

1300 STUDENTS REGISTERED FOR MUSIC FESTIVAL

Normal School Will Conduct Ninth Annual Gathering April 28-29 - Many Schools Sending Entries

SOUTHERN OREGON STATE NORMAL SCHOOL, Astland, April 21-29 (Spl.) - Thirteen hundred grade school students have been registered to participate in the ninth annual public school music festival to be held on the Normal school campus April 28 and 29.

Entries have been received from Beaver Creek, Prospect, Derby, Bellview, Oak Grove, Rogers River, Gold Hill, Evans Valley, Wagner, Creek, West Side, Ashland, Pinesburg, Phoenix, Medford and Talent schools in Jackson county; from Jerome Prairie, Fort Vannoy, Wolf Creek and Grants Pass schools in Josephine county; and from the Klamath Falls schools in Klamath county.

Grade Events April 28. Grade school children will enter events scheduled for Thursday, April 28, including the chorus of unchanged voices directed by Miss Louise Woodruff of the Normal school, the mixed chorus directed by Mrs. Dorothy Morris of Phoenix, the Junior band directed by Miss Lillie Darby, supervisor of music in Klamath Falls, and the folk dancing under the direction of Miss Virginia Hales of the Normal school.

High school students will participate on Friday, April 29, in the girls' chorus, to be directed by Mrs. Esther Leake, music supervisor of Medford schools; the men's chorus supervised by Miss Marjorie Schobert, director of music in Astland; the mixed chorus directed by Clyde Hix of Grants Pass; the high school band conducted by Wilson Wait of Medford, and the orchestra conducted by Martin Treppe of Grants Pass.

Feature Ensembles. Since the purpose of the festival is to foster increased appreciation of music and enjoyment in group participation, the ensemble numbers are featured rather than competitive groups.

The festival will be held in the health and physical education building on the Normal school campus for the second time. Bleachers have been installed in this building to accommodate spectators and to eliminate the crowded condition of last year.

COUNTY RESTORES SPAN ON MIDWAY

The Midway road bridge across Bear creek, near the Rogue River Meat company plant has been completed, the county engineer reported today. The span was washed away last winter.

The steel bridge which formerly spanned Sardinia creek on the Pacific highway, is being re-erected over Galls creek near Gold Hill. The span was given to the county by the state highway commission.

Six graders are now busy placing county roads in shape for spring and summer traffic. Some of the roads are still sticky from last winter's heavy rains.

The county is also doing some road work on the Oak street extension road in the Ashland district. No riding will be done until warm weather sets in.
