Parents Cleared of Baby's Death in Parked Auto

A coroner's jury last night absolved Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Ross, Crescent City, Calif., of any culpability in the death of their 5-week-old daughter, Marilee Gail Ross, who succumbed early Sunday morning in the parents' car which had been parked at a Medford night resort.

After an autopsy Dr. William W. P. Hoar signed a certificate attributing the infant's death to an enlarged thymus. "Infant died suddenly," the death certificate said. Dr. R. W. Stearns concurred in the autopsy findings and so testified at the inquest held last night in the Perl chapel.

After hearing testimony, the coroner's jury found that the infant met death from the "effects of an enlarged thymus." No one was guilty of a crime by reason of her death, the jury's verdict said.

The parents were given possession of the baby's body last night to return to Crescent City for funeral services.

The 24-year-old father of the baby testified that he looked at the infant every 15 or 20 minutes as she slept in the car while he and his wife and another couple attended a night spot. They left the resort about 11:15 Sunday morning and shortly thereafter when Mrs. Ross lifted the baby to feed her she screamed that the tot was dead, Ross testified. He then told of rushing the baby to Community hospital where resuscitation efforts failed.

Other witnesses gave similar testimony. Mrs. Ross, 18-year-old mother of the child, had a difficult time suppressing sobs as she testified. Later when her mother, Mrs. H. T. Prince of Phoenix, was testifying, Mrs. Ross wept. Marilee was the first baby born to Mr. and Mrs. Ross.

The inquest was conducted by Coroner Frank Perl and George W. Neilson, deputy district attorney. The jury was composed of F. Wilson Wait, Herbert Guenther, M. C. Wright, H. N. Butler, Kenneth N. Anthony and Russell Acheson.

The Ross family came here last Thursday to spend the week-end with Mrs. Ross' stepfather and mother, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Prince, Phoenix. They went to the night resort Saturday evening with Mrs. Ross' brother, Boyd Bellamy, and his wife and 7-month-old baby.

NOTABLE CAST IN BENEFIT CINEMA

The benefit showing of "Fire Over England" is expected to attract a capacity audience to the Varsity theater in Ashland tomorrow night. Proceeds will go to the Oregon Shakespeare fund. The film presentation is being made by Prof. Angus L. Bower, director of dramatics at the Southern Oregon Normal school, through cooperation of the Ashland playhouse.

A notable cast was selected with infinite care for the portrayal of the story which depicts the romance, grandeur and tragedy of Queen Elizabeth's time. Studio statistics show that Mrs. Robson, portraying Queen Elizabeth, spent 18 months delving into Elizabethan lore before she undertook the role.

Critics have said that Miss Robson gives a brilliant portrayal of the monarch whose energy and zeal for her country's welfare made her reign immortal.

Other principals in the cast are Raymond Massey as Philip of Spain, Leslie Banks as the Earl of Leicester, Lawrence Olivier as dashing young Michael Igolby and Vivien Leigh, considered one of the most beautiful actresses on stage and screen today.

A matinee will be given in the Varsity theater tomorrow afternoon for students. Tickets are on sale in Medford at Pruitt's Music-Radio Center.

Closing time for Too Late to Classify Ads is 1:30 p. m.

'HIT IT UP' LIONS MINSTREL REVIEW OPENING TONIGHT

"Hit It Up," the sensational minstrel-review produced by the John B. Rogers company under the auspices of the Medford Lions club, will open a two-night engagement at the senior high school auditorium tonight at 8:15. With 250 local musical and dramatic artists in the cast, and the junior symphony orchestra, the Medford Gleemen, and the Medford and Yreka, Cal., accordion bands scheduled for concerts, the presentation is expected to reach an all-time high in musical and hilarious entertainment. The show will be repeated Wednesday evening at the same time.

Proceeds of the rollicking review will be used to swell the Lions club blind fund and for the benefit of the junior symphony orchestra, and the Gleemen.

Although the show, itself, starts at 8:15, there will be a concert at 8:00 o'clock by the junior symphony orchestra, directed by Prof. John R. Knight. The orchestra will also present a 10-minute intermission concert between part one and two of the review.

Two accordion bands, the Medford and Yreka, Cal., organizations, both directed by Mrs. Harry Prentice, will present numbers during the show, and the Gleemen, under direction of Sebastian Apollo, will appear as hit 11 on the program.

The show has been in rehearsal for two weeks and Director Vernon L. Price of the Rogers company states the entire cast is ready to turn in an excellent performance. The program ranges from short comedy skits to a real, old-fashioned minstrel show with end men and everything. There are tuneful songs and numbers galore, spectacular dances by pupils of Eve Benson's dancing studio, and specialty numbers by all members of the cast.

The complete program and cast follows:

"Goldwyn Follies" Opens Wednesday

When Kenny Baker wins Andrea Leeds from Adolphe Menjou it marks the climax of the biggest musical comedy ever to be brought to the screen. "Goldwyn Follies," filmed entirely in technicolor, opening a four-day run tomorrow at the New Criterion theater. Others in the cast of this giant show include the madcap Ritz Brothers, Zorina, Helen Jepson of the "Met," Phil Baker, Ella Logan, Bobby Clark, Jerome Cowan, the famous American Ballet, and scores of beautiful dancing girls. And topping them all is the sensational successful Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy. The story is a comedy of Hollywood which shows Menjou as a film producer out of touch with his public, and Miss Leeds as the typical mercurial girl whom he hires to keep him posted on what the public wants. The late George Gershwin, with his brother Ira collaborating, wrote most of the tunes in the film with the exception of the Ritz Brothers' numbers, including the hilarious "Pussy, Pussy."

In Roxy Drama

Josephine Hutchinson, as the mountain girl whose love is to be sold to the highest bidder, and George Brent, the fearless young attorney who tries to save her from her fate, are co-starring in "Mountain Justice" at the Roxy theater for today and tomorrow only.

Betty Green - pupils of Eve Benson's studio.

Hit IX "Muddy Waters" (Big Foot Ballet) - Jack Marshall, Richard Mole, Byron Murdoch, Charlie Morrissey, Lewell Duprey, Donell Adams, John Preston, Stanley Gunstin and Claude Vanzandt.

Hit X "Phony Talk" - A scene somewhere in Medford.

Hit XI Medford's Own Gleemen - Sebastian Apollo, director. Members - Almus Pruitt, assistant director, Maynard Bush, president, and M. E. Olson, Shelton Waters, Gail Thomson, Frank Gray, Morris Steiner, Earl Beal, A. J. McDonough, Martin Webb, J. E. Hillis, Ray Erickson, Harry Marx, Merle Dietrich, Ray Hunsaker, M. J. Spring, C. L. Smith, J. H. McKeuzie, Morris Ellett, Henry Niedermeier, Ken Denman, Victor Tengwald, Earl Fey, Dr. W. W. Howard, Charles Buchanan, A. I. Vroman, Claude VanZandt, Mr. Crowe and Grant Bean.

Hit XII "Medford Melody Trio" - Corine Harwood, Mary Louise McElhose, Josephine Bullis.

Hit XIII - "Voices of the Southland" - Louie Van Richter, Bob Rye and ensemble. Miss Bette Davis in specialty dance. Miss Daphne Shonkwiler and group of Pickaninny dancers including Durell Adams, Barbara Bevan, Herbert Howard, Alpha Wheelock, Stanley Gunstin, Ruth Slorah, Douglas Pickett and Gretchen McAllister.

"Kentucky Babe" - Louie and Bob Miss Jewel Deter special jazz stunt with her chorus of Scratch Dancers including: Helen Smith, Jean Bowen, Doretha Linn, Melba Linn, Pat Marguis, Mary Milestone, Helen Lawrence and Lorraine Swape.
