to regain your health

Open 10 to 6 P. M. CHAN & CHAN Sat 11:30 P. M. Tues-Thurs 10:15 A. M. Closed Sun. Chinese Med. Co. 235 E. Main

VICKS V-A-T-R-O-NOL I TOLD YOU SO! WHAT'S MORE, IF YOU USE IT IN TIME, IT HELPS PREVENT A LOT OF COLDS