

COUNTY BRIEFS

Rogue Elk

ROGUE ELK, Nov. 12.—(Spl.)—W. McDonald entertained the teachers Tuesday evening with a marshmallow roast in the Rogue Elk dining room. Several musical numbers were given by Miss Guyzell Powell. Those who enjoyed the affair were Mr. and Mrs. H. Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. Ball, Miss Guyzell Powell, Miss Margaret Knox, Mrs. A. Davis and the host, W. McDonald.

S. Weeks was transacting business in Medford Monday. Wilmer Hagdale and Mr. Pence are building another modern cabin at Rogue Alure.

The 7th and 8th grades, assisted by the 5th grade will present the play, Daniel Boone, this week under direction of Mr. Lowe.

The first and second grade pupils have all taken Indian names for the month of November.

Robert Lowe spent the week-end visiting with Billy Traln.

Mrs. Howard Ash entertained Billy Train, Robert Lowe, Fay Ash and Benny Ash Saturday. She served the youngsters a delicious luncheon after their playing.

Blanche Zimmerlie, Mr. Weeks, members of the school board, and Peter Sandos, clerk, visited school this week.

Elmer Chamberlin and brother of Chemult, spent the week-end with his family at Rogue Alure.

Posters made by the 5th grade geography class are very interesting and educational.

The Vonstein had the misfortune to run a nail through the lower fleshy part of a thumb. Although very painful, it is not serious. Mr. Lowe administered first aid.

Mrs. W. Hagdale, P. T. A. president, is making extensive plans for starting hot lunches in the school. A hot dish at noon will be a great help to the children on cold days.

Mrs. Carl Childers is improving rapidly from her operation.

Dr. Malory and Mrs. Merriman were married Tuesday evening and left immediately for San Diego, where they expect to remain for two weeks. The entire community extends congratulations.

Jacksonville

JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 12.—(Spl.)—P. T. A. met November 5 with good attendance. An interesting program was put on by children of first three grades.

It was reported that the Hallows' carnival added $39.05 to the treasury and that the P. T. A. now has 21 paid up members. It was voted to have the school children participate in raising a fund to be used for the McLaughlin memorial.

A committee composed of Mesdames Arnold, Woodworth, Ounter and Gerrity was put in charge of a bazaar and mince-meat sale some time before Christmas.

It was also announced that the Presbyterian Ladies' Aid, the public health unit and the P. T. A. are joining forces to sew for the needy, and when a call comes they hope to be able to fill the need.

Next meeting of P. T. A. will be the afternoon of December 3.

Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Sanden attended rural carriers' meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent of Central Point, Saturday, where a covered-dish supper was enjoyed, followed by a business meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Gilmore and son of Ashland visited Mrs. Helen Johnson, October 31 returning to Ashland the following day. Mrs. Gilmore was formerly Miss Helen Walton.

Mrs. Gertrude Martin returned Saturday from a week's visit with relatives at Eugene.

Grade school students are working hard on an opera entitled "Hansel and Gretel," to be put in at the very close of the year.

The city council passed a bicycle ordinance at their last meeting, which will require all bicycle owners to have a license after the first of next year.

Mrs. Helen Johnson was a Medford caller November 1.

Mrs. Pearl James of Ashland was an overnight guest at the Sanden home Tuesday.

Relatives called here by the serious illness of Mrs. Polly Watkins are Cal Winningham of Happy Camp, Cal., Addie Hewitt, Rio Dell, Cal., Ella Russell and Jim Winningham of Klamath Falls, Minnie Baker from Victoria, B. C., and Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Hart of Molalla, Ore.

Jacksonville Extension unit will meet Tuesday, November 16, all day at the Presbyterian church. Members are asked to bring individual lunch.

Mrs. Mack will be present. Rev. and Mrs. S. H. Jones left on Armistice Day for a visit with Mrs. Jones' mother at Lebanon, Ore., and have moved out of the manse. They will be missed by a host of friends. The new pastor, Rev. E. N. Mallory, and wife moved into the manse Monday.

Masons and Eastern Star, with their friends, held a joint meeting Monday night. Program consisted of group singing led by Mesdames Severance and Peters, with Mrs. Richard Hoffman at the piano; readings by Lulu Saulberry; a splendid talk on the constitution by Prof. McNeal of the S.O.N.S. faculty, who is also district deputy grand master of Oregon; a vocal solo by Vivian Wilson. Following the program, refreshments were served by the Eastern Star.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bryant and family are planning to move to Texas in the near future.

Claude Armstrong of Grants Pass called on friends here Wednesday. He is a native of Jacksonville and attended school here in his boyhood.

Rev. Robt. A. Hutchinson, a former pastor here, has recently accepted

THE SILVER STANDARD found new support in this glistening silver lame dinner frock from Nina Ricci. At neck and waist glistening lames spread out attractively. Long sleeves characterize this model with drapery in front of bodice and skirt and a bit at each wrist.

ed the pastorate of the Salem church, the second largest church in the state.

Vyron Bostwick of the navy visited recently at the home of Judge Tou-Velle.

Mrs. Jno. Boyle of Medford and her mother, Mrs. Anna Chase of Yreka, were visitors here Tuesday.

Honoring Dale Pick on his eighth birthday, eight little friends gathered at his home November 5 to help him celebrate. The afternoon was spent in games, followed by refreshments.

Jacksonville public health unit met November 9 at the home of Mrs. Zola Pick. There were nine ladies present.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bilger of Seattle called on Mrs. Henrietta Pick November 4. Mr. Bilger is a member of the family which brought Mrs. Pick to this country from Iowa 61 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Williamson and son left for Mr. Williamson's former home in Illinois.

Mrs. Opal Donning and son left for Missouri recently.

A bride's shower was given by Mrs. Jack Stowell for Mrs. Flannell Nelson. The table was heaped with presents and all present enjoyed seeing the young bride opening her packages and passing them on for all to admire. After this, June Stowell served lovely refreshments.

Hustlers club met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Harry Herford. Fifteen members were present and all had a good time. Next meeting will be with Mrs. Orbra Abbott.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stowell made a visit to the coast last week-end.

Mrs. Josephine Geppert and Charlie Geppert attended the Eagles' convention Saturday and Sunday in Medford. Klamath Falls, Ashland and Grants Pass had large delegations there. Mrs. Bell Pankey was initiated from Butte Falls.

Mrs. B. N. Davis received word recently of the birth of a grandson. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fox, and born at Dallas, Texas.

Friends surprised Mrs. B. N. Davis Wednesday, the occasion being her birthday. Present were Mrs. Bertha Coleigh, Mrs. H. Van Gordon, and Mrs. A. V. Harris.

The opera "The Magic Beanstalk" under the direction of Mrs. Lloyd Morris will be presented at the gymnasium Nov. 19 at 8 p. m.

A food sale, sponsored by the Thursday club, will be held at the Phoenix Mercantile Saturday, Nov. 13 from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m.

Butte Falls

BUTTE FALLS, Nov. 12.—(Spl.)—Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Adams and son and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gott are spending a month visiting San Francisco, Los Angeles and other places in California, also traveling north.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Williamson and son left for Mr. Williamson's former home in Illinois.

Mrs. Opal Donning and son left for Missouri recently.

A bride's shower was given by Mrs. Jack Stowell for Mrs. Flannell Nelson. The table was heaped with presents and all present enjoyed seeing the young bride opening her packages and passing them on for all to admire. After this, June Stowell served lovely refreshments.

Hustlers club met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Harry Herford. Fifteen members were present and all had a good time. Next meeting will be with Mrs. Orbra Abbott.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stowell made a visit to the coast last week-end.

Mrs. Josephine Geppert and Charlie Geppert attended the Eagles' convention Saturday and Sunday in Medford. Klamath Falls, Ashland and Grants Pass had large delegations there. Mrs. Bell Pankey was initiated from Butte Falls.

Mrs. B. N. Davis received word recently of the birth of a grandson. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fox, and born at Dallas, Texas.

Nee house vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Jim Rogers and sons. They moved to camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Rogers and sons have moved to camp.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jackson moved back to Butte Falls.

Miss Lynch, Miss Applegate and Mrs. Golding have moved into the Moorehouse place.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles White named their baby girl Reta Mary. She is eleven days old now.

Sardine Creek

SARDINE CREEK, Nov. 12.—(Spl.)—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wright and children, Thelbert and Vada, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. Wright's sister, Mrs. Catherine Berg and family, near Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Henselman and daughter Joan of Medford were callers Sunday at the Wait home.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rains of Grants Pass called here Sunday, bringing home her father, Lawrence Kirtley, who had been spending some time with them.

John Smith from near Medford and George Smith left Sunday for Klamath county to hunt elk.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Meyers attended the meeting of the Dairy Goat association in Rogue River Sunday. They have purchased five head of fine milk goats.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dusenberry were dinner guests Friday of Mr. and Mrs. George Myers. The dinner was given in honor of Mr. Myers' birthday.

Riza and Elsworth, twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. George Ring, who are in the army, are home on furlough. They have been stationed in Alaska, but find the climate there doesn't compare with that in southern Oregon.

Howard Dunlap and daughter Vivian of Modoc called on friends here Sunday.

George Myers and Gerald Robbins of the Del Rio orchards left Sunday for the Ralph Darling ranch near Fort Klamath, to join in an elk hunt.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wilde and baby, Wanda Mae, of Grants Pass called on relatives here Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Croft and daughter Sylvia were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Martin on the Old Stage road. The dinner was given in honor of the birthday of Mr. Martin. Mr. Croft and Jimmie Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dusenberry were Sunday dinner guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Shoemaker.

A social dance will be given at the Community hall Saturday night, November 13, by Ralph Dusenberry and George Myers. Everybody is cordially invited.

This community was greatly saddened this week by the passing of Mrs. Howard Dunlap at the Sacred Heart hospital in Medford, Saturday.

Mrs. Dunlap, with her husband and two daughters, have lived here for nearly two years and have made many friends who will miss her smiling face and cheerful disposition. She was laid to rest beside her parents in the Central Point cemetery Tuesday. Sincere sympathy of the entire community is extended to the bereaved family in their great loss of a beloved wife and mother.

Prospect

PROSPECT, Nov. 12.—(Spl.)—About 50 members of Upper Rogue Grange met and held annual election of officers November 4, at the Grange hall. R. Axtell will be the new master, succeeding Paul Robertson, who has served most efficiently the past two years.

David Neville is a patient at the Community hospital in Medford where he underwent a major operation Wednesday.

Mrs. Clell Cunningham is a patient at the Sacred Heart hospital in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Starbard are spending several days in Portland on business.

Elmer Clemens has returned from an elk hunting trip in Klamath county.

Mr. Paulson, a Seattle lumberman, spent Wednesday visiting various saw-mills in the community.

John Wilkinson and J. R. Robinson of the McCurdy-Daniels Insurance company in Medford spent Wednesday in the community on business.

Patch and Chat club met November 8 at Mrs. Gus Ditworth's. Sixteen ladies were present.

Union Sunday school met Sunday at the Grange hall and next Sunday Rev. Stille will be the speaker at the same place.

Wednesday night the first rehearsal for the P. T. A. play to be given soon was held at Prof. Wilson's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Vincent and Uriah Gordon and Miss Clara Gordon, who have been residing on the William Grieve ranch, moved this week to the Dick Vincent ranch recently vacated by the Beddingfield family.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Dunningan and Mr. and Mrs. James Dole were Medford shoppers Wednesday.

Prospect Study club met Wednesday in the school dining room.

Mrs. Leo Boothby, who has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chancy Arant the past three weeks, left Monday for her home in Stockton, Cal., accompanied by her brother, Clifford Arant.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Arant have moved to Red Bluff.

Saturday night, November 13, the Prospect Townsman club will hold amateur night at the Nelson Nye home.

Nazarene Young People's society will give a party Friday night, November 12, at the Fowler home at Red Bluff.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Dole have moved into a house on the William Grieve ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Reid are the parents of another pair of twins, a boy and a girl, both weighing 4 1/2 pounds. The makes the second pair of twins born to Mr. and Mrs. Reid of Talent.

Extension unit met at the city hall Wednesday at 10 a. m., with Mrs. I. C. Williams as leader. The topic for discussion was clothes and accessories. A covered dish luncheon was served at noon.

Bert Simmons underwent a major operation at the Ashland Community hospital Thursday.

Mrs. Art Graham has gone to Torrance, Cal., to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fix. Her brother and sister, Dewey and Bertha, accompanied her.

Mrs. Riley Nyswanger of Chiloquin visited her mother, Mrs. Mary Works, recently.

Mrs. Wanda Works and children have moved to Ashland but expect to leave soon for southern California.

A car stolen from Cliff Garvin last Saturday night was recovered on the Dead Indian road. It was undamaged.

Mrs. L. Phelan of Grand Island, Neb., is visiting at the home of her father, J. C. Crawford.

Mrs. Preston attended the football game at Medford Friday.

Harry and Margaret Hamilton and Mrs. Mary Higgins have returned home from Portland where they visited Mrs. Cutforth.

Mr. and Mrs. Garver and son Dean left recently for Twin Falls, Idaho, to be gone for two months.

E. E. Evans of Chiloquin, former principal of the schools here, visited friends in Talent last week.

Steve Wilson and Bob Bishop took a large load of hogs to the market in San Francisco the first of the week.

Dulcie Caton left for Klamath Falls Tuesday after spending several days visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Caton, and daughters, Dale and Gale Beebe.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stubblefield and family of Portland are visiting Glen and Ellis Garrett for several days, en route to Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Holst of Medford called at the John Holst home Friday.

Earl Weaver returned home from Medford last week. He has spent the past three months there keeping books for a Medford fruit firm.

Ladies' club met Thursday with Mrs. Joe Dusenberry. A feature of the meeting was surprise gifts for those having birthdays the past three months. A shower was also given the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Smith and son of Gold Hill visited Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Wes McDonough.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cota have moved from the Harry Nealon house to a 20-acre tract near Sevn Oaks, which they recently purchased.

Several local turkey raisers are busy picking their birds for market this week.

HONEY MAID BREAD

a bread of the "home baking" standard. It has a flavor—thousands of Medford people enjoy daily. Remember "Honey Maid" on the label means quality on your table.

Ask Your Grocer For Honey Maid

Fall Season For MINCE PIE

IS HERE We use the finest "Borden" old time mince meat, baked between a fine tasting crust, you should have no trouble to digest it.

An 8-inch 30c PIE

MODEL BAKERY

Phone 511, Cor. Main & Grape

NOW OPEN For Business

MEDFORD'S WHOLESOME SEA FOOD MARKET

Products Fresh From Coos Bay

Ocean Salmon, Fresh Tuna, Black Cod, Red Snapper, Halibut, Coos Bay Oysters, Deep Sea Crab, Empire Clams.

Forest Creek

FOREST CREEK, Nov. 12.—(Spl.)—Joe Sanders who recently sold his five acre tract near the Pioneer service station, to Mr. Harrison of Los Angeles, moved last week west of Rogue River on the old highway close to the White brothers ranch.

Don Elliott received word that his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elliott were coming from Riverside, Calif. this week to spend the winter with Mr. Elliott's mother, here.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe of Springfield, Ore., came last week to spend some time with Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Cook. Mrs. Cook is their niece.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Cook of Gold Hill spent Nov. 5 at their Highland mine here.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lance of Grants Pass visited Nov. 8 with Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Cook.

Mrs. Clay Biles, Bonnie Jean, Robert and Ross of Rogue River and Mrs. Chores of Medford called at the Lance and Miller home Nov. 7.

Mr. Hendricks and M. Boomstiter were Grants Pass visitors Nov. 6, where Mr. Boomstiter received treatment for eye trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. George Drummond of Grants Pass called on Riviero friends Nov. 4.

Phoenix

PHOENIX, Nov. 12.—(Spl.)—Young People of the Presbyterian church will have a pot-luck supper this evening followed by a special business meeting.

Mrs. Chas. E. McClain left last week for San Francisco to receive medical treatment for some time.

Dr. and Mrs. A. B. McLeod of Long Beach, California, visited Wednesday with the Rev. and Mrs. E. F. McFarland.

A waffle breakfast was served to Donald Barnes, Eston Way, Alex McFarland, Junior Medcalf, and Marvin Madden Thursday morning at the manse. Thursday evening dinner guests of the Rev. and Mrs. E. F. McFarland were Mr. and Mrs. E. Lester Newbury.

Mrs. B. N. Davis received word recently of the birth of a grandson. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fox, and born at Dallas, Texas.

With Mellow Cheese SNOW FLAKES FOR FLAVOR

"What makes this cheese so good?" inquires the pleased guest. The proud hostess replies... it's Snow Flake Sodas, cracker favorites which come so flaky and fresh from National Biscuit Company nearby Western bakeries.

Mellow cheese needs Snow Flake Sodas, delicately salted crackers glowing with the golden blush of perfect baking. Baked near home and rushed to your grocer in double-wax-wrapped packages, they are the perfect accompaniment for cheese. Keep a generous supply on hand.

Your grocer features a real economy value in the popular 2-pound "family" size. Two other convenient sizes too!

Always ASK FOR SNOW FLAKES AND ENJOY UNSURPASSED QUALITY A PRODUCT OF NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

Graduation Day An occasion you'll never forget

High spots of bygone days are pleasant to live again—if only in memory. Unforgettable, too, is the matchless flavor of Hills Bros. Coffee. Those who drink it will testify to that. For 59 years the unvarying goodness of Hills Bros. Coffee has been enjoyable to remember, delightful to anticipate. This is the coffee you will enjoy again and again.

HILLS BROS. COFFEE

o-o-o-o-o-o!

When you see it, you'll want to taste it. When you taste it, you'll declare it's the best piece of cake you have ever eaten. For you, Saturday.

Date-Top Caramel Cake 59c Each

In the attractive box which keeps your cake as fresh as the day it was made.

For extra tastiness, use Beck's DeLuxe . 10c For Taste, Texture and Toasting use Beck's Triple "T" 15c

At all good food stores or BECK'S Bakery