Organizations Plan Several Important Events on Tuesday

Tuesday will be an especially active day in local society with a variety of events scheduled for the day.

The larger affair will be the luncheon for which Medford Ladies of Elks will be hosts to the Ashland club at the Elks temple. Mrs. Maud Snider is general chairman for the afternoon and she and her committee plan to make this one of the highlights of the club's season. Cards, pool and bowling are on the program following luncheon. About fifty guests from the neighbor city will attend.

Rotarians are also entertaining out-of-town guests Tuesday, having invited the Grants Pass club with their wives to be guests at a banquet and entertainment in the evening at St. Mark's parish hall. Frank Jenkins of Klamath Falls will be guest speaker at the dinner and dancing and cards will follow. Wives of local Rotary members have also been invited.

Another large event is the Eastern Star gathering of Medford, Jacksonville, Central Point and Ashland members in Ashland to honor Mrs. Alice Wetherout of Grants Pass, Grand Worthy of the Grand chapter and all past grand officers in southern Oregon.

Chapter BE of P.E.O. will meet with Miss Katherine Stewart and the Contemporary Book club will meet for luncheon at Valentine's followed by a program at Mrs. W. H. Pluhner's. DeMolay mothers meet with Mrs. J. C. Thompson.

Several church societies are also meeting for regular sessions.

CIVIC MUSIC ASSN. GOES OVER TOP IN SIGNING MEMBERS

Three Outstanding Attractions Assured for Winter — Ballet, Piano Team, Basso Will Be Enjoyed

The Civic Music association enrollment went over the top at the close of the campaign Saturday night and Medford and southern Oregon are now assured of three outstanding attractions this winter.

The talent committee met late the same evening to select the artists who will appear under the Civic Music plan with Trudi Schoop and her comic ballet chosen to highlight the season's program.

Trudi Schoop is hailed in Europe as the "Female Charlie Chaplin" and is described as the funniest girl in the world. Gaiety abounds in her new type of ballet which Edna Ferber has described as "the most amusing and most amazingly fresh entertainment," and everywhere critics acclaim this subtle and two-edged art as the most refreshing novelty in years.

Lubozhutz and Nemenoff, famous two-piano team, will also appear here. They are artists of rare ability, charm and warmth of personality and their playing is described as a flawless demonstration of the art of exquisite piano playing.

The names of both these artists are well known to the music public through their activities as solo pianists as well as through their more recent entry into two-piano field. Pierre Lubozhutz has appeared in collaboration with many fellow artists as well as with major symphony orchestras, including the New York Philharmonic Symphony under Arturo Toscanini.

Third in the list of winter attractions will be Douglas Beattie, young American bass-baritone, hailed as one of the really great artists of the future. Tall, handsome and young, with a bass voice which critics have pronounced "one of the finest now to be heard," Beattie is being groomed for a brilliant career. Says the San Francisco News, "Beattie is a rightful contestant for the title of America's finest basso. He seems to have everything necessary for stardom. His voice is one of great beauty, depth and seemingly unlimited powers, intelligently used. His diction is excellent. Musicianship, showmanship, dramatic ability and personality supplement his vocal assets."

The campaign closed Saturday night with an assured membership for the winter season. The association this year will be stronger than ever and with three outstanding attractions, should be assured of a permanent and brilliant future.

What the Girl Scouts Are Doing

The weekly General Course in Girl Scouting will be given Tuesday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock at headquarters, with Mrs. Raymond Driver, "Grey Owl," speaking on nature projects. Anyone interested in the Girl Scout program is invited to attend these meetings. "Somemores" will be made by the leaders.

Wednesday afternoon from 1:30 to 3:30 o'clock, the troop progress course is given in advanced scout work. Second class will be studied and methods of presentation given. Following this discussion the leaders will make bread twisters.

A special handicraft class for all Girl Scouts is held Saturday afternoon from 1 to 2:30 o'clock. The Girl Scout office is closed on Friday as Mrs. Marjorie Pena, the director, is giving training courses in Grants Pass on that day.

FOOTBALLERS ASK DELAY FOR PLEA

Ell Caple, Jr., 22, Marshall Horn, 20, and Stanley Borden, 19, Oregon Normal school at Bandon football squad members, charged in an indictment returned by the Jackson county grand jury last Saturday, with "robbery by force and violence, without being armed by a dangerous weapon," were arraigned in circuit court this morning, and through counsel asked further time to plead. It was granted.

Attorney George M. Roberts, Medford, informed the court he had been retained as counsel for the trio. Bonds were fixed by the court at $1000 each.

The grand jury returned a not true bill against Richard M. Messenger, 22, Ashland drug-store clerk, also allegedly involved in the escape. According to the district attorney, Messenger in a signed statement, admitted presence at the time of the robbery of E. D. Rice, Dallas, Texas, traveling jewelry salesman, but denied participation or sharing the loot. The indictment charges $81.15 and a gold watch were taken from Rice at a spot two miles from Ashland, on the Pacific Highway, on the night of October 30, while en route to haul Rice's disabled auto into Ashland.

Tahiti
This little world surrounded by the sea
Is enchanting and romantic as could be.
Weathered in beauty by its native charm,
Wooded in grandeur by the stately palm,
The native flower, so beautiful to see,
A gift from God I confess to thee.

The blue lagoon so deep and clear,
We look beneath your depths and cheer;
Flashes of odd shapes and color seem
No less than a beautiful, tasteful dream.
The ecstasy and thrill of being, come to me
To view the wonderful coral reef beneath the sea.

The brilliancy of your sunsets we'll never forget,
Nor have we experienced one sad regret.
Your mountains so majestic, so high,
One can imagine they reach the sky;
Covered with verdure so fresh and green,
As charming as one has ever seen.

All is peaceful and harmoniously we rest,
Knowing how bountifully we are blest.
But our silence is broken without alarm
When a coconut drops from a tall palm.
Let us be thankful we walked this way
At the close of a most perfect day.

Our time will come when we must part,
Though you've grown very near to our hearts.
For soon we'll be leaving this mystic tale—
Sailing through the sea for many a mile.
Then we must say farewell to thee,
To lovely Tahiti surrounded by the sea.

SURVIVORS TELL GRAPHIC TALE OF MEN AGAINST SEA

who went mad and bit the captain, died on the raft and his body washed into the sea.

Corrie, the Englishman, said: "I went over with a life buoy as it floated by. The ship took me down with her and I heard her gurgle going down. I couldn't swim but grabbed a piece of timber and held on. Sharks cut at my ankle and I grabbed a stick and tried to scare them away.

"A seaplane finally spotted me and dropped a smoke bomb. It was some time before I was picked up. I am pretty sore but feel pretty strong."

Corrie said the vessel was heavily laden with scrap iron when she put out from Morehead City, N. C., and ran into heavy seas soon after leaving port. When she shipped water, then suddenly lifted, he waited until she took two lurches and "stepped off into the water."

The captain said he drifted on the raft with several others for 32 hours before rescue.

Commander Coyle said "every man was accounted for" of the 28 aboard the vessel when she foundered. The boatswain, Prangolas Kiladitis, died aboard the Mendota after being rescued. The Mendota brought in three other bodies, and three still were missing.

BRONCO PASSES TRIM GAELS, 7-0

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15.—(AP)—A long pass, followed by a short one kept University of Santa Clara Broncos in the undefeated column of the football league today.

Those two aerial thrusts yesterday gave Santa Clara a 7 to 0 victory over St. Mary's college. Late in the third quarter after the Gaels had stopped their running plays cold at the line of scrimmage, the Bronco took the air. A 33-yard pass, Pellegrini to Coffey, put the ball on St. Mary's 17 yard line.

Three line smashes advanced the ball to the ten from where Barlow flashed a short pass to Fisher over the goal line for the touchdown. Pellegrini's conversion kick was blocked, but Right Tackle Al Wolff scooped up the free ball and ran over the goal line for the extra point.

Their hopes of some day playing the Pacific coast "big independents" on even terms came true. Only one week ago the Dons lost a bitterly contested game to St. Mary's by a 3 to 0 count with the Dons scoring a last moment touchdown that was called back.
