Sparkling Comedy Coming to Craterian's Screen Sunday

What has been termed as being the merriest comedy riot since "Topper" hit the screen last year comes to the New Craterian theater Sunday as the feature picture on the combined stage and screen show opening a three-day run. The picture is "Merrily We Live" and has Constance Bennett and Brian Aherne in the romantic roles, with Patsy Kelly, Billie Burke, Alan Mowbray and Ann Dvorak featured in the supporting cast.

SPECIAL BRINGS RECRUITS OF CCC

A special train from Fort Knox, Kentucky, bringing replacements for the South Fork, Tule Lake, Lava Beds and Silver Lake camps, arrived in the Medford district yesterday. The train was divided at Black Butte, Calif., 100 men arriving on the regular S. P. train here for South Fork. The main train continued to Klamath Falls, where 96 were detained for Tule Lake and 96 for Lava Beds. The train ended its run at Chemung, where 102 men were detained for Silver Lake.

Dramatic Role

Garbed in the drab khaki of a convict, Sally Eilers, with Anne Shirley and Louis Hayward, heads the cast of "Condemned Women," a dramatic story of the women who are shut away from society and romance in prisons, which plays at the Ritz theater today and tomorrow only as the added feature with "Island in the Sky." The latter picture stars Gloria Stuart, Maciel Whalen and Paul Kelly and deals with romance and mystery in Manhattan's highest night spot.

properly, the property man, unbeknownst to the Ritzes and Menjou, had sprayed colliver oil all over the office. Result: A perfect scene that the camera caught when it was supposed to be only a rehearsal, and in so doing, caught the natural expressions of horror, consternation and the desire to get away from it all that showed so plainly on Menjou's face.
