Redding Visitor Popular Guest

A recent visitor in Medford from Redding, Calif., is Mrs. Robert F. Watson, who is the house guest of Mrs. Helen Conroy at her home on Siskiyou Heights.

Mrs. Watson arrived here Wednesday evening and has been the inspiration for a number of entertainments.

Thursday evening, Mrs. George Codding was hostess to a group of friends honoring Mrs. Watson. This evening, Mrs. Conroy has invited guests for an informal bridge gathering at her home and Saturday night Mr. William Isaacs will compliment the visitor at his attractive home on Rogue river.

Mrs. Watson formerly lived in Medford and was very popular in bridge and golfing circles of the city. She will return to Redding Sunday evening.

Roberts Depart For Hollywood

Mr. and Mrs. William Roberts left by motorcar this morning for their home in Hollywood, Calif. They had spent the past month as guests of Mrs. Robert's mother, Mrs. Una Inch at her home on Catherine street.

Easter Egg Hunt For Juveniles

Juvenile Degree of Honor club will entertain with an Easter egg hunt Saturday afternoon from 2:00 to 4:00 o'clock.

The hunt will be held at the home of the club director, Mrs. H. G. Wilson, 7 Chestnut street.

Sweeney Home Scene of Party

Mrs. Charles T. Sweeney was hostess Thursday afternoon for an enjoyable luncheon party at her home on the old Pacific highway.

Thirty guests were present for the affair, including out-of-town guests from Grants Pass, Ashland and Jacksonville.

Large Attendance For Golf Luncheon

Women golfers of the Rogue River Golf club enjoyed their weekly luncheon and tournament Wednesday afternoon. Over thirty members turned out for the affair which was in charge of the following committee: Mrs. Thomas J. Fuson, Mrs. George Codding and Mrs. Jean Lincoln.

In the match versus par play, winners were Mrs. Belle Thompson for the class A division and Mrs. Jean Lincoln for the class B.

Hostesses for the luncheon next Wednesday will be announced at a later date. The tournament will be odd and even play.

The spring handicap will get under way on the fourth of May. Members are eagerly awaiting this event and it is anticipated that a large number will participate.

Mrs. Willie Woods, president of the women's organization, is busy making plans for the tournament.

Members recently voted to join the Oregon Women Golfers' association. This move not only gives their organization more prestige, but in the future will enable them to conduct and arrange tournament play with other women's clubs.

D. A. R. To Convene Tomorrow Afternoon

Crater Lake Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will convene tomorrow afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the home of Mrs. R. E. McElhose, 829 Minnesota avenue.

The program will consist of an address by Miss Katherine Stewart, who recently spent some time in Williamsburg. Her topic will be "Restoration of Old Williamsburg," the old colonial capital.

Guests for the affair are: Mrs. Clarence Meeker, Mrs. J. R. Cochran and Miss Sarah Van Meter.

Pre-Easter Party At Hober Home

Miss Zena Mary Hober was a recent hostess for a delightful pre-Easter buffet supper held at her home on West 11th street.

Decorations in the Easter motif prevailed. Following the dinner, games and cards were enjoyed for the remainder of the evening.

Guests for the enjoyable affair included Misses June D. Williams, Betty Morris, Ruth Hill, Burns Frohreich, Mary Jane Frohreich, and Rose Frohreich.

Calendar

Friday 8:00 p. m.—Wenonah club, public card party, Redman hall, Apple street.

Saturday 2:00 p. m.—D. A. R. home Mrs. R. E. McElhose, 829 Minnesota avenue.
