Luncheon Party Monday by Past Matrons Club

Reames chapter of the Past Matrons club will sponsor an Easter Monday luncheon and card party in the Masonic temple at 1 o'clock.

Following the luncheon, contract and action bridge, five hundred and pinocle will be offered and also other games for those not playing the above. A musical program will also take place.

Mrs. William Bishop is general chairman of the affair. Mrs. Abie Gove, reception and program chairman. Myra Prink, refreshment and Phina Nordwick, in charge of the card playing.

Reservations for this enjoyable entertainment may be made by calling Mrs. H. F. Nordwick, phone 726-L or Mrs. W. H. McGowan, phone 638-L.

St. Ann's Group Hostess for Card Luncheon Monday

An annual event anticipated by many will be the luncheon and bridge party to be given Easter Monday, April 13 at the parish hall on South Oakdale avenue, with St. Ann's Altar society as hostess.

At 12 o'clock a special luncheon will be held to accommodate the business women who wish to attend. At 1 o'clock a luncheon for others, followed by an afternoon of card playing will be offered. Attractive prizes for bridge awards will be presented.

The committee in charge of arrangements consists of Mrs. J. C. Boyle as general chairman; Mrs. Ernest McKee, Mrs. Everett Brayton, Mrs. Ernest Barnes, Mrs. Raymond Mische, Mrs. T. E. Daniels, Mrs. W. J. Hutchinson, Mrs. William Hammett, Mrs. Robert B. Harper, Mrs. J. Moore, Mrs. Wallace Hickert, Mrs. Glenn Key, Mrs. William Ryan, Mrs. Joe Marshall, Mrs. Rudy Singler, Mrs. Michael Schwartz, Mrs. C. H. Thompson, Mrs. J. A. Wolf and Mrs. Syd Brown.

A silk dress, to be worn with a gray blue cape and a navy blue straw tricorn beret with a crown of mossy green ribbon, was selected by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt as one of two Easter outfits. She will wear this dress, chosen in a New York store, if the day is overcast or rainy.

Miss Hardy Engaged To J. Morgan Cook

The announcement of the engagement of Frances Hardy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hardy, of Ashland to J. Morgan Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey David Cook of Jerome, Idaho, was made last Sunday afternoon at a buffet tea, given at the Hardy home on Siskiyou boulevard.

A colonial bouquet motif was carried out in the rooms, a large bouquet on the buffet table and small nosegays at each place. At the small tables numerous tall, white tapers gave the soft lighting for the rooms. Places were set for twenty-two friends of Miss Hardy.

The wedding will take place this summer. Mr. Cook, who will be remembered for his participation in the 1937 Shakespearean festival is now living in Los Angeles.

Starkeys Hosts At Dinner Party

An enjoyable occasion took place at the Free Methodist parsonage Friday, when the Rev. and Mrs. Clarence Starkey entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Fry of Central Point. The celebration being their 62nd wedding anniversary.

Other guests invited were: J. T. Eads, W. J. Galston, David Raymond, Dwight Terwilliger, Leola Terwilliger and Mrs. Rose, all of Medford.

Mrs. C. B. Sorenson assisted the hostess. An attractive feature of the dinner was the bride's cake decorated with a miniature bride and groom. Following the dinner, music was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Fry came to Medford many years ago.

Ready For Easter Parade

A silk dress, to be worn with a gray blue cape and a navy blue straw tricorn beret with a crown of mossy green ribbon, was selected by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt as one of two Easter outfits. She will wear this dress, chosen in a New York store, if the day is overcast or rainy.

Birthday Party Enjoyed by Very Young Children

Mrs. Douglas Young entertained Thursday afternoon at her home on Park avenue for a delightful party celebrating the birthday of her daughter Marcia, and the birthday of Lloyd Miles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lucina Miles. Both children were one year old.

During the afternoon the very young guests, ranging in age from seven months to three years, enjoyed games, favors of toys and a large birthday cake. Mrs. Young was assisted by little Marcia's grandmother, Mrs. Clara Young and Mrs. James Harmon.

Mrs. Young's guests included the following mothers and their children, Mrs. Harry Raviza and daughter Susan; Mrs. Charles Lemory and daughter Lynda; Mrs. Irving Beesley and daughter Valerie Culp; Mrs. Ray Dallaire and daughter Bonnie Rae and son, Victor; Mrs. William Barker and son, William Hurley; Mrs. Miles and son, Lloyd; and Mrs. Fredrick Lennard and son, Fredrick, Jr.

Travel Subject at Thursday Club

The Thursday Morning Study club devoted their program to travel in this weekly meeting.

There were two book reviews, the first, "The White Elephants of the Caribbean," the material for which was gathered from five trips to the West Indies by the author, Henry Albert Phillips. Mr. Phillips is a historian as well as an able guide to the beauties of the Caribbean. The high lights and quaint whimsies of the book were skillfully brought out by Mrs. A. C. Meeker in her review.

The second book, "Invitation to Travel" by Helen Dean Fish, was given by Mrs. Rose Scheffelin, whose narrations add zest to the reading of any book.

The author recommends certain formalities as adding to the enjoyment of any trip. Among them are these pertinent suggestions: Read the history of the country you are to visit, acquaint yourself with the principal objects of interest and decide which ones you can conveniently see. She stresses preparing a budget and waggishly admonishes to obtain the return ticket ere starting on your trip.

She advises how to select a suitable wardrobe in an economical manner. Excellent counsel on a travel wardrobe was given also by Mrs. Margaret Patrick in her travelogue on Australia.

Mrs. Patrick's most entertaining talk on Australia included an account of her visit to a 6000 acre farm in the wild, where she took a canoe trip into the country of ebony head hunters.

Of interest was her description of the Cathedral of Melbourne and the lovely flowers, orchids and grass flowers and the acacia, of which there are five hundred different varieties.

Lovely bouquets of flowers are frozen in ice and shipped to London. Especially vivid was Mrs. Patrick's word picture of the "Great Barrier" coral reefs, with its marine world which extend 1600 miles around the coast of Australia. She called it a "symphony of colors of sea-life."

The next meeting of the club will be held Friday evening, April 29, when a musical program of all nations will be presented at the Baldwin Piano Shoppe. Members may bring two guests.

April Frolic at Jackson School

The Jackson school annual April frolic will be held Friday evening, April 22 at the school. The affair is sponsored by the P.T.A. and the purpose is to raise funds for the cafeteria and other school projects.

Dinner will be served at 6 o'clock and will be followed by an assortment of concessions and a school program will be enjoyed.

Mrs. George Russell is the general chairman.

Pro-America To Hear Speakers

Pro-America, national Republican women's organization, will convene Monday in the Holland Hotel. Speakers for the session will be, William Allen and William Perry, candidates for the Republican county commission.

Any women interested in attending this meeting is invited. Mrs. C. M. Hurd, president, will preside.

Women of Moose Sponsor Easter Picnic Today

At the semi-monthly executive committee of the Women of Moose it was announced by Recorder Fredrick that Fannie May Thompson of Klamath Falls, past state president of the Women of Moose would be present at the initiatory meeting to be held Tuesday, April 12.

Several men from the Klamath lodge plan to meet the same evening with the local Royal Order of Moose to make convention plans. The ladies of the order plan to serve refreshments at the close of the meeting to both lodges.

The Moose heart committee with Olga Morrison, chairman, completed packing an Easter box for Georgia Howard, the adopted daughter of the chapter.

Letters were read by Mrs. Morrison from Georgia and her mother, Mrs. Howard who is also at Mooseheart with her child. They have been there three years and will remain until Georgia is graduated from high school and sufficiently trained in some remunerative work sufficient to care for herself.

Mrs. Winnifred Ruch, chairman of the child welfare committee reported all plans completed for the first pig-hunt and picnic for all members, their families and invited friends at Lithia park, Ashland at 1:30 Easter Sunday. Each family is to bring a basket dinner to share and their own service. Coffee, cream and sugar will be furnished by the committee in charge. Prizes will be given for the games and contests. Mrs. Reich says they are anticipating a large attendance and hope to make this an annual affair.

A most encouraging and inspiring letter was read from Mrs. Mary Watson of Moosehaven, commanding the local Women of Moose on their worthwhile objectives which they have undertaken.

Mary Tedrick was appointed chairman of the publicity committee by Senior Regent Gay to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Mrs. Davis.

Mrs. Reich, assisted by Mrs. Woodrow Reich served a delicious lunch to the following ladies: Mesdames Lilla Redbard, Mary Tedrick, Florence Brunson, Catherine Gay, Marguerite Tedrick, Olga Morrison and Beale Davis.

Treasurer Florence Brunson of Berrydale, avenue will be hostess for the next meeting of the executive committee at 1:30, April 25.

Wenonah Card Party Enjoyable Affair

Mrs. Florence Rush and Miss Verna Shelley were hostesses for the Wenonah club public card party Friday evening. There were ten tables in play with scores awarded going to Carrie Milnes, Rose Kyle, Jack Dooms, Jess Gentry, Bud Lawrence, Harold Stagg, Evelyn Stagg and Gladys Dooms.

Refreshments were served by Nellie Purdin, Ethel Randles, Helen Keenan and Nell Mellinger. The tables were decorated with yellow and green tapers. Easter eggs and spring bouquets. Next public card party will be May 20th.

Au Revoir Party For Travellers

Two departures were honored Saturday evening at a no-host dancing party, arranged by a number of socialites at Burdette's. They were that of Mrs. Lois Day, who left last week for Los Angeles and T. Slater Johnson, who departed for the East with plans to continue on a European tour with his brother.

Birthday surprise for Mrs. Benson.

WILLOW SPRINGS, April 15—(Special)—A group of friends surprised Mrs. Axel Benson on her birthday anniversary Sunday, April 10. When Mrs. Benson returned from church she found the following friends gathered to help her celebrate: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Olson and son, Elmer, Mr. and Mrs. Axel Spjut and Mrs. Josephine Clark of Medford and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Turnquist and daughter Jean, and Mrs. Sara Chailson of Grants Pass. Mrs. Benson received many beautiful gifts.

Shrine Dance to Be Brilliant Social Affair

One of the most brilliant social events of the spring season will be the Hillah Temple benefit ball, to be held in conjunction with nationwide charity balls to help swell the fund for the Shriners' hospitals for crippled children. The southern Oregon dance will be held at the Oriental Gardens Thursday, April 21, with Roy Elliott as chairman of the committee in charge. Louis Older of this city will head the local ticket committee. Sam Steinbaugh of Grants Pass will supervise ticket sale in that city and Sam Jordan, Ashland business man, will direct the Ashland ticket sale.

The Shrine benefit ball will be open to the public and all funds will be used to further the crippled children hospital movement. Steve Whipple and his Swing Music Makers will furnish the melody for the enjoyable party.

Taylor's Depart Today for Iowa

Leaving today by motorcar for Dubuque, Iowa, are Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Taylor of Vancouver avenue. They will visit Mrs. Taylor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Baier in Dubuque, who will return with them to Medford for the celebration May 3 of the Bales' golden wedding anniversary.

The Bales' four daughters will be here for the observance, which will be held at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Stocke. They are: Mrs. Stocke, Mrs. Helen Casper, Mrs. Taylor, all of this city and Mrs. O. A. Albin, who is coming from Alamosa, Colo.

Many elaborate arrangements are being made for the anniversary celebration by all members of the family.

What the Girl Scouts Are Doing

The second, in a series of meetings covering the second class rank of girl scouting, will be offered Wednesday, April 20, at 1:30, Scout headquarters. Mrs. Marjorie Penn, local director has planned the "home making" field for this day. Each leader attending is asked to bring an article of clothing to be remodeled. A competent seamstress will assist each leader in planning the remodeling of her garment. Also a representative from a ladies ready-to-wear shoppe will address the leaders on "the ideal type of shopper, and how merchants can better serve their customers."

Troops two and seven had a joint over-night at Scout headquarters during Easter vacation. Special forms of camp cookery were enjoyed. Campfire service and colors before breakfast. Following the morning hike the entire group assembled at the home of Scout Nancy Morrow and had bacon, eggs and hot coffee prepared on tin can stoves. Mrs. Dale Wyatt, Mrs. B. Driver and Mrs. Marjorie Penn were adult leaders who engaged this camp out. As a final reward for this camping experience, hiking and cooking, each girl scout earned her camper badge, one of the new badges under the new Girl Scout program. These badges will be presented at the April court of awards.

Girl Scout troop, number 6, enjoyed an Easter egg hunt and party Friday at the home of Mrs. Fred Wahl. During the afternoon the girls enjoyed games supervised by the captains, Mrs. C. A. Thatcher and Miss June Williams. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Wahl assisted by Mrs. James Sutherland and Mrs. Clarence Pankey.

Those present were: Betty Wahl, Joppe Cox, Shirley Pankey, Mary McLaren, Peggy Corum, Mary Loesler, Beverly Bailey, Thelma Severson, Gloria Smith, Mary Glascock, Josephine Case, Ada Nakagiri, Jean Lydiard, LaVonne Caslin, Jeannette Thatcher, June Williams, Elaine Sutherland, Marton Sutherland, Zethyle Evans and Mary Lou Swope.

Wednesday Study Club Meeting

Wednesday Study club will hold a regular meeting at the Girls Community clubhouse, Wednesday at 2:30 o'clock.

Lynch Home Scene Mistletoe Meet

Mistletoe club met at the home of Rosella Lynch on North Holly street with Susanne Braun, and Hanna Honors as hostesses. There were 27 present, including Lenora Broili, state supervisor for the Royal Neighbors and Marjorie Pierson, district deputy. Each gave short talks relative to the rally being held in Jacksonville, Tuesday, April 19. Medford camp is asked to do the initiatory work and also the exemplification of the sentinel duty. Medford members will furnish the cakes. Officers practice on Monday at 2 o'clock. Every officer is to be present.

Following the business meeting an auction of "White Elephants" was held, which was very amusing and profitable.

Hostesses for next meeting are Elsie Hawstern and Mabel Lynch, place to be announced later.

The social evening next Thursday of the lodge will begin with a box supper at 6:30. Committee will furnish the coffee. Entertainment will follow.

Chrysanthemum Club Enjoys Meeting

Chrysanthemum Thimble club met at the home of Mrs. Lottie Samuels, 1020 Queen Ann avenue, Thursday afternoon.

A delightful dessert luncheon was served at 1:30 o'clock after which a business session took place and the remainder of the afternoon spent in sewing and pleasant conversation.

Easter and birthday gifts were presented to several of the members by their mystery pals.

P.T.A. Activities

The Washington School Parent-Teachers association will meet next Friday, April 22, at the Washington school building. Dr. William F. Roney, Medford physician, will be the speaker for this important meeting and officers for the coming season will be elected.

As one of the entertainment features of the Friday meeting, musical numbers will be presented by the pupils of Mrs. Deane and Mrs. Huntress. The songs will be led by Mrs. Lois Young.

Oak Grove Club Met Wednesday

Mrs. J. S. Lundy entertained the Oak Grove Neighborhood club on Wednesday with a desert luncheon. Ten members were present. Guests were Mrs. P. Nelson of Escumclaw, Wash., and Mrs. Earl Brewster. Some of the members brought flower plants for exchange. Next meeting will be with Mrs. Mary Gustafson, April 27, and will be a covered dish luncheon.

Former Local Man Marries In Washington

Of interest to many people in this valley is the marriage announcement of Miss Mabel Inus of Caldwell, Idaho to Jasper Reynolds, son of Mr. and Mrs. Law Reynolds of Ashland, formerly of Medford.

The wedding was solemnized April 5 in Vancouver, Washington, the couple coming to Ashland immediately after the ceremony. They were guests until Thursday of Mrs. Reynolds' parents at the Hotel Ashland, where a wedding dinner in their honor was given on Wednesday evening. They are now in Portland where they will make their home.

The marriage is the culmination of an early romance, the two having been sweethearts when the Reynolds also lived in Caldwell, a number of years ago.

Jasper Reynolds has a host of friends in this city as well as Ashland. He attended University of Oregon where he was a member of Alpha Tau Omega, national social fraternity.

Griffin Study Club To Meet

Griffin Creek Study club will meet at the home of Mrs. C. J. Logan on Stewart avenue, Wednesday at 1:30 p. m. The topic, "Escaping From Reality," will be under discussion. This will be the last discussion in a series on behaviorism.

A large attendance is urged for the final meeting of the season.
