BREWING BOWLERS WIN TEAM TITLE

CHICAGO, April 19.—(AP)—The Birk Brothers Brewing company five-man squad became the official winner of the 1938 American Bowling Congress team championship today.

The five veterans on the Chicago team posted their winning score on April 5 but it wasn't recognized until the last of their 4,000 trials for the major prize finished bowling early today.

Not only did the Birk team win the championship but it also established a new record of 3,234 for the A.B.C. The margin of victory—137 pins—was the biggest recorded in the bowling classic.

At 7 p. m. tonight, the thrunder of 47 days and 47 nights will cease and the names at the top of the A.B.C. board will be declared champions of the four divisions. A total of 24,785 of the nation's best bowlers competed for top honors on the Coliseum alleys.

MARINE DISABLES TOUGH M'DONALD WITH CRAB HOLD

Sgt. Bob Kenaston evaded his score with Sockeye Jack McDonald in the Medford armory last night, and it took the big, ex-Marine officer from Gold Hill just 12 minutes to turn the trick.

Making his first ring appearance in over two months, Kenaston slapped a vicious Gold Hill crab on the guy who almost murdered him 10 weeks ago, and Sockeye was all through for the evening. Try as he might, he was unable to rouse himself after a dose of Sgt. Bob's favorite maneuver, and that's the way it ended — one fall for Kenaston after a dozen minutes of dramatic and brutal action.

Until Kenaston whammed McDonald on the back of the head with a huge right fist and set him up for the crab hold, the Gold Hiller was forced to endure almost unbelievable punishment as Sockeye went to work on Bob's ankle, broken two months ago in Klamath Falls. McDonald wasted no time in declaring his intentions; socking Kenaston on the chin at the bell and diving in for the recently mended ankle. For the full 12 minutes he applied every ankle-hold in the book to the Kenaston underpinning, and at times it seemed the victim must give up or suffer another busted bone in his leg.

Several times Referee Earl Yockley attempted to award the fall to Kenaston as McDonald refused to break brutal toe holds, but Kenaston refused. Finally, when it appeared McDonald was about ready to finish things, Bob let loose a tremendous haymaker that caught Sockeye on the back of the neck and dropped him to his knees. Kenaston, quick to take advantage of his golden opportunity, slipped around in back and clamped on his famous crab hold.

Buildup Ken Hollis turned into a raving maniac after losing two straight falls to Wild Berry in the middle event. Berry took the first tumble in the first round with a leg breaker, and ended the match in the third with one of the most ancient tricks in the game, a trick that Hollis fell for like the greatest of rookies. Hollis applied a Boston crab to Berry, and unable to extricate himself, Berry reached up and patted Hollis on the back.

Believing the back pats were from Referee Earl Yockley, awarding the fall to him, Hollis released his hold and started to strut across the ring. Berry got quietly to his feet, slugged Hollis on the back of the head, and body slammed him to the canvas and pinned his shoulders.

For fully five minutes Hollis raved and ranted around the ring, pleading with the crowd that he had won the fall. He actually worked himself into such a frenzy that he frothed at the mouth. Finally, he slammed out of the ring, kicked over a couple of chairs, and stalked to the dressing room.

Marshall Carter and Paul Murdoch battled six rounds to a clean and ed-outtie draw, Murdoch taking the first fall in the third canto with a body slawson, and Carter knocking the count in the final round with a series of dropkicks and a body slam.
