

Gray's Brilliant Passing Gives Staters 12 to 12 Tie With Trojans

PHANTOM HEAVES 12 PASSES IN ROW FOR TOUCHDOWNS

Final Half Rally By Corvallis Squad Matches Power—Schindler Injured.

MEMORIAL COLISEUM, LOS ANGELES, Nov. 13.—(UP)—The brilliant and uncanny forward passing of Joe Gray, Oregon State college left halfback, matched the powerhouse drives and aerial spurts of University of Southern California here today as the two football teams fought to a 12 to 12 tie before 35,000 spectators.

Southern California rang up 12 points, a touchdown in both the first and second periods before Oregon State got started. Gray took charge in the second period and pitched 12 complete passes for more than 140 yards and two touchdowns.

USC lost much of its early drive when Ambrose Schindler, star quarterback, who engineered the first score, injured his right knee and was removed from the game. Oregon State, however, suffered in the same manner when Gray went out at the close of the second period with a similar injury.

Schindler and Gray returned to the field as the fourth period started, but the Trojan ace could remain but one minute. Minus their stars, neither team was able to score again although USC got close enough to the Oregon goal in the fourth period to allow Phil Gaspar, left tackle, to try for a field goal from the 17 yard line. The ball sailed wide by several feet.

GONZAGA BEATEN BY IDAHO 6 TO 0

SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 13.—(AP)—Big Dick (Truck) Truskowski capitalized on his 215 pounds of plunging power today to lead the University of Idaho Vandals to a 6 to 0 football victory over Gonzaga in rain and mud.

The ponderous fullback from Milwaukee, Wis., plunged over for the only score of the game from the two-yard line after nine minutes of play. Halfback Harold Rouse's placekick try for the extra point with a slippery ball was wide.

Neither team ever threatened seriously to score again. Although Idaho piled up an overwhelming yardage advantage in registering eight first downs to Gonzaga's two.

Harvard Manages to Beat Davidson, 15-0

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 13.—(AP)—A hard fighting Davidson College football team today held Harvard to two touchdowns and a safety in the mud of soldiers field, the Crimson winning 15-0. A crowd of 4,000 rain-drenched spectators saw Frank Foley, substitute halfback, score both Harvard touchdowns. He scampered 63 yards in the third period for the second tally.

Place Kick Gives Indiana 3 to 0 Win

IOWA CITY, Iowa, Nov. 13.—(AP)—George Miller's place kick from the 12-yard line in the final period gave Indiana a 3 to 0 victory over Iowa in a bitterly fought Big Ten football game today.

TIGERS CLOSE TO CONFERENCE WIN

Southern Oregon Conference

Medford	W	L	T	PCT.
Klamath Falls	1	0	1	1.000
Ashland	1	0	2	1.000
Grants Pass	1	1	1	.500

Only one 1937 Southern Oregon conference game remains to be played—that between Medford's roaring Tigers and the Grants Pass Ravens at Grants Pass next Friday night—and upon the outcome of that battle hinges the championship.

A victory for Coach Bill Bowerman's Black Ferns will clinch the title. In case the two teams struggle to a tie, Medford and Klamath Falls will wind up the season deadlocked for the pennant. If Grants Pass upsets the favored locals, the championship will go to Klamath Falls, which has not been defeated.

By their spectacular win over Ashland here Armistice day, the Tigers became heavy favorites to complete their season without loss. Grants Pass, an in and out ball club all season, was held to a 6-6 tie by a Roseburg team that Medford defeated, 39-7. However, Medford coaches have pointed out to their squad that Grants Pass, previous to the Roseburg tie, defeated Ashland, 13-7, in a non-conference squabble and held the powerful Eureka outfit scoreless until the last four minutes of play.

Junior Hi Wins Over Pass 14 to 0

With 40 players seeing action, Medford junior high hammered out a smashing 14-0 victory over Grants Pass junior high Friday afternoon at Grants Pass.

Pullback Louie Thurman scored the first touchdown, going over from the five-yard line in the opening quarter following a drive of 55 yards. It took Coach George Harrington's team just seven plays to move that distance.

The locals scored again in the third quarter when Thurman shot a forward pass to Halfback Eugene Hayes, standing in the end zone. Thurman and Ray Johnson added the extra points after both touchdowns.

Outstanding in the Medford line were Curt Hopkins, end; Claude Jones, center, and Jack Florey, tackle.

Medford juniors will end their season next Thursday afternoon at VanScyoc field in a return battle with the Grants Pass aggregation. The game starts at 8 o'clock.

Field Goal Gives Indiana a Victory

IOWA CITY, Ia., Nov. 13.—(AP)—George Miller, Indiana's burly center whose greatest delight is to drop into the backfield to kick a field goal, thoroughly enjoyed himself today as he did his favorite act from the 72-yard line to give the Hoosiers a 3 to 0 victory over fighting Iowa team.

Somewhat less than 10,000 shivering spectators sat in suspense as Miller stepped back early in the fourth quarter from his customary pivot position and booted the ball directly between the goal posts.

Oliver Goldenrod was locked in by his landlady when Dr. Johnson called on him, asked him if he didn't have a manuscript he could sell for him, and was handed "The Vicar of Wakefield," one of the most delightful books ever published.

OREGON TRAMPLED BY BEARS 26 TO 0 IN DREARY RAIN

California Scores Thrice In Second Period—Webfeet Crushed By California Power In Mud.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 13.—(AP)—The California football crusher—Rose Bowl bound—fired touchdowns across the Oregon goal line today almost as rapidly as dreary rain dripped from leaden northwest skies.

The Golden Bears, cutting through the slippery, slimy, sloppy, mud waves on Multnomah field with Navy-like precision, scored a direct 26-0 hit against the hapless Webfeet.

The Ducks who should have felt at home on the gridiron marsh, flustered wanly and collapsed before the California broadside.

The Bear regulars punched over three quick touchdowns in the second period. A second team scored another soon after the second half opened. Oregon couldn't make headway against a third eleven in the final quarter.

California ball carriers marched 224 yards from rushing against 63 for Oregon.

D. Anderson, California fullback, crashed to a touchdown from the two-yard line on the second play of the second quarter. The Bears carried the march through the Webfeet defenders from their own 48-yard line.

Bottari ran a punt to the Oregon 23-yard line to touch off the second drive. Dale LaSelle, Webfoot halfback, had been forced to kick from the end zone after his mates held off the Bears on the two-yard line. Anderson splashed through tackle to the 15-yard line. Sam Chapman, right halfback, made it first down on the three and then circled the Oregon left side for the touchdown.

Bill Soll, California tackle, set up the third score when he recovered a slippery ball on the Webfoot 34. John Meek, the quarterback, completed two of Bottari's passes and reached the Oregon five. The straight shooting halfback's third throw was snapped in for a touchdown by Hank Sparks, substitute end.

Oregon had its only moment of glory at the start of the third period. Jimmy Nicholson, halfback, ran the kickoff 40 yards to the Oregon 48. The Webfoots marched through the third string Bears to the 30 and then LaSelle punted out of bounds on the eight.

Will Ingram, substitute halfback, traveled 24 and 19 yards on successive runs to place the Bears on the Oregon 18-yard line in the third period. F. Anderson and Perry Thomas plunged to the three-yard line where Thomas bounced over for the score.

IRISH DOWN ARMY ON MUDDY FIELD

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—(AP)—Displaying no particular signs of wear and tear from one of the country's most formidable football schedules, the fighting Irish swept up and down a muddy, rain-rusted gridiron today to give Notre Dame a decisive victory over Army. The final score was 7 to 0 but the Soldiers were back on their heels from start to finish and outclassed in everything but the bravery of their goal line stands.

A crowd of 78,000 saw the Irish capitalize a first play "break" to register the game's only touchdown and then miss five additional chances to score. Four times the Irish lacked a scoring punch, twice inside Army's five-yard line, but the game was nevertheless a rout from a ground-gaining standpoint.

YALE OVERWHELMS PRINCETON, 26-0

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 13.—(AP)—Yale's great Clint Frank for the second straight Saturday scored all his team's touchdowns as the Bulldogs trounced their traditional rival, Princeton, 26 to 0, in rain-swept Yale bowl.

To his three scoring runs against Brown a week ago, the shifty, hard-running Eli leader added four more today, two of them on spectacular trips from past midfield that brought the sudden crowd of 40,000 to its feet. He didn't play the fourth quarter, or the damage might have been worse.

Holy Cross Triumphs Over Brown By 7-0

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 13.—(AP)—Holy Cross remained among the nation's undefeated football teams by defeating Brown, 7-0, today in a driving rainstorm which forced both teams to play straight football. The Crusaders protected a lead they acquired in the first period, when they drove 37 yards for a touchdown in five plays. The march was climaxed with Bill Demanski scoring from the 22-yard line.

COUGARS CRUSHED BY STANFORD, 23-0

PALO ALTO, Calif., Nov. 13.—(AP) Stanford's Indiana, reaching peak form after early season defeats and disappointments, crushed Washington State's Cougars under a 23 to 0 score here today.

The smallest football crowd of the local season, some 75,000 fans, was rewarded with a hammer and tongs contest in which the superiority of Coach C. E. Thornhill's red jerseyed warriors looked out like a beacon atop a mountain peak.

After a scoreless first period, with each team held to yardage gains in its own half of the field, the Stanford attack began clicking.

It reached scoring proportions midway of the second quarter, when Carl Littlefield, W. S. C. fullback, fumbled twice in succession to give Stanford the ball 11 yards from scoring turf. Pete Fay, shifty left halfback, sped around end for the touchdown to give his team a lead which turned to a landslide by the time the final gun barked.

The Indians came back after the halftime rest to post another touchdown and a field goal into the records during the third period while the most one-sided victory of the season was climaxed by another touchdown in the final quarter.

Alert to every opportunity, Stanford's pigskin heroes blocked a punt on Halfback Bayne to score their third period touchdown. Neil Rasmussen, left end, scooped up the ball on the three-yard line and stepped across the goal line.

Stanford's Quarterback Bill Paulman demonstrated new found placekicking ability by booting a 31-yard field goal and three more points.

ALABAMA SCORES 7-0 WIN, GEORGIA TECH.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 13.—(AP)—Alabama's Crimson Tide continued along the undefeated and untied football trail today by scoring a fourth period touchdown to defeat Georgia Tech 7 to 0 after the Atlanta engineers had waged an inspiring battle that threatened to upset the Red Regiment.

ILLINOIS OUTCLASSED BY OHIO STATE, 19-0

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 13.—(AP)—Ohio State defeated Illinois, 19 to 0, today in a Big Ten grid contest before a crowd of 41,921. Illinois made only three first downs, all on passes.

HUSKIES WALLOP UGLANS HANDILY IN MUDDY BATTLE

SEATTLE, Nov. 13.—(AP)—Proving their great scoreless tie against the mighty California Bears last week was no fluke, the Washington Huskies lambasted the University of California at Los Angeles Bruins 26 to 0 in the Washington stadium today.

Some 10,000 fans braved rain, wind and a second-half snowstorm to see the alppery, skidding mud battle. The turf field was more of a marsh than a gridiron and the spectators were amazed when the Huskies worked beautifully-executed passes with the soggy ball for two of their four touchdowns.

The Californians must have thought they were playing in Alaska when big flakes of snow fell throughout the last half, making it difficult to follow the ball. The fans weren't surprised at the downpour, but it was the first snow at a football game in Seattle in years.

The Bruins kept their scoreless record against the Huskies clean as a whistle. They never seriously threatened the Washington goal line. The closest they got was to the Husky 30-yard line in the first period. In the four games played between UCLA and Washington, the Bruins have failed to make a single point.

Washington scored a touchdown in the second and third quarters and piled up two more in the final period. Halfback Merle Miller plunged for one and caught a pass for another. Jimmy Johnston romped 36 yards for the third; Dan Yarr grabbed an aerial shot for the last one, just before the final gun.

Line plunges by Fritz Washovitz and Al Cruver, and a clever lateral pass by the same pair, put the Huskies in position for the first touchdown. With the ball on the UCLA 26-yard line, Washovitz let fly with the slippery pigskin and Miller speared it over his shoulder, out of the grasp of the Bruins' Kenny Washington, and then Miller stepped over the goal line for a touchdown.

MINNESOTA TRIUMPHS OVER NORTHWESTERN

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 13.—(AP)—Minnesota's Golden Gophers maintained their perfect standing in the western conference by defeating a stubborn Northwestern university team here today before a 63,000 homecoming crowd. Captain Ray King intercepted a Northwestern pass and ran it back 33 yards to put the ball in scoring position, and then counted the game's winning touchdown on an aerial in the first quarter.

LAST HALF SURGE GIVES PITT WIN OVER NEBRASKA

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 13.—(AP)—In a last period surge that lifted 71,000 stunned spectators off their seats, Pittsburgh's Panthers of football broke loose again to blast surprising Nebraska from the ranks of the undefeated, 13 to 7.

The clock showed nine minutes and 35 seconds left to play and Nebraska ahead, 7-0, when the Panthers clawed out of their cage with a relentless attack and a choice bit of luck to come from behind to a thrilling conquest for the third time in as many weeks. First, they marched 80 yards on 13 plays, missed on a placement to tie the score, and then grasped a Nebraska fumble to push over the winning score with less than five minutes to go.

This was the sequence of events in the dramatic struggle that was billed to be just another Pittsburgh runaway.

Third period—Cautious Nebraska out-slicked the city slickers as Harris Andrews took Bill Stapulis' punt on his 40, made three steps to his right and then lateraled to Jack Dodd, who cut down the left side of the field for a beautifully blocked run of 60 yards for a touchdown Lowell English placekicked perfectly for the extra point and Nebraska led, 7-0.

Fourth period—Pitt took the oal to Nebraska's nine. Pullback Frank Patrick and Stebbins smashed through to the two and Patrick lunged over for the score. Frank Souchak jumped off the bench to kick the extra point but the ball hit the right upright and kicked off the wrong side and it looked like Pitt was licked, 6-7.

Nebraska took the next kickoff and lost the ball to Pitt, who ran it to Nebraska's two and Stapulis lunged over for the winning touchdown. This time Souchak did not miss the kick and that was the finish.

FAVORED DUKE LOSES 14-6 TO TAR HEELS

DURHAM, N. C., Nov. 13.—(AP)—The University of North Carolina upset the favored Duke university eleven today to give the Blue Devils their first defeat of the season. The score was 14 to 6. An estimated 45,000 spectators believed to be a record attended a second game in the south, saw the Tar Heels come from behind with touchdowns in the second and fourth quarters after Duke had scored in the first.

MAD POLE MEETS LEG MASTER IN ARMORY MAT WAR

A capacity crowd is expected to turn out tomorrow night at the Medford armory for the return to local grappling wars of Joe Smolinski, Polish Palooka, and Jimmy Lott, former gridiron flash of the University of Alabama's Crimson Tide. Promoter Mack Lillard revealed yesterday that the advance ticket sales were the best in several weeks.

Lott, a clean wrestler most of the time, tangles with Bobby Chick in the main event while Smolinski, one of the meanest brutes to ever gouge an eye, faces Steve Strelch of Hollywood in the middle squabble.

Opening the card will be Sailor Ole Olson and Big Jarbo, the pair that went five sensational rounds last Monday with Olson, by virtue of a surprisingly dirty attack, winning in two out of three falls.

The thoroughly hated Smolinski will be facing a gent who has proved many times that he knows all the answers, orthodox and otherwise. Although Strelch is himself a clean grappler, depending almost entirely on a pair of amazingly educated legs, he is tough as they come, and Smolinski is expected to find himself hard put to make his homecoming successful.

Syracuse-Columbia Tie
NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—(AP)—Syracuse and Columbia fought to a 6 to 6 tie on a muddy field before 12,000 fans at Baker field today. Rain and a muddy field tied up each eleven's attack and neither could score in the second half after each had tallied in the first. Columbia in the first period and the Orange in the second.
