

HEAVY FOG BRINGS CARS TOGETHER IN MINOR ACCIDENTS

Heavy fog over Medford and vicinity made automobile driving hazardous the past week-end, city police reports revealing six minor mishaps. Many others, even less serious, undoubtedly occurred of which no reports were made.

A machine driven by Earl E. Thelike of Ashland struck the rear end of a car operated by Alfred Stoeber, state police officer, on Riverside avenue near Main street late Saturday night. Stoeber's car received a bent bumper.

Autos driven by John R. Clark of Talent and Bryan Ward of Gold Hill were involved in a minor accident at North Central avenue and Fifth street Saturday afternoon.

Alden D. Clymer of Bullards, Ore., and Rose H. Gay of Gold Hill drove machines involved in a slight mishap on the Central Point-Jacksonville highway Saturday morning.

South Riverside avenue was the scene of a minor accident between autos driven by Earl T. McIntosh of Talent and Harold Bigelow of route 1 Sunday evening.

Lloyd Hallfield of Medford reported to city police he hit the rear end of a parked Greyhound stage on North Central avenue last night, incurring minor damage.

Lowell Monroe of 727 Alder street and Clyde A. Orissom of Lake Creek operated machines involved in a minor mishap in Eagle Point Sunday night.

SEAL SALE BOXES TO SAVE POSTAGE

The Jackson County Public Health Association isn't trying to steal any of Mr. Parley's business, but it has put up a few seal boxes of its own for the holiday season. It was revealed today they are more decorative than Uncle Sam's and there's a sign on each one reading, "Drop Christmas Seal Sale letters here." That's the story.

The three boxes, located at the postoffice, Groceries No. 1 and Montgomery Ward's, may be used by anyone preferring to save postage on returning checks or money to the health association in payment for Christmas seals. The boxes are located at seal sale booths. Just drop the blue envelope in the slot, it will reach its destination and the money enclosed will help bring realization of Jackson county's $2500 goal.

CAFE PROPRIETOR KILLS HOLDUPMAN

ST. HELENS, Dec. 6.—(AP)—James W. McFarlane, 27, died this morning a few hours after he was shot in the head by James Knorr, cafe proprietor, in a holdup at Seapoope. Police sought the dead man's two companions who fled toward the Kingsbury Lumber company east of Seapoope.

Knorr told State Police Officer Ray Howard that McFarlane, a sailor, was one of the three men who accosted him on the highway a few moments after he had locked up his cafe. "Move farther down the street," Knorr said McFarlane, who was carrying a rifle, ordered.

The proprietor reported to the officer that he fired a revolver when McFarlane struck him on the head with the rifle. He fired twice as the other men closed in. Both turned and ran, one of them holding his arm as though he had been wounded.

Religion Is Shield From Communism Warns Evangelist

A large congregation at the Church of the Nazarene heard Lon Woodrum, "the Edgar Guest of the Gospel," give his message "A New Flag Over Babylon," yesterday. In part Mr. Woodrum said, "How dare we rebel against the principles of religion when we realize that such rebellion only opens the doors to red communism and thrusts an overthrowing lever under the foundations of American democracy?"

Rev. Woodrum opened his sermon with a description of conditions in ancient Babylon which he likened to many found in the world of the present day. "One reason for the downfall of Babylon was pride," he said, adding, "America has no need to be proud of present day conditions. A nation has no right to strut when many of her people live in misery, want and need."

"Irreverence," he continued, "led to the fall of Babylon. Let America beware of this sin."

"God grant that the flag which flies over this land shall not come down! But we alone, God helping us, can save ourselves. By humble reverence toward righteousness and a keen gratefulness for our heritage and possessions we shall come through with the stars and stripes still in honor over our domain."

This evening Mr. Woodrum will give his life story entitled "The Man From the Shadows." It is the story of his conversion from the underworld to the Christian ministry. Rev. R. E. Griffith will lead the congregational singing and a solo will be sung by Mrs. Lorena Robinson. The service will be in charge of Rev. Fred Weatherford, pastor of the church.

PEACE FOR U. S. IS AIM OF PETITION LAUNCHED BY VFW

An organized campaign to obtain the signatures of a majority of the citizens of Medford on petitions which will call upon congress to keep America out of war is to be launched immediately under supervision of Crater Lake post No. 1833, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the U. S. The appeal to congress reads as follows:

"We, the undersigned citizens of the United States of America, call upon the congress and the president to adopt and apply policies designed to keep America out of war and supported by a national defense program adequate for the protection of our country and its people."

The plan to convey to congress tangible evidence of the prevailing sentiment against war is the chief objective of a nationwide campaign being conducted by 3600 local units of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, according to Commander Joseph W. Todd.

"Under our form of government, the question of peace or war rests in the hands of congress," Commander Todd pointed out. "We, the people, expect members of congress to vote in accordance with the will of their constituents. Petitions bearing the signatures of 25 million American citizens will tell congress in unmistakable terms, that the vast majority of the citizens of the United States want America to keep out of war."

A quantity of petition blanks were received today by Commander Todd from national headquarters at Kansas City, Missouri. The petition blanks will be circulated by Post No. 1833 and distributed to various other local civic, patriotic, religious and fraternal groups.

Gold Star Mothers in this community will be given the first opportunity to affix their signatures to the petition.

COUNTY TURMOIL RESURRECTED IN FEHL'S HEARING

gations of "conspiracy" contained in a suit filed recently against County Clerk George R. Carter, Deputy District Attorney George W. Neilson, and former District Attorney George A. Coddling for $200,000. FehI also testified he had refused to sign the county court meetings report, when they were condemned by the county court.

Relative to his claim that he was still county judge, FehI testified he had made no legal claim upon the office, but that he had been advised by upstate attorneys he had a legal claim upon it. In support of this contention a California court decision in a similar case, was introduced as evidence, and marked as an exhibit.

Brief objection was made by Attorney E. E. Kelly "to trying the ballot theft cases over again." The court ruled this testimony was admissible as showing the mental attitude of the defendant. FehI also described his arrest on the insanity complaint a month ago, and futile efforts to arrange bonds, and the transfer of the case to the circuit court, when the county judge disqualified himself.

Cross-examination of FehI is scheduled to begin this afternoon, and will require, it is expected, a day.

It is also anticipated the complainant will introduce some rebuttal testimony.

Dr. R. Lee Steiner of Salem, alienist, and former superintendent of the Oregon State hospital, who has been observing FehI in the courtroom and on the witness stand, will be the final witness.

The hearing is now in its fourth day, with the court recessing over the week-end. It is predicted it will be in the hands of the jury by late Wednesday.

A packed courtroom heard the proceedings this morning.

APPLEGATE UNIT HEARS EXPERTS ON NUTRITION FACTS

BIG APPLGATE, Dec. 6.—(Sp.)—

Local women were privileged to hear Miss Lucy Case, extension specialist in nutrition from Oregon State college, who spoke on "Nutrition Facts" at the regular meeting of the local extension last week.

Miss Case spoke in detail on vitamins, their preservation in all types of cooking, and their presence in varying kinds of food. The specialist also displayed cooking utensils, and gave advice on their selection, stating that foods cooked in aluminum are not harmful, inasmuch as a certain amount of aluminum is found in the atmosphere.

She discussed the pressure cooker and its use, and advised a thermometer for use with this system of cooking. The group assembled listened to a discussion of a supervised lunch period for school children by Miss Case and teachers of the Applegate school, Miss Thelma Stringer and Mrs. Katherine Denzer. Mrs. Mabel Mack, home demonstration agent, also was present for the meeting, which was held in the clubroom at the Applegate school building. Members were particularly pleased with the appearance of their room, which has been redecorated and painted recently.

Mrs. Frank Knutzen, chairman of the local unit, named the following committees for the club year, which began in September: Refreshment and house, Mrs. Fred Benedict, Mrs. E. J. Brown, Mrs. Warren Mee; social, recreation, and dramatics, Mrs. Lee Fort, Mrs. A. N. Krause, Mrs. Lance Offenbacher; finance, Mrs. Fred Offenbacher, Mrs. Tom Mee, Mrs. Francis Krause; relief or sick, Mrs. W. H. McDaniel, Mrs. Warren Mee, Mrs. Charles Buck; membership, Maude Pool, Mrs. Tom Mee, Mrs. Harry Brown; publicity, Maude Pool, Mrs. Francis Krause, Mrs. John Brier.

Lunch was served during the noon hour, and was followed by Christmas songs. Next meeting will be held Wednesday, Dec. 15 at 1:30 p. m., with a gift exchange and Christmas party adding a gala note to the afternoon. Mrs. Lance Offenbacher and Mrs. Lee Fort will discuss ways in which the farm women can aid the agricultural conservation program. Visitors will be welcome at this and all other meetings.
