By GRACE CRAFT

Many Affairs Are On Calendar For Thanksgiving Week

The Thanksgiving week-end will be a gay one for Medford society with the return of college students to their homes here and many visitors in the city as guests of relatives and friends over the holiday.

Numerous family dinners have been arranged for Thanksgiving day and several cocktail parties are also planned.

The larger event for the week-end will be the no-host dancing party Saturday evening at Dreamland hall. About seventy-five couples have been invited for the gala evening.

A number of Medford families will be out of town over the holiday as guests of friends and relatives.

Briggs Entertain On Thanksgiving

Mr. and Mrs. Lon S. Garrett of Seattle, Wash., will be in Medford over the Thanksgiving holidays as guests of Mr. Garrett's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. G. Coyle Briggs.

A cocktail party will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Briggs Thursday afternoon following the Medford-Eugene football game to honor the visitors.

Newburys to Have Guests From California

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Newbury and children of Berkeley, Cal., and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Meahaffey and children of Antioch, Calif., are to be the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Don Newbury and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Newbury of this city the week-end following Thanksgiving. Much entertainment is being planned for the visitors. Carl Newbury and Don Newbury are brothers and Mrs. Meahaffey is their sister and was formerly Miss Maude Newbury.

Staffords to Spend Holiday in Portland

Mrs. Ben Stafford and son, Bruce, are leaving Wednesday morning for Portland, where they will meet Major Stafford, who has spent the past two weeks in Montana and Idaho. The Staffords will be guests of Capt. and Mrs. E. W. Ely in the Rose City over Thanksgiving and will return to Medford late in the week.

Miss Hart Coming For Thanksgiving

Miss Charity Hart will arrive in Medford Thursday morning to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hart. She is a student at Katherine Branson school in Rose, Calif.

O'Connors Will Spend Holiday in Portland

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. O'Connor are leaving Wednesday for Portland, where they will be the guests of relatives over the Thanksgiving holidays.

Pasadena Scene of Thanksgiving Reunion

Mrs. Robert Ruhl, who has been visiting her daughter, Roxane, in New York City since August, will arrive in Los Angeles November 23, accompanied by Miss Roxane, who has been promoted to an executive position with the Hollywood office of the new illustrated magazine, "Life." They will be met there by Mr. Ruhl and Miss Alicia Ruhl, the family spending the Thanksgiving holidays in Pasadena before Mr. and Mrs. Ruhl return to Medford.

Spent Thanksgiving in Everett, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Lem O. Frink and daughter Meta Jean, and Mr. Frink's mother, Mrs. Florence Frink, are leaving today for Everett, Wash., to be the guests of Mrs. Frink's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Stoddard, over the Thanksgiving holidays. They will be away ten days.

Brothers Visit in Eastern Oregon

Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Brophy returned recently from Burns, Ore., where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hanley for a week. It was erroneously reported in Friday's paper that Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Reter had been visiting in eastern Oregon with the Hanleys.

The Golden Link class of the First Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. D. V. Piatt Thursday afternoon with the president, Mrs. L. S. Stenerson, presiding, Mrs. J. D. Shafter had charge of the devotionals and the topic was "The Prayer of Elisha." Mrs. H. Bryant read a paper on church events.

After the business session, refreshments were served by Mrs. J. D. Shafter, Mrs. L. S. Stenerson, Mrs. H. Bryant and Mrs. L. J. Knox.

Attend Luncheon in Ashland Friday

Mrs. E. A. Swanson, Mrs. T. W. Miles, Mrs. Lillian Brown and Mrs. B. G. Fowler were guests at a bridge luncheon for which Mrs. A. E. Kinney and Mrs. Ruth Dewa entertained Friday in Ashland.

Closing time for Too Late to Classify Ads is 1:30 p. m.

Birthday Party Is Event of Saturday

Mrs. Ben Stafford entertained with a birthday party for her son Bruce Saturday, on his ninth anniversary. Eight guests were invited for luncheon at noon and matinee later. Mrs. Leroy G. Cronkite assisted the hostess.

Present for the affair were Warren Hammond, Cleve Kendall, Billy Glass, Ronald Britton, Irvin Key, Don Nelson, Larry Dalton, Gordon Farrell, and Bruce Stafford.

Presbyterian Group Has Praise Service

The annual praise and Thanksgiving service of the Women's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. N. Younger. A brief business session preceded the program with Mrs. Maynard Putney presiding. Mrs. J. W. Hoyt consented to serve as vice-president of the society and chairman of the spiritual life group until election of officers.

Mrs. Frank Albert, chairman of the afternoon's program, conducted the worship service. Hymns of thanksgiving and praise were sung by the group. Mesdames Hodgkins, Baker, Brewer and Jaqua gave quartet numbers which were greatly enjoyed.

The foreign topic was the missionary work in Syria and Iran presented by Miss Elizabeth Burr, while the home topic, Mormonism, was given by Mrs. Albert.

Refreshments were served during the social hour by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. L. D. Hodgkins, Mrs. E. Iversen and Mrs. E. S. Daniels.

The next meeting will be held December 21 at the home of Mrs. Iversen. The mission study class will have its first meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Albert, 415 Betty street, Friday, November 23 at 2 o'clock. "Highland Heritage" will be the subject for study.

Medford Students Return Home For Holiday Week-end

Many Medford students at the University of Oregon and Oregon State college will be returning home this week to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with their families. Students and parents alike are looking forward to this brief vacation, the first of the fall school term.

From Oregon State college will be Miss Betty Ann Thordike, daughter of Gene Thordike; Miss Catharine Ford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ford; Miss Marguerite Boyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Boyle; Miss Mary Margaret Mann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mann; Miss Pat Young, daughter of Mrs. R. W. Stearns; Misses Bertha and Frances Arnsperger; Jim Henry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Henry; Philip Todd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Todd.

Those arriving from the University will be H. D. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Jones; Miss Janet Mann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mann; Miss Patay Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Smith; Miss Peggy Beter, daughter of Mrs. Marguerite Beter; Miss Kathleen Dillard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Dillard; Miss Mignon Phipps, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dolph Phipps; Miss Virginia Hammond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hammond; Miss Bette Lee, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee; Misses Anne and Phoebe Dean, daughters of Dr. and Mrs. George B. Dean; and Dick Sleeter, son of Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Sleeter.

A popular visitor in the city is Miss Oprie Natwick of San Francisco, who is being welcomed by her many friends here. Miss Natwick is an interior decorator in the bay city and formerly lived in Medford.

Among the affairs planned in her honor was a no-host dinner party given Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hart. Eighteen were present for the evening.

Former Resident Is Welcomed by Many Friends Here

Mrs. Katherine Satterlee and Arthur S. Muse were married at a quiet ceremony Sunday, November 14, at the Methodist parsonage in Ashland, with the Rev. Melville T. Wire reading the service at 2 o'clock in the presence of members of the immediate families.

A wedding dinner was served following the ceremony at the home of the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Holloway, in Medford. The table was most attractive with a lovely centerpiece of tall, slender roses and candles in pastel shades and a miniature bridal party.

Mrs. Muse is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holloway of this city and the couple will make their home here.

Arizona Residents Visit Relatives

Mr. and Mrs. J. Clark Pruden of Mesa, Arizona, are visiting in Medford with Mrs. Clark's father, A. B. Railback and her sister, Mrs. F. H. Saunders. Mrs. Pruden is a cousin of Mrs. Grant H. Edwards who has been a guest in the city the past few days. Lieut. and Mrs. Edwards are leaving today for San Francisco and will sail for Honolulu the latter part of the week.

Mr. Durrell Weds Klamath Falls Girl

The marriage of Lyle Durrell of Medford, son of Mrs. Lottie M. Durrell of Oregon City, and Miss Mildred Colwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Colwell of Klamath Falls, was solemnized Sunday, November 7, at the Catholic church in Klamath Falls.

Mr. Durrell is manager of the Safeway store at Main and Holly here and the couple will live in the Childers apartments.

AAUW Study Clubs Have Programs

Three study groups of the American Association of University Women met this past week.

The International Relations group met with the leader, Mrs. John F. Lawrence. This group is studying a particularly fascinating subject under the able leadership of Mrs. Lawrence. She attended the Congress of Internationals at Reed college recently at which speakers from many nations of the world, including Japan, China, England, France, Germany and others, appeared on the program at the most interesting session.

The creative arts group met with their leader, Mrs. Darrell Huson Wednesday evening and worked on Christmas cards. This group will meet each week.

The social study group met with Miss Vera Humphrey and Mrs. David Vale, assistant leader, was in charge. Miss Dorothy Young gave an excellent report on the American Federation of Labor and Mrs. Wilma Kircald spoke on "Terms and Ideas of Labor Unions."

Reichsteins Hosts For Dinner Sunday

Miss Fisk Tells of Betrothal at Party Thursday

Announcement of the engagement of Miss Mary Fisk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George N. Fisk, to Dean Pieper, of Oceanside, Calif., and a former resident of this city, was made at an informal bridge party given by Miss Fisk at the home of her parents Thursday evening.

News of the betrothal was made in clever fashion by an extra edition of "The Special Tidings", miniature newspaper, delivered to each guest.

Miss Fisk is a graduate of Medford high school and returned to her home here this summer after spending a year at Louisiana State University. She is a member of Chi Omega sorority. She is a popular member of the younger social set and has many friends who are interested in the announcement.

Mr. Pieper also attended Medford high school and has been employed as a newspaper reporter for the past few years.

Three tables of bridge were in play for the evening with refreshments served later. A newspaper theme was carried out as the table centerpiece.

Guests at the party were Mrs. Charles Overmyer, Miss Jones Jensen, Miss Dona Nelson, Miss Lois White, Miss Glenna Minear, Miss Maxine Boone, Miss Joyce Durham, Miss Marjorie Fisk, Miss Vera Humphrey, Miss Joan Leonard, Miss Vera Forn-crook.
