SAM'L BERTELSEN DIES ON STREET

Samuel Bertelsen, 19, of 119 1/2 McAndrews road, dropped dead at the intersection of Clark street and Central avenue about 12:25 today. County Coroner Frank Ferri said the aged man suffered a heart attack.

A little girl, whose name was not learned, saw him fall and notified city police, who telephoned the coroner. She told police he was walking north on Central avenue, suddenly staggered and fell to the pavement. The coroner said that he suffered a fractured skull where his head struck the pavement, and a cut directly over the left eye.

The body is at the Per funeral parlors. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

According to records in the Jackson county relief office, Samuel Ber-
