

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Twins Here—Dale and Gals Beebe, twins of the Sams Valley district, were Medford callers yesterday.

Business Caller—Mrs. Lawrence Porter of Ashland was a business caller here Wednesday.

Returns Home—Miss Stuart of 1929 Queen Anne avenue returned last night from Bandon where she had spent several days transacting business.

Cubs to Meet—Committee meeting of Washington school cub pack 8 will be held in Boy Scout headquarters tonight at 8 o'clock. J. Verne Shangle, committee chairman, announced.

To Remodel—Henry C. Gallup of 315 Edwards street applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to remodel a house at a stated cost of $150.

Resumes Practice—Dr. James C. Hayes, Medford physician, recently returned from Portland and has resumed his practice at his office in the Medford Center building.

Arrives Home—Col. Gordon Voorhees returned to his Eden Valley orchard home this morning on the train from Portland, where he had spent the past two weeks.

To Attend Funeral—All Royal Neighbors are requested to meet at the P. M. funeral home Saturday at 2 p. m. to attend the funeral of Mark Putnam.

Ashland Visitor—Mrs. Margaret Fabrick of 107 Crater Lake avenue visited Wednesday evening in Ashland with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Ingie.

Official Leaves—Ivan Oakes, state WPA engineer from Portland, left Medford yesterday for Brookings after spending some time here inspecting local projects. He was accompanied by Mrs. Oakes.

Recovering—Mrs. E. W. Plackus of Ashland, who has been a patient in the Sacred Heart hospital in this city for several weeks, was recently discharged. She is reported recovering satisfactorily in her Ashland home.

Back from Klamath—Mrs. H. M. Thompson returned last night to her home at 14 Almond street from Klamath Falls where she visited for a few days with her husband. Mr. Thompson is employed in Klamath Falls.

Queer Eggs—Soft-shelled Siamese eggs were on display today at the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce. They were laid by a White Leghorn hen owned by Mrs. Arthur Kent of Rite 3.

Mother Dies—Mrs. W. S. Gilmore of 55 North Orange street received word today of the death in Baltimore, Md., of her mother, Mrs. Frank W. Ray, following the amputation of a leg. Mrs. Gilmore said she knew no other details.

Team Has Banquet—Varsity and midget basketball players of St. Mary's high school enjoyed a banquet in the school dining room last night. Patrons Francis W. Elgert and Augustus Meyers gave talks praising the performance of both teams during the past season. All players responded with short speeches. Coach Wallace Rickert was toastmaster.

Returns to Medford—Ike Dunford, former deputy sheriff of Jackson county, has returned to Medford to accept the position of manager of the meat department of the Riverdale market. For the past three years Mr. Dunford has operated a meat market in Treks, Cal.

Roof Fire—Damage was done this morning to the roof and attic of the W. E. Cooper residence on the site of the old gas plant south of town. The fire department's chemical crew helped in putting the blaze out. The property is owned by the Southern Oregon Gas corporation.

To Portland—Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Obye and two young children, Mary and John, of 17 Glen Oak court left today by motorcar to spend a few days with relatives in Portland. Mr. Obye, assistant supervisor of the Rogue River national forest, has been granted a short leave of absence.

Ranger Confers—John Sarginson, new ranger of the Lake O'Woods district of the Rogue River national forest with winter station in Klamath Falls, conferred here today with W. L. Jones, construction superintendent. The two men went over plans on spring maintenance of forest roads, trails and telephone lines.

On Committee—Carl Y. Tengwald, Medford realtor, received notification today of his appointment to the national committee on real estate taxation of the National Association of Real Estate Boards. The notice said he would represent this community on matters pertaining to real estate taxation.

To Hospital—Stephen A. Moore of 708 West 2nd street, lumberman of the Rogue River national forest, left by train last night for Seattle, Wash., to enter the U. S. Marine hospital for examination. Mr. Moore was injured in a fall from a freight car loaded with logs in 1937 and the old injury has been bothering him of late, he said.

Returns from South—Miss Annie C. Bartlett of 23 Summit avenue returned by United Mailliner yesterday afternoon from Los Angeles. She has been receiving treatment in southern California. She was accompanied north by her brother, E. L. Bartlett. She is still under treatment.

Paving Resumed—A regular maintenance crew of the state highway commission is busy on Main street between Front street and Central avenue, patching the pavement with asphaltic concrete. The work is expected to be completed tomorrow. The crew will then work on East Main street from Bear creek bridge to Crater Lake avenue, and late next week on Crater Lake avenue. The crew consists of 25 men.

Forest Chief Here—J. W. Ferguson, state forester, arrived here from Portland by United Mailliner this morning to conduct a meeting of the Southwest Oregon Fire Patrol association at 2 p. m. in district headquarters of the state forest department on Midway road. Fire control plans for the coming season were to be mapped out. The association is composed of Jackson and Josephine county landowners whose property is protected by the state forest department.

Candidates Speak—Twelve candidates for public office last night gave three-minute talks before a combined assembly of the Crater Lake League and auxiliary of the Fraternal Order of Eagles in the Medford armory. Democratic speakers were Sheriff Syd I. Brown and Gordon L. Schermerhorn, candidates for the sheriff's nomination; W. P. Rector and James Stewart, candidates for justice of the peace; and Commissioner Otto Caster, candidate for re-nomination. Republican speakers were R. F. Singler and Alvah E. Brockway, for sheriff; Judge William R. Coleman and E. C. Jerome, for justice of the peace; and W. W. Allen, William Perry and N. D. Brophy for county commissioner.

Gets Promotion—V. L. Nielsen and Dave Hood of Portland, sales representatives of Gladding, McBean & Company, called here yesterday while en route from the northern city to Klamath Falls. Mr. Nielsen, well known in Medford, has been promoted to manager in charge of a branch office of the company in Honolulu and Mr. Hood will take his place in this territory. Mr. Nielsen will leave soon for Los Angeles where he will be stationed for a short time before sailing for Honolulu. Gladding, McBean & Company manufactures tile, pottery and other play products and has a number of large plants on the west coast.

Vertebra Broken—Bert Hagen, Jr., member of the Bend Skyliners, broke a vertebra in his fall at the ski tournament held in Crater Lake national park April 10. It was revealed in a letter received today by Kenneth G. Denman, member of the Rogue Snowmen, host club at the tourney. Hagen has been confined to his home in a plaster cast but is now able to walk around for short periods each day, the letter said. He will not be permanently injured and will probably be able to resume skiing next year. Mr. Denman was informed. The Bend youth was hurt when, making a wide turn in practice, he went off the edge of the ski course and fell 16 feet to the rock below. He said at the time he did not know the road was there. He was practicing early in the morning before the ski course could be staked.

SKELETON UNCOVERED IN GRANTS PASS, APRIL 22.—(AP)—George Bowers plowed up a complete skeleton in a Grants Pass garden patch today but the only hint of cash or clothing was a button which crumbled in the hands of Cooper Virgil Hull.

Connie Bennett In Sunday Comedy

Constance Bennett and Brian Aherne head the cast of the screen attraction on the same bill with the personal appearance on the stage of Johnny O'Brien and His Harmonica Hi Hats, coming to the New Craterian theatre Sunday.

O'Brien, long recognized as the world's greatest harmonica player, comes direct to the stage of the New Craterian from a coast-to-coast hopscotcher from N.B.C. networks. With him is lovely Lora Lee who adds the feminine charm to the show by singing several songs.

Miss Bennett and Aherne are co-stars in "Merrily We Live," the hilarious comedy successor to "Topper." Other members of the large cast include Billie Burke, Alan Mowbray, Tom Brown, Patsy Kelly and Ann Dvorak. The complete stage and screen program will remain at the New Craterian theatre for three days.

Features Cab Calloway, Ted Lewis and his band, Joe Dimaggio, Henry Armetta, Louis Prima and his band and Smiley Burnette in the large cast.

"Ellis Island," a drama based on the immigration problem, is scheduled to play as the added feature. Donald Cook, Jack LaRue and Peggy Shannon head stellar roles.

Iturbi Still Likes Yankee Audiences

MIAMI, Fla., April 22.—(AP)—Despite his experiences with hot-dog munchers and pop-drinkers at outdoor concerts, Jose Iturbi still prefers Yankees as an audience. Next he prefers the Dutch.

The dapper little orchestra leader said so as he left today aboard a Pan-American Airways clipper, en route to South America to conduct concerts in Peru, Uruguay, Argentina and Chile. He said he would return to New York in June.

LEADS HONORABLE, Britain's secretary for war, arrived today by airplane from Malta. He will launch with Foreign Minister Count Galeazzo Ciano tomorrow and visit Premier Mussolini later.
