

LOTT AND STRELICH IN TOP GRAPPLE ON MONDAY NIGHT GUARD

Good old Alabama's Jimmy Lott, who in his short stay here has defeated one ex-world champ, battled another to a draw, and whammed the daylight out of Polish Palooka Joe Smolinski among other things, faces probably his severest test next Monday night when he enters the armory ring against Silver Strelich of Hollywood, who doesn't startle the customers by sensational maneuvers but seems to go right on winning wrestling matches.

The two will meet in the top tangle. Because he whipped Joe Smolinski last Monday, Strelich gets the crack at Lott, who is fast becoming a local sensation, and Medford fans are expecting one of those great bouts seen once in a blue moon.

All records for brutality and viciousness will totter in the middle go when Red Lyons faces Polish Palooka Joe Smolinski. Both men are past masters at the art of winning matches by underhanded tactics.

Phil Romano, Aztec Indian from Mexico City, faces Mike Burke in the six-round opener. Burke is a newcomer, and according to Promoter Mack Lillard is a short, heavy-set grappler inclined toward the shadier side of the game.

PITT PLAYERS WOULD ENTER SHRINE GAME

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—(AP)—William Coffman, managing director of the Shrine East-West football game, said several University of Pittsburgh players, who had voted against competing in any post-season game, were anxious to play in the New Year's day game here.

Coffman said the information came from his eastern representatives, who will invite the 22 outstanding players east of the Mississippi. Three Pitt players considered almost certain to receive bids were Marshall Goldberg, halfback; Frank Soucek, end, and Tom Mattisi, tackle.

The Shrine game will be a charity affair, proceeds going to the San Francisco Shriners' hospital for crippled children.

Seattle Gets Lead In Hockey League

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 3.—(AP)—Seattle's Seawhaws roosted atop the Pacific Coast Hockey league today and thanked Goalie Emmett Vene, who staved off a desperate last period attack by the Portland Buckaroos last night to give his team a 2-1 victory.

It was the Bucks' fifth defeat in six games played in eight days. Vene saved half of a two-point lead by stopping at least a dozen Portland tries from close letting by a single score by Ouliste on a pass from Fridham.

MAN HELD IS BELIEVED INDICTMENT FUGITIVE

SALEM, Dec. 3.—(AP)—Sheriff A. C. Burk said a man who admitted he was Raymond A. Hoekin, 40, former cashier of the Farmers Trust and Savings bank of Rodman, Iowa, indicted more than a decade ago on embezzlement charges, was being held for Iowa authorities.

The sheriff said he arrested Hoekin late yesterday on the North Santiam highway near Detroit where he was working for a construction company under the name of Harry Sage, and that he would neither admit nor deny the charges but had waived extradition.
