

Tiger Track Crew Captures Hayward Relay Honors at Eugene

TARDY BOWERMAN SQUAD WALK OFF WITH U.O.F. EVENT

Take Three Firsts To Score 22 Points—Salem High Second, Beaverton Third.

EUGENE, April 23.—(AP)—Medford high school's powerful track and field team, winning three firsts, a second and a third, walked off with the second annual Hayward relay run this afternoon on the University of Oregon track. The Peppers scored 22 points. Salem took second place honors with 17 points.

Coach Bill Bowerman's Medford team might have made their victory more decisive had they reported in time for the mile relay event. As it was they had to be content with firsts in the 440-yard, javelin and high jump relays, a second in the sprint medley and a third in the distance medley.

Col. Bill Hayward, Oregon's famous track coach and sponsor of the relay meet, grinned when he handed the most trophy to the Medford captain. He coached Coach Bowerman when the latter was one of Oregon's star quarter-milers.

Third place was won by Beaverton with 11 points. Other teams that broke into the scoring column and their total points are as follows: Chemawa and Hill Military, both 8 points; Eugene and Corvallis, both 7 points; University of Eugene, 3 1/2; Milwaukie, 3; Molalla, 1, and Cottage Grove one-half a point.

Other high schools which competed in the meet were Vernonia, Sweet Home, Springfield, Lebanon and Roseburg.

CORVALLIS, April 23.—(AP)—Oregon State college athletic officials began preparations this week for the twelfth annual Oregon State high school track and field meet to be held on Bell field May 20-21.

A committee headed by Elmer Kolberg, president of the Varsity O. L. lettermen's organization, is seeking accommodations for more than 200 athletes.

Coaches of the competing teams will be guests of the Associated Students at an annual dinner May 20, when final drawings will be made.

NEW YORK, April 23.—(AP)—Wes Ferrell pitched himself into a spot in the ninth inning today and then pitched himself right out again to save a 7 to 4 victory for the Washington Senators over the Yankees before a crowd of 24,949 in Yankee stadium.

BEAVERS BEATEN BY SACS 14 TO 5, IN HITTING BEE

PORTLAND, April 23.—(AP)—The Sacramento Senators pounded out a lopsided 14 to 5 victory over Portland here today and took a 3 to 2 lead in the series standings.

Four Beaver hurlers paraded to the mound and all were smacked almost at will by the hit-hungry Sacs, while Cotten Phippen coasted in with the triumph.

Sacramento jumped off to a three-run lead in the second, added two in the third, four in the fourth and two in each of the next two frames.

Portland's only bid for the game was made in the third when four hits were converted into as many runs.

Williams with a home run and Buster Adams with two doubles and two singles led the Sacs' attack.

Score: R. H. E. Sacramento 14 5 2 Portland 5 9 2 Phippen and Franks; Radonits, Hare (2), Shealy (3), Cecil (4) and Dickey.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—(AP)—Pushing over all their runs in a sixth-inning rally on three hits and as many walks, the San Francisco Seals defeated Hollywood 5 to 3 today to clinch the series.

The Stars spotted Wayne Osborne to a three-run lead in the opening frame but the Seals got their bats working in the sixth to chalk up their fourth win of the week.

Manager Frank O'Dell of the Seals was ousted from the game in the third inning although he made no verbal protest over a called strike. O'Dell simply laid down on the ground on the third base coaching line. Umpire Bert Cole didn't like the implied ridicule.

Score: R. H. E. Hollywood 3 7 0 San Francisco 5 3 2 Osborne and Brunze; Mann, Miller (7), Ballou (7) and Woodall.

LOS ANGELES, April 23.—(AP)—Solving the pitching of their erstwhile nemesis, Tiny Chaplin, and driving him to the showers in the sixth inning with a five-run uprising, Los Angeles defeated San Diego 9 to 4 here today.

Score: R. H. E. San Diego 4 11 1 Los Angeles 9 11 1 Chaplin, Pillette (6), Rhodes (7), Ward (8) and Detore; Lillard and Collins.

CRATERS TANGLE WITH RED SOX OF KLAMATH AT 2:30

Medford's Craters, bolstered by the heavy-hitting Indian catcher, Cliff "Chief" McLean, and determined to uphold the reputation of the Southern Oregon league, clash with the powerful Northern California league Klamath Falls Red Sox today at the high school park at 2:30 p. m. It will be the first inter-league exhibition battle ever staged in Medford between clubs of these two fast semi-pro circuits.

Following a week of steady betting and fielding drills, Manager Wally Rickett of the Medfords believe his club is in a position to knock off the classy Red Sox in the next-to-last encounter before the opening of the Southern Oregon loop May 9.

"We've got the hitting and defensive strength," Skipper Rickett said, "and if our hurlers come through we'll pull an upset."

Opening on the Crater mound today will be one of four young right-handers—Ray Erickson, Bill Rathke, Larry Pepper or Ray Tungate. Boes Rickett said he would name the starting pitcher after he had a chance to look over their stuff immediately preceding the game.

McLean, recently obtained from Ashland, will do the catching and hit in fifth position, directly behind Paul "Hooper" Hoffard in the cleanup spot.

Clyde "Curvball" Carlstrom, righthander with the sweeping hook and beautiful control, will be on the pitching rubber for the Red Sox, runners-up to Mt. Shasta City in the Northern California loop last season. Carlstrom led all hurlers in games won and lost in his league last year, and in 1935 and 1936 pitched the Klamath Falls team to pennants in the Southern Oregon circuit. Other Sox moundsmen who may get into the fray are Turpin, Hogan and Sque, all rookies and considered comers.

With McLean furnishing a tremendous amount of added batting strength, the Craters will reveal a lineup studded with offensive dynamites. Following Dick Sakrada, centerfielder, in the batting order will be Manager Rickett, second base; Dick Lewis, shortstop; Hoffard and McLean in the vital fourth and fifth spots; Lowell Brown, southpaw first baseman, in sixth; Arba Ager, third base, in seventh; Russ Acheson or George Harrington, left field, in eighth, and the pitcher.

The Red Sox, managed by Orlo Oakes, will present several national pastimes well-known to Medford fans, from their appearances here in 1935. Shipman will be in left field, Hammerickson, former Grants Pass speed-burner, in center, and fifty Molotors will see outside duty. In the infield, Bernadou and Brooks will be at short and second, and other inner gardeners are Sandstrom, Hershberger, Lloyd, Moore and Durancho. Fryer will do the catching, with Pastega and Pape in reserve.

There has been considerable verbal rivalry and "popping off" between member teams of the two circuits regarding which plays the faster brand of baseball, and today's spots, Lowell Brown, southpaw first baseman, in sixth; Arba Ager, third base, in seventh; Russ Acheson or George Harrington, left field, in eighth, and the pitcher.

Representatives of Southern Oregon league baseball teams met in Grants Pass Friday night and adopted a 10-game schedule, to start May 8 and end August 28, with each team playing eight games at home and eight away.

A previous tentative slate called for 15 games, with three clubs having one more home date than the other three teams.

It is a silver statuette of a first baseman stretching to take a throw. It will be on display in Grants Pass this week, and in Medford next week.

Team representatives at the meeting were W. L. Dobbin, Glendale; M. F. Buffum, Yreka; Fred Roper, Grants Pass; Austin Franier, Medford and Dom Provost, Ashland.
