MORTICIANS WILL MEET IN MEDFORD

Funeral directors of southern Oregon held a dinner meeting in the Lithia hotel at Ashland last night, which was presided over by President Will M. Dodge of Ashland.

Short talks on subjects of professional interest were made by Mrs L. B. Hall and Virgil Hull of Grants Pass, and Clarence M. Litwiller of Ashland.

The Oregon Funeral Directors' association was represented by Executive Secretary George Ryan, of Portland, who discussed matters of national and state-wide interest.

Invitation was accepted from Medford members to hold the next meeting in Medford and President Dodge appointed Frank Perl and Hemerly Conger hosts for this meeting.

STANLEY BURDEN POSTS $1000 BOND

Stanley borden, 19, of Olympia, Wash., Oregon Normal school at Monmouth football squad member, charged in an indictment returned a week ago by the Jackson county grand jury with robbery by force and violence without the use of a dangerous weapon, was freed today on $1000 surety bond provided by a bonding company.

Eli Cagle Jr., and Marshall Hearn, Monmouth Normal gridiron players also indicted on the same charge, are still held in the county jail. All three entered pleas of not guilty. The district attorney's office reported trial date would probably be set next week.

The indictment charges the trio with taking of $31.05 and a watch from E. D. Rice, Dallas, Texas, salesman, at a spot on the new Pacific highway near Ashland on the night of October 30.

EX-ALABAMA GRID ACE FACES POLISH MEANIE IN MONDAY'S GRAPPLE

Squat, tough little Jimmy Lott, who used to do some he-man blocking in the backfield for University of Alamaba's Crimson Tide, will attempt to "take out" Polish Palooka Joe Smolinski next Monday night in the top event of the weekly grappling card at the Medford armory.

Promoter Mack Lillard arranged the match after the great battle Lott put up against Bobby Chick last Monday and when Smolinski refused to meet Steve Strelich in a rematch. Not figured to stand much chance against Chick, Lott, however, battled the former light heavyweight champion to a standstill and emerged with a well-earned draw. Lillard attempted to sign Smolinski and Strelich for another engagement but the hated Palooks refused pointblank, stating that it was mere child's play to whip Strelich and that he wanted somebody tough next time.

In the middle event, Red Lyons returns after a week's absence to face Strelich, raging mad because of Smolinski's refusal to give him another crack. In Lyons, however, the Hollywood leg-specialist will be meeting a so-called wrestler almost as rough and tough as Smolinski.

Toy Aho, Finnish wrestler, returns to Medford to tangle with Bic Jarbo in the opening skirmish. It will be Aho's first local appearance since last summer. Both are clean and scientific grapplers and a spine-tingling match is expected.

PUBLIC IS ASKED TO O.S.H. MEETING

All sessions of the two-day meeting will be open to the public and several lectures and exhibits have been arranged to interest persons not directly engaged in horticultural or agricultural pursuits.

Chester Fitch, third vice-president and acting president of the society is chairman of the convention program committee.

Other committee members are: Marketing, Raymond R. Reter, Jack Spalding, Harry Rosenberg; production, C. B. Cordy, Robert K. Norris, L. P. Wilcox, R. A. Work, W. W. Aldrich, Prof. F. C. Reimer; entertainment, E. W. Carlton, A. H. Banwell, H. Van Hoevenberg.

PAUL G. GOODWYN CALLED BY DEATH

Paul G. Goodwyn passed away at a local hospital November 18. He was born in Bonanza, Ore., November 30, 1884. He was a member of the Episcopal church.

Most of his life was spent in Oregon. For the past 12 years he had conducted the Highway pool hall.

He leaves to mourn his passing one brother, John Goodwyn, who was associated with him in business; two sisters, Mrs. J. S. O'Brien of South Orange street, with whom he had made his home for many years, and Mrs. F. B. Sankey of San Francisco, Cal. Also one niece, Mrs. McCarthy, and a nephew, P. G. Sankey, both of San Francisco, besides other relatives and a large circle of friends.

Funeral services will be conducted at the Conger funeral parlors Monday at 1:30 with Rev. D. E. Millard in charge. Interment at Mountain View cemetery in Ashland.

LEGION AUXILIARY TO DISTRIBUTE BASKETS THANKSGIVING FOODS

Mrs. Ruth Freed, child welfare chairman of the American legion auxiliary, announced today that Medford unit would distribute baskets of food to needy families next Tuesday and asked auxiliary members to bring their donations to Feldman's Electric store, 237 East Main street, by Monday afternoon. Each auxiliary member is asked to give a pound or quart of food and any member who desires to assist in the distribution of baskets is requested to get in touch with Mrs. Freed.

"For many years the American Legion auxiliary has done its part, along with other service organizations in Medford, to make it possible that no man, woman nor child in this city need go hungry on Thanksgiving," Mrs. Freed stated. "This work has become a tradition with us and is an important part of our child welfare program. I am asking every auxiliary member to contribute generously toward this very worthy cause."

BIRTHS

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Boren of Eagle Point, a daughter weighing five pounds and eight ounces, at the Stanley nursing home this noon, Friday, November 19.

INA D. RENKER GAINS DECREE OF DIVORCE

A decree of divorce was granted Ina D. Renker from George Renker in findings and conclusions handed down yesterday by Circuit Judge H. D. Norton. Extreme cruelty was named as divorce grounds.

The findings point out that a divorce action was filed last July, but dismissed after a reconciliation. The defendant failed to abide by promises, it is claimed. Approval of a property settlement is given by the court.

The couple were married at Grants Pass, January 8, 1936.

"Double" Wheat Planted.

ENID, Okla.—(UP)—August Meyer, Garfield county farmer, is planting the grain from a double-headed stalk of volunteer wheat which grew on his farm. He hopes the stalk's "offspring" will duplicate the feat.
