False-Name Racket In Radio Stopped In New York Drive

New York City has just witnessed a clean-up of the false-name racket in radio and half a dozen dealers who were found guilty of using standard names on stenciled sets, have gone to jail or paid fines, as the result of a searching investigation by the district attorney's office," according to an article in the November issue of Radio Today, a national radio magazine.
"There are other rackets besetting the radio buyers of New York and similar metropolitan centers. Examples are the flagrant counterfeiting of popular models, and the misleading advertising of '14-tube' and '11-tube' sets in which half the so-called 'tubes' are inoperative in a radio sense," the magazine stated.
Radio Today continued "when this '14-tube' receiver—claimed as listing for about the price of an average 6-tube radio—turns out not to be as good as many of the cheaper radios of less tubes, it's time for radio dealers and radio manufacturers to take the leadership in cleaning up these conditions."
"Comparisons are made with legitimate receivers so that radio dealers everywhere can show their customers why they should buy quality receivers manufactured by reputable organizations and sold by reputable outlets."

Lewis Super Shows The New Motorola Home Radio Model

The latest developments of the radio art have been incorporated in the new Motorola superheterodyne home radio, according to Jack Anstey of the Lewis Super Service station, local Motorola dealer.
The new Motorola model 10-Y, which was placed on display at Lewis Super this week, has many unusual features. It is a 10-tube, 3-band superheterodyne receiver with the sensational new "Talking" Dial. The 10-Y has a R.F. stage on all bands, the band name on each scale and Motorola's central dial tuning. The band selector is illuminated which makes it easy to read and it also has a rubber-footed chassis.
Two outstanding features, the hi-lite control and the fidelity control which operates in conjunction with the listener to secure the exact tone desired. The hi-lite control may be adjusted in several positions to provide background music, vocal music and speech, or orchestral reproduction. This system is said to provide perfect reproduction of any type of program.

Modern Freedom . . . FOR MODERN WOMEN

Bettes
MODERN SANITARY PROTECTION

Sanitary Protection without Pads Napkins or Belts

FOR today's woman . . . busy, modern, throwing off ancient shackles . . . Betties were created. Here is a method that ends the discomfort, the inconvenience and the embarrassment that heretofore has been an unavoidable part of this feminine problem. With Betties there is no consciousness of wearing a sanitary protection at all. They are completely invisible in use . . . deodorant . . . and, though they safely and efficiently perform the purpose of ordinary napkins, Betties are so tiny that a day's supply can be carried unobtrusively in a handbag. Never before have women known such comfort . . . such convenience . . . such daintiness . . . in a sanitary protection.
