

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

To Hold Sale—W.H.F.M.S. of the Church of God will hold an apron and cooked food sale next Wednesday at 211 East Main street.

Townsend Meeting—All Townsend club members and others in accord with the pension plan are to meet at the First Baptist church Sunday morning at 10:45.

Building Permit—R. S. Chandler of 220 Beatty street applied at city building inspectors' office yesterday for a permit to construct a residence and private garage at a stated cost of $2000.

Rummage Sale—Lady Lions will hold a rummage sale Monday and Tuesday, November 22 and 23, in the vacant store next to Brophy's on East Main street. Proceeds will be used for the club's Christmas toy fund for needy children.

Meeting Tonight—Executive committee of Medford post of the American Legion will meet at 7:30 tonight in the hotel Medford. The meeting will consider several matters of importance, said C. L. MacDonald, post commander, in requesting the presence of all committee members.

Chorus to Rehearse—Jackson county teachers' chorus will meet for rehearsal at the county courthouse auditorium Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Esther Church Leake, director, announced today. All members and those interested in joining are urged by Mrs. Leake to attend.

Court Citation—Ira D. Childers, 48, of Rogue River was cited by state police yesterday to appear today in Gold Hill justice court on a charge of operating a vehicle with improper license plates. State police said Childers was using light delivery plates on a truck.

To Occupy Pulpit—A. W. Shepherd will occupy the pulpit of the Phoenix Presbyterian church at the 11 o'clock service Sunday morning. The Rev. E. F. McFarland, pastor, was called unexpectedly to southern California because of the death of his brother-in-law. The public is invited to hear Mr. Shepherd.

Enlists in Army—Announcement was made today of the army enlistment of Gilbert N. Debusk, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Debusk of Phoenix. Debusk was accepted tentatively for enlistment November 15 at the recruiting station in city hall here, in charge of Sgt. Willis S. Estep. He passed his final qualifying examination at Vancouver, Barracks, Wash., and was officially enlisted yesterday for service in the field artillery in Hawaii. He was to go immediately to San Francisco whence he will sail for Hawaii on the next outbound transport.

To Bureau Meet—Among Medford men who will attend the special meeting of the Oregon-Washington-California Pear Bureau in Seattle, Wash., tomorrow are Raymond R. Reiter, general manager of the Pinnacle Packing company; Robert K. Norris, horticulturist of the same company; Capt. S. M. Tuttle, general manager of Southern Oregon Sales, Inc.; R. G. Bardwell, manager of the Oregon-Washington-California Pear League, and Dave Wood, manager of the Palmer corporation. Mr. Reiter, Capt. Tuttle and Mr. Wood are directors of the pear bureau.

Kittredge Ill—Frank A. Kittredge of San Francisco, regional director of the national park service, was to be discharged this afternoon from Sacred Heart hospital whither he was taken upon his arrival here by train from Portland yesterday morning. Mr. Kittredge, who was here Tuesday en route north, was returning to Medford to confer further with E. P. Leavitt, superintendent of Crater Lake national park. He became suddenly and acutely ill on the train and Dr. Charles T. Sweeney, who happened to be aboard, was summoned by the porters to know the doctor. Mr. Kittredge was treated on the train and taken to the hospital upon his arrival here. His illness turned out to be nothing serious, Dr. Sweeney stated. Mr. Kittredge will probably remain here a couple of days before continuing to San Francisco.

Crater Weather—It was raining hard in Crater Lake national park this morning, headquarters here announced. Skiing conditions were described as poor. The big way was reported open to the west entrance, through the park and to Fort Klamath and Klamath Falls. Roads within the park were open, including the one to the lake rim, the report said. Chains, however, were advised. Total snow depth at headquarters in the park was given as 39 inches. Weather at Oregon Caves was described as cloudy. All roads are open, no snow having fallen there yet. Guide service through the caves is available and will be maintained all winter. Weather reports are broadcast over short wave radios from Crater Lake, Oregon Caves and the Lava Beds daily at 8 a. m. and 4:30 p. m. on 2804 kilocycles. Station call letters are KNLE for Annie Spring in Crater Lake national park, KNLG for park headquarters, KNLI for Oregon Caves, KNLH for the Lava Beds and KNLF for Medford. Persons having short wave receiving sets may pick up the daily broadcasts here.

To Enter Hospital—L. E. Deardorf of the Medford Ice and Storage company will leave for Portland tonight where he will enter a hospital for medical treatment.

Marking Trees—Paul Brinson, junior forester of the Rogue River national forest, and Cordy Sunderman, recreation foreman, left this morning for the Union Creek area where they were to mark lodgepole trees for thinning to give white pine a greater chance for growth.

Minor Accidents—Cars driven by Richard R. Crothers of 346 Apple street and A. L. Munson of Chatham, Mont., were involved in a minor accident at Main and Holy streets yesterday afternoon, a city police report stated today. John O'Brien of Ruch and Robert F. Roake of Portland operated machines that collided with minor damage on South Central avenue last night, a city police report revealed.

KLAMATH AUTOISTS INJURED IN UPSET

COLUSA, Cal., Nov. 19.—(AP)—Robert Redhead, 17, of Klamath Falls, Ore., and Mrs. E. B. Pages were seriously injured today when their automobile overturned on a slippery highway south of Arbuckle.

Edwin D. Fox and Russell Roach, also of Klamath Falls, were not seriously hurt. The four are employees of the Western Union Telegraph company and were on a vacation trip.

COLUMBIA GORGE HAS SEASON'S FIRST SNOW

PORTLAND, Nov. 19.—(AP)—While a heavy rain fell here today, sending the November total past the average for the entire month, snow began falling in the Columbia gorge, the first of the season there.

Precipitation here in the past 24 hours totaled nearly an inch. The figure for the month to date was 6.16 inches, compared to the average of 6.10.

Four to eight inches of snow fell near Hood River and two inches was measured at The Dalles, but it changed to rain as the day passed.

Webfoots Depart For Husky Clash

EUGENE, Ore., Nov. 19.—(AP)—The Oregon university football team left today for the north, expecting to spend tonight in Tacoma before challenging the University of Washington Huskies in Seattle Saturday.

The return of Dennis Donovan, injured against California, gave Coach Prink Callison a welcome replacement for Henry Nilsen, mainstay of the Webfoot backfield.

Ted Gebhart's fine wet-ball punting against California earned him Dale Lasselle's place in the backfield yesterday, with Jimmy Nicholson as the other halfback.

PORTLAND PUCKSTERS CAPTURE LEAGUE LEAD

PORTLAND, Nov. 19.—(AP)—Defeating the Vancouver Lions, 5-2, the Portland Buckaroos led the Pacific coast hockey league today.

Breaking the deadlock jinx that tied three of their first four games, the Bucks took a three-point lead last night before matching the Lions' two final period scores in one of the tastiest games seen here in several seasons.

DENY TOWNSEND FOES HAVE SEIZED CONTROL

PORTLAND, Nov. 19.—(AP)—Walter Redmond, former vice-chairman of the third congressional district of the Townsend pension plan, denied reports today that a group unfriendly to Dr. Francis Townsend, plan founder, had seized control of the area at a stormy session Tuesday in which three officials left office.

Redmond claimed that former Chairman E. H. Wright was removed by a vote of the board rather than being asked to resign. Wright, claimed Redmond, then sided with five others on the 11-man board to remove John A. Jeffrey as manager, after which Redmond said he resigned. He denied that the faction which removed Jeffrey was opposed to Dr. Townsend.

COMMONWEALTH CALLS FOR WAR ON REACTION

PORTLAND, Nov. 19.—(AP)—Calling a convention for December 18-19, the Commonwealth federation said today it would seek to unite all groups interested in "the defeat of reaction." An invitation accused Gov. Martin of "tyranny" and "reaction" and said the federation would seek his defeat.

SHANGLE BABY SALON TO BE OPENED SUNDAY FOR VIEW BY PUBLIC

Annual Shangle baby salon will be held on the mezzanine floor of the Hotel Medford Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Photographs of all the babies entered in the yearly salon will be on exhibit for the three days and the public is invited to view them. The prize winner will be indicated and photos of some of the prizes also will be displayed. There are 110 baby photographs in the salon.

Judging will be done privately tomorrow evening. Judges will be Marion Ady and Lucille Burtis, art teachers at Southern Oregon Normal school in Ashland, and A. Morris Elliott, now associated with Richard here. None of the judges knows any of the babies in the contest. Mr. Shangle presided.

Five prizes will be awarded in each of three divisions. The divisions are three months to a year, one to three years and three to six years of age.

The salon in past years has been held in the hotel lobby but was transferred this year to the mezzanine floor because the lobby is being redecorated.

The Egyptian government will buy a portion of that nation's surplus wheat.
