

NOVEMBER RAINS NEAR RECORD FOR WEATHER BUREAU

Total of 5.69 Inches, 3.21 Over Average — 6.66 Inches in November 1926 Largest Previous Fall

Last month ended up with being the second wettest November since the weather bureau was established here in the spring of 1911.

Last month's rain totalled 5.69 inches, an excess of 3.21 above average. This compared with 6.66 inches of rain for November of 1926, highest record for the month shown in the weather bureau's tabulations.

Greatest amount of rainfall for any 24-hour period from midnight to midnight occurred last month on the 20th when 1.43 inches were recorded. It was on that day that home, store and office building cellars were flooded and a sand-chamber levee was erected on Stewart avenue to avert flooding of the southwest part of the city. Rainfall exceeded an inch on one other day last month, the 10th when 1.08 inches were recorded.

Rain fell on 22 days of the month, ranging upward from a trace. There were only eight days on which no rain fell. There were only three clear days in the month, the rest being cloudy or partly cloudy, bureau records show.

The month contrasted oddly with November of 1936 when only .01 of an inch fell during the entire 30 days. The November rain last year fell on the first day of the month; the remainder of the month was bone dry.

A year ago fall seeding was delayed because of lack of rain, the earth being too hard for plowing. This year fall seeding was delayed because there was too much rain, the earth being too soft for plowing. The temperature last month ranged from a maximum of 66 on November 22 to a minimum of 33.8 yesterday.

Heavy winds prevailed during two nights of last month, reaching a peak velocity of 45 miles an hour. The wind did some damage to wires and poles.

PLANE SCHEDULES UNDERGO CHANGE

Another change in Medford schedules was announced today by United Air Lines, the revised line-up taking effect this morning.

Trip 3, northbound, now arrives at 6:42 a. m. and departs at 6:52 a. m., 35 minutes later than previously.

Trip 1, northbound, now arrives at 6:57 p. m. and departs at 6:07 p. m., five minutes later than formerly.

Airmails close at the central post-office 45 minutes before plane departure time.

CLOGGED OIL BURNER FOGS HEDRICK HOME

A clogged oil burner brought the fire department at 1:30 this afternoon to the home of E. H. Hedrick, city school superintendent, at 808 South Oakdale avenue. Some damage was done by smoke in the living and dining rooms, firemen reported.

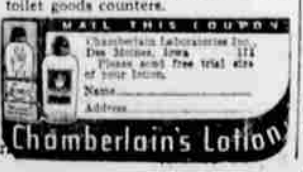

The living room oil burner became clogged and accumulated fuel, shot flames around the outside of the heater. It was stated by Henry Haswell, assistant fire chief. Mrs. Hedrick, who was home, turned off the fuel supply, but it took about 15 minutes for the accumulated oil to burn itself out, Mr. Haswell said. The firemen stood by while the oil burned.

BENNETT CALLS FOR VICE SQUAD SHAKEUP

PORTLAND, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Commissioner J. E. Bennett, commencing several weeks of personally-conducted raids on alleged gambling establishments, called upon Mayor Joseph Carson today to "shake" up the police vice squad.

When winter weather irritates, roughens and chaps your skin, then Chamberlain's Lotion, the lotion that softens, is your friend in need. Often, it smooths away the roughness over-night, makes your skin attractive again. A clear, golden liquid never sticky, greasy, gummy nor "messy." Chamberlain's Lotion dries with convenient quickness. At all toilet goods counters.

Noted Senator Still Busy

EX-SENATOR AND MRS. JONATHAN BOURNE, JR.

Ex-Senator Jonathan Bourne, Jr., 83, playing solitaire in his Washington, D. C. apartment while his wife looks on, recalls the stirring days of Oregon and national politics 30 years ago. He served in the senate in 1907. He was Oregon's national Republican committeeman for several years and headed the G.O.P. publicity group until it was dissolved in 1923.

DRIED FRUIT BUYING SCHEDULED TO HELP CALIFORNIA INDUSTRY

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—(AP)—The Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation turned its double-barreled relief guns on the dried fruit markets today, in an effort to aid the hard-pressed producers of dried apricots and peaches.

The corporation will purchase around 1,500 tons of each commodity. By spending approximately $500,000 it plans relief of about double that amount to growers.

Purchases of apricots will be from packers, who must in turn purchase twice as much from growers as they sell to the FNCC. Purchases of dried peaches will include a block of hold-over stock from 1936, and will be on the requirement of packers taking 1 1/2 tons from growers for every ton sold to the FNCC.

Additional help is expected to accrue to growers in a better market for remaining supplies.

Purchases of peaches will be made at 4 1/2 cents a pound for No. 1 fruit, ungraded as to size. Purchases of apricots will be made at varied prices, depending on localities where purchases are made, types and grades.

HOPGROWERS FILE AS INCORPORATION

SALEM, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Articles of incorporation filed today by the Oregon Hopgrowers Cooperative association with filing of articles for similar associations in Washington and California to follow, it is said, to mark another important step in carrying out stabilization of the hop industry which its advocates say is being worked out in a broad constructive program.

The program, they say has been developed with the advice and help of experts from both private and federal credit agencies dealing in hops, representatives from the federal department of agriculture and others qualified to give assistance.

Articles of incorporation filed today give broad general cooperative powers granted to cooperative associations and names as incorporators: William A. Walton, Ross H. Wood, A. M. Jerman, Harry Hart and J. W. Seavey. Principal place of business is named as Salem and the organization being a non-profit cooperative names no capital stock.

APPEL GATE BOY NOW IN NAVY WRITES OF CHINA WAR HORRORS

BIG APPEL GATE, Dec. 1.—(Sp.)—A vivid picture of war horrors in China has been brought to relatives here through letters received from Alfred Kubli, who enlisted in the U. S. navy two years ago, and who now is stationed in Chinese waters. Mr. Kubli is with the gunboat Bulen, which is guarding Texaco Oil holdings in China. He witnessed the dropping of a bomb, and stated that the firing lines at night resembled Fourth of July fireworks here.

Mr. Kubli said that bodies of dead Chinese floating in rivers had become a common sight, and explained that the cadavers were termed "floaters." He mentioned that one of his shipmates had the privilege of prodding bodies away from the boat with a bamboo pole, and in return for each body removed, he had two hours deducted from a given period he had been assigned as punishment for a misdeed. He wrote that refugees came aboard his ship and raided the garbage pails for food and cigarette stubs. British officers also came aboard to enjoy motion pictures.

Mr. Kubli is studying Diesel engineering. Letters and Christmas cards from him were mailed from Yokohama and Shanghai.

FEWER WALNUTS THAN EXPECTED

PORTLAND, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Instead of a bumper crop, the northwest walnut harvest fell below normal this year, W. G. Fellows, Geaton, chairman of the Oregon-Washington division of the Pacific walnut growers' marketing committee, said today.

"The fact that our crop was going to be shorter than expected was not brought out until shortly before growers delivered their walnuts to packing sheds and grading began," said Fellows. "Due to the rigid grading standards insisted upon by Pacific coast growers, much of the crop failed to make top grade and our growers marketing organizations are having some difficulty fulfilling early commitments."

He said the cause of the shortage might have been the severe freeze suffered two years ago and that the effects "should be limited to this year's crop."

or institutions for the care of mental cases, and the extent of their acquaintance with Fehel.

Three Portland attorneys, Dr. D. C. Burke, Dr. H. H. Dixon and Dr. C. O. Sturdevant, examined Fehel some time ago and returned a physicians' certificate adjudging him "an insane person, suffering from paranoia and in need of institutional care for his own protection and the protection of others."

Fehel is represented by Attorney Porter J. Neff, acting at the request of the court. The proponent, Fred W. Kelly, is represented by his brother, Attorney E. E. Kelly. The proceedings are conducted as a civil suit. Little public interest was manifested in the case.

ROAD AID REDUCTION MAY HIT OREGON HARD

PORTLAND, Dec. 1.—(AP)—A 10-year delay in the modernization of Oregon's road system may result from President Roosevelt's recommendations for reduced federal aid, state highway commissioners were told at their meeting here yesterday.

R. H. Baldock, engineer, said the state would lose $5,000,000 in 1938 and face reduction of all future authorizations if congress approves the curtailment.

Bids on projects totaling more than $30,000 were approved, including:

Jackson county—Sardine creek section of Pacific highway, Mountain States Construction company, Eugene, $14,528.

PENDLETON MAN FILLS STATE POST VACANCY

SALEM, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Roy G. Buchanan, Pendleton, was appointed by Governor Martin today to the industrial accident commission and the unemployment compensation commission, succeeding Albert R. Hunter, who resigned because of ill health.

Buchanan's term will expire January 2, 1939, he is a Democrat and has lived in Pendleton since 1910.

Hunter, whose resignation was received today, will work in the accident commission's claims department.

The industrial accident commission will meet soon to name a chairman to succeed Hunter, the other two members being T. Morris Dunne and J. C. Joy.

Students Picket High School Gym

EUGENE, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Lace county "picketing" shifted to a new front today when students of the Santa Clara high school, incensed over recent action of the board in withdrawing from the "B" league basketball loop, donned "sandwich" placards and picketed the high school gym.

Members of the high school basketball team and other students said they planned to continue the picketing this afternoon and tomorrow, including the home of one of the board members as well as the gym.

Coast Highway Nearly Normal

SALEM, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Conditions on the rain-swept Oregon coast highway returned to near normal today but one-way traffic near Tahkenitch lake and nine miles south of Coquille remained effective. Slides also caused a two-way detour 13 miles south of Port Orford.

Judge Retires

PENDLETON, Dec. 1.—(AP)—After more than half a century of successful legal practice, Judge James A. Fee, Sr., of Pendleton is about to mark his 82nd year of life by retiring to become a "gentleman farmer."

A practice carried on here since 1884 terminated as the former sixth district circuit judge left the firm of Fee & Randall, formed in 1929, and began more active supervision of his eastern Oregon farm and ranch lands.

Judge Fee has lived in Pendleton for 53 years, coming here from Walla Walla. He is the father of James Alger Fee of Portland, federal circuit court judge since 1931.

Wall St. Report

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Losses ranging from fractions to a point or more predominated in today's stock market.

Higher at the opening, leading issues drifted backward as buyers were slow to appear. A feeble-hearted rally near noon petered out quickly.

Most pivotal stocks were neglected throughout the day. There was a brief flurry in gold mining shares, but it, too, lacked steam. A few in this division were fractionally higher near the close.

Steady, untouchable and merchandising issues suffered most from the lack of interest. Utility and building material shares were narrow and specialties drifted aimlessly.

The pace was slow and for minutes at a time transactions were unreported. Turnover approximated 700,000 shares.

Today's closing prices for 32 selected stocks follow:

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning! It's So Good! The liver and bowels are two pounds of fluid into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sick and the world looks pink. Laxatives are only makeshifts. A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes these good old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless, gentle, relaxing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. Stubbornly refuse anything else. $2.
