Major Markets Observe Holiday (By the Associated Press)

Throughout the world today financial and commodity markets were closed for the Easter-tide observances, many of them scheduled to extend into next week.

The New York stock and curb exchanges, and the Chicago board of trade will resume tomorrow and will trade Monday.

Some of the "universal" languages proposed from time to time include Volapuk, Esperanto, Mondlingue, Universala and Kosmos.

Stars of Craterian Sunday Feature

Often described as the girl with the "million dollar personality," also as the girl with the "million dollar voice," Deanna Durbin returns to the Craterian theater screen Sunday in her new picture, "Mad About Music," in which Herbert Marshall has the top supporting role as Deanna's adopted daddy.

Booked in as an Easter Day special, "Mad About Music" has been termed this charming little star's grandest picture to date and has been setting boxoffice records throughout the country.

Included in the cast are Gail Patrick, William Frawley and Arthur Treacher among others.

LOS ANGELES, April 15.—(AP)—The "most beautiful blonde in America" today divorced Hollywood's "handsomest producer."

Mrs. Justine Johnstone Wanger complained that Walter Wanger was "abrupt, surly and discourteous." She was the beautiful blonde title 18 years ago when she was a Ziegfeld show girl and Wanger's bride.

Once a magazine, looking for a new angle, named Wanger the handsomest producer.

In recent weeks, the dot-and-dash writers have recorded that Wanger is the frequent escort of one of his stars, Joan Bennett, who recently divorced her second husband, Gene Markey.

HOLLAND MINER FOUND DEAD BENEATH CAVE-IN

GRANTS PASS, April 15.—(AP)—A calendar marked daily until April 2 gave a clue to the time of the death of Albert Marx, 44, whose body was reported found yesterday afternoon in a cave-in nine 20 miles from Holland in southwestern Josephine county.

Coroner Virgil Hull attempted to reach the mine today over 14 feet of snow. Four men reported discovering the body.

Flowers at Schoepfen's, 32 So. Central.

On Rialto Bill

Two of Hollywood's favorite young stars head the casts of the big double bill opening a three-day run at the Rialto theater Sunday. They are Jackie Cooper, now a young man, and Wayne Morris, winning overnight fame as America's boyfriend. Jackie Cooper has the leading role in "Boy of the Streets," a drama of the heart throbs of a regular fellow in the slums of New York.

Opposite him are Maureen O'Connor and Kathleen Burke. Morris is co-starred with Priscilla Lane in "Love, Honor and Behave."

PRODUCER DIVORCED BY MOST BEAUTIFUL
