Wall St. Report

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.-(AP) - Stocks shuffled through a maze of rallies and declines in today's market, and a last-minute upturn in the major atelae enabled many leaders to cancel or reduce extreme losses of 1 to more than 3 points. While the closing was well mixed, minus signs predominated with a number of high-priced specialties displaying weakness. The pace was relatively slow throughout.

Gold mining stocks were among those to contest the trend, attracting moderate demand on the theory they would furnish capital protection in the event of further deflation. Extension of yesterday's set-back was in the face of a large assortment of year-end and special dividends from corporations wishing to avoid the undistributed profits tax. "Stage Door" With Three Great Stars Opening Tomorrow

Summing up in its strikingly realistic story the lives and careers of all stage-struck girls everywhere, "Stage Door" brings Katharine Hepburn and Ginger Rogers together for the first time with Adolphe Menjou co-starred at the head of a brilliant cast.

The picture is based on the famous stage play which ran for nearly half a year in New York. Most of its vividly absorbing action takes place in a theatrical boarding house where scores of eager and ambitious girls fight and hope and sometimes perish while they strive for fame behind the footlights. From every walk of life they come; rich and poor, sympathetic and selfish, but all motivated by one common dream of stage success. Two of the girls in particular stand out from the others - Katharine Hepburn, a wealthy debutante who seeks a stage career against her family's wishes, and Ginger Rogers, a happy-go-lucky, wise-cracking youngster with no background and no money, but confident that she can succeed on her own. "Stage Door" will play at the New Craterian for a four day run, starting tomorrow.
