Medford Couples Plan Panama Trip During December

The late fall and winter is becoming more and more popular as a season for travel and a trio of Medford couples, including Mr. and Mrs. C. Glenn Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Norris and Dr. and Mrs. Edwin R. Durno is leaving soon for a most interesting cruise through the Panama canal.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Norris are leaving this Friday for Portland and will sail on the "Washington Express" the following day. Dr. and Mrs. Durno will join the ship in San Francisco about December 7th and the party will continue on south and through the Panama Canal as far east as Cristobol on the Atlantic side, spending the holiday season in the Canal zone.

Returning to the west coast, the Durno and Mr. Smith will disembark at San Pedro and return to Medford by train about January 1. Mrs. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Norris will remain with the cruise sailing up the coast to New Westminster, B. C., and then back to Portland. They will motor home from there, arriving here about a week after the other members of the party.

Tea Is Arranged on Saturday to Honor Visitors

An informal tea was given Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Glenna Mae Early at her apartment in Cargill Court to honor Miss Mary C. Brown and mother, Mrs. Mamie Brown of Salem who have been Thanksgiving holiday visitors in the city as guests of Mrs. Eibelwyn B. Hoffman. Miss Brown is Mrs. Hoffman's sister and Mrs. Brown is her mother. They formerly resided in Medford and Miss Brown was a teacher in the local schools.

Sixty guests were invited to call between the hours of 3:30 and 5 o'clock. Mrs. Wilma Kincaid and Miss Lois Beth Scoffern presided at the tea table, which was most attractive with yellow flowers and candles used for the centerpiece and the same color scheme carried throughout the room.

Fry-Bundy Wedding Event of Saturday

Chaplain C. R. Pond officiated at a double ring ceremony which united Miss Kathleen Bundy and Richard W. Fry Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Chaplain Pond's home on South Newton street. Capt. and Mrs. Chaucey L. Pierce attended the couple.

The Bridal Chorus from Lehigh was played by Mrs. Pond as the bride and bridesmaid took their places at an improvised altar of chrysanthemums and potted plants. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Fry will be at home to friends at the Lampert apartments.

Mr. Fry is a civilian employe of the civilian conservation corps.

Oregon State Students Here Over Holiday

Among the students returning to their homes for the Thanksgiving vacation were Robert O. Fowler, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Fowler of Medford; Byron Stoddard of Butte Falls and Robert Minear of Griffin Creek.

Connors Visiting Here From Burns

Mr. and Mrs. John Conner (Janet Wray Smith) are leaving today for their home in Burns after spending the Thanksgiving holidays with Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Smith, parents of Mrs. Conner, and Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Conner, Mr. John Conner's parents. Mr. Conner is connected with the Oregon state highway commission.

B. Thrifty Says:

"Better have the laundry truck drive up at your wife's door Monday than the ambulance."

Scrap those back-breaking home washing utensils and let your R. THIRTY laundry take up the White Woman's Burden.

Our ultra-modern service will do it all for less than the same work done at home.

Our ironing of flat pieces is truly beautiful . . . and for just a few cents more than for the washing alone.
