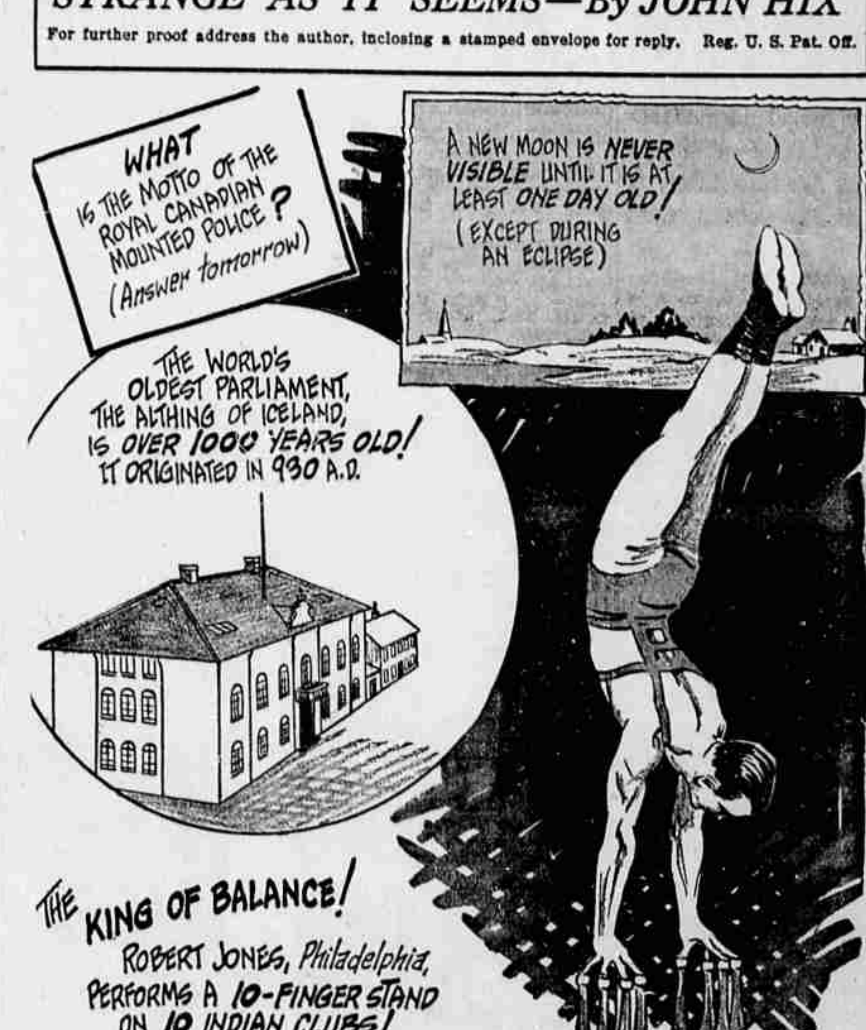
STRANGE AS IT SEEMS—By JOHN HIX

For further proof address the author, inclosing a stamped envelope for reply. Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.



King of Balance

Ten little fingers precariously placed on ten little Indian clubs are all that keep Robert Jones, Philadelphia strong man, from falling on his nose while performing the balance illustrated above.

This is only one of Jones' many balancing feats but it is one of the most difficult, as the job of controlling all ten clubs at once requires great concentration and exceptional co-ordination.

Besides his ten-finger stand, Jones has perfected a thumb stand on two Indian clubs, in which he supports his entire weight on the tips of his two thumbs.

Oldest Parliament

Iceland's history begins with its settlement in the ninth century by Norwegians, whose emigration was forced by the tyrannical oppression of King Harald Fulhaar.

The colonists came in clans, their home chieftains ruling selected districts in the new land. These chiefs soon established a representative government, in 930 organizing the Althing, a parliament still in existence.

Today, Iceland and Denmark are free, sovereign states, united under one king and by the agreement set forth in the act of the union of 1918. Executive power over Iceland is exercised by the king through responsible ministers, while the legislative power rests conjointly with the king and parliament, or Althing, consisting oftwo houses . . . upper and lower . . . with a total of 42 members.

The New Moon

Whether you look over your right or left shoulder, you will never see a new moon . . . that is, until it is at least one day old. The reason is because at the new moon the sun illuminates the side of the moon away from the earth. This 24-hour period of invisibility may vary a few minutes one way or the other and, of course, during lunar eclipses the moon's disc can be seen, as such eclipses always occur at the new moon phase.

The Grange

Upper Applegate Grange

Regular meeting was held April 9 Seven visitors were present, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Nealon of Sams Valley Grange, Mrs. Letay Miller, Mrs. Millie Walker, Otto Fuhrman and Rollin Stiehl of Live Oak Grange and W. E. Howes, master of Gold Hill Grange.

Lecture hour was put on by the men, Bert Harr being in charge. A debate "Resolved that cosmetics should not be used" was first on the program, followed by two skits.

A party was given after grange for members who had birthdays in March and April.

Next grange dance will be April 30. Silva's orchestra will play.

Roxy Ann Grange

Arthur K. Crews, junior district agent of the United States department of agricultural bureau of biological survey, will discuss the hunter system and show films at the Roxy Ann Grange hall Friday at 8:00 p m.

Thompson Creek

THOMPSON CREEK, April 15.—(Spl.)—Herbert Elmore motored to Cottage Grove April 6 to visit his mother, Mrs. Pauline Elmore, sisters Grace Elmore and Mrs. Elizabeth Shaw, then to Yoncalla to see his sister Dorothy Creson and family and arrived home April 7.

Mr. Scott Robinson, who is confined to his bed for the past week, is taking a cheerful view of the fact and greets his friends with a smile.

S. L. Johnson who has been staying at the home of his daughter, Beatrice Sullivan, in Medford, taking treatments for rheumatism, returned home Saturday and is able to be about part of the time.

Mr. Porter, who has been living in California the past six months, has sold his property on Nine Mile to Mr. Anderson of San Francisco Mr. and Mrs. Anderson have arrived and are now situated in their home.

Mr. Joe Mason, Sr., was on the sick list for a few days the past week.

Copco is now surveying the line that is to be finished to the John Bingham place this spring.

Mr. Herbert Elmore was confined to his bed Sunday with the flu

Sickness made the attendance at Thompson Creek Sunday school April 10 rather small.

Two new scholars have been added to Thompson Creek school.

Central Point

CENTRAL POINT, April 15.—(Spl.) —An interesting event of the past week was the Golden Links class party with Mrs. M. Hugger as hostess at her home last Friday afternoon. A brief business session, with President Etta Lacey in the chair, was followed by devotional service and lesson consisting of reviews, a vocal duet by Misses Letha Vincent and Ivy Hugger ("Whispering Hope"), with Miss Hugger at the piano. It beautifully rendered. A social hour was enjoyed, during which time dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. Twenty-nine guests were present. Meeting for May will be at the home of Mrs. H. Conger near Jacksonville.

Mrs. Strubel of Sweet Home, Ore., is spending a few days at the home of her friend, Mrs. C. N. Buckman.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Merritt and John Merritt of Klamth Falls and Eugene Merritt of Sprague River were Sunday guests at the parental home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Merritt in honor of the birthday anniversary of their mother.

Mrs. Mary Richardson, whose leg was broken near the hip as the result of a fall April 9, is being cared for in the Community hospital and is reported getting along favorably.

O. H. Bohnert has begun the harvesting of his rhubarb crop.

Mis Mary Maury was removed to the Community hospital Saturday where she is under treatment for a slight illness.

Fred Furra of San Fransico was in town Monday on a brief business trip remaining only a few hours.
