

Dude Chick to Face Only Grappler That Ever Defeated Him Here

CHAMPION EAGER EVEN OLD SCORE WITH KEN HOLLIS

Kennaston Will Tangle With Wild Red Berry in Middle Match On Tonight's Card In Armory Arena.

Cowboy Dude Chick, junior heavyweight wrestling champion of the world, returns to Medford tonight to face the only man who ever gave him a shellacking in the local armory—Bulldog Ken Hollis. The pair meet in the main event of an all-star program which starts at 8:30 sharp.

It was a little over two years ago, a short time before Chick became champion, that Hollis turned in his performance which stands alone in Medford, grappling circles. Chick, on the way up, was winning a match after match with his spectacular lariat spin, and when he gave it to Hollis to even the falls at one apiece, it looked like another copyrighted Chick victory.

Given Extra Time

Hollis was down and out after the spin, and pleaded for an extra five minutes in which to recuperate. Chick, big-hearted, gave it to him, and the result was that after the five minutes were up, the champion bull was so rejuvenated that he tore into Chick and gave him a neat pasting. It was the one and only time here that the popular Cowboy ever lost a match.

Tonight, the champion gets a chance to even that old score with Hollis, and he has indicated that if he gives the Bulldog the old lariat whirl, there will be no extra five-minute business. Hollis, confident because of the realization he once whipped Chick, claims there won't be any lariat spin display; that he will batter Chick out in short order.

Kennaston Faces Berry

In the middle engagement, Sgt. Bob Kennaston of Gold Hill, southern Oregon's pride and joy, clashes with Wild Red Berry, former light heavyweight champion of the world. Both are pretty fair grapplers, but because Berry would rather stand in there and slug, the match will probably turn into a brawl.

A newcomer, Fritz Hansen of Sweden, will face Popular Paul Murdoch in the opening event. Hansen is 27 years old, tall and rangy, and weighs 190 pounds. He has earned quite a rep in the east, and is reported to be a good wrestler with a slight leaning toward the brutal.

FINE SCORES MARK SUNDAY SHOOTING

Excellent scores were turned in yesterday at the rifle club's small-bore range, the majority of the entries consisting in the upper 300's and rounding into form for coming tournaments at San Francisco, Bend, Medford and Portland.

The small-bore range is being completely rebuilt to conform with latest range requirements in order to hold the registered matches here May 29 and 30. The local club has put considerable time and money into what will be one of the finest ranges in the west, and it is expected to make the coming registered matches an annual event.

Yesterday's scores over the Dewar course were:

NATIONAL ELBOWERS LIKE NEW SPHEROID

(By the Associated Press)

National league pitchers evidently are beginning to take a liking to that new ball with its slightly raised seams. In four games yesterday they turned in a series of remarkable performances. Hal Schumacher of the Giants showing the way with a shut-out, 1-to-0 victory over Brooklyn's Dodgers.

There's no doubt the National league ball affords a little better grip than the American game and enables a pitcher to get maybe a little more stuff on his deliveries, though tests have proved it travels just as far when swatted soundly. There is no difficulty in distinguishing the two balls when one is held in either hand.

SEVEN CLUBS PERFECT IN TELEGRAPH SHOOT

PORTLAND, Ore., April 25.—(AP)—Seven competing clubs turned in perfect scores of 75 in the final round of the 13th annual telegraphic trapshoot Sunday.

Final standings will be compiled and announced later this week.

The 100 per cent club Sunday were Salem, Washington, Harrisburg, Portland, Coos County, La Grande and Corvallis.

Champion in Cowboy Role

Seated astride a horse, Cowboy Dude Chick (above) is not thinking about wrestling. He won't be on a pony tonight in the Medford armory when he faces Bulldog Ken Hollis in the main event of the weekly grappling program.

News of 4-H CLUBS

By Janet Charley

The Baby Beef Wranglers of Lake Creek held their meeting at Janet Charley's where members judged Holstein dairy cows. Next meeting will be May 7 at Stanley's where members will judge pigs.

Mr. Conrad, the only visitor, gave an interesting talk about sending calves to the world's fair at San Francisco in 1939. Several members are planning to take calves to the fair.

Members are proud to hear that Merton Bradshaw's calf "Lindy" won second place in the class of fat Herefords at the Junior Livestock show at San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. Conrad, Merton Bradshaw, Gordon, Charles and Mrs. Stanley attended the fair.

Healthy Hight health club members postponed their meeting until Gordon Stanley, Merton Bradshaw and Charles many came back from San Francisco. The club plans to give a play in the near future. Money obtained will be used to send a delegate to summer school.

Busy Down's Clothing I. and II. club held their meeting at the home of their leader, Mrs. Myrtle Charley. The work is progressing satisfactorily. Dorothy Stanley and Janet Zundel were absent. Next meeting to be held April 28.

PORTLAND, April 25.—(AP)—Approximately 250,000 available acres in the Willamette valley are suitable for growing fiber flax, Mrs. W. W. Gabriel of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs told the Portland Realty Board.

RATHKE PITCHES CRATERS TO 5-3 WIN AGAINST SOX

Teammates Belt Offerings Of 3 Klamath Moundsmen For Nine Hits—Hoffard Aids In Clutch.

Bill Rathke, stocky little righthander with the weird mound action and great big heart, made it clear yesterday that Medford's Craters possess a chucker who can go in there for nine tough innings, and get better as he goes along.

While his teammates were belting three Klamath pitchers for nine solid base-anakks, Bill served up a queer assortment of benders, twisters and smokers that were reversed into only seven hits, struck out five in the clutch, and all in all was the big noise as the Craters whacked the powerful Red Sox, 5 to 3, before a good-sized gathering at the high school park.

Bill showed 'em an overhead curve ball, a sidearm curve ball, and underhand curve ball, several different varieties of pitching motion, and almost perfect control. And the Red Sox, a pretty fair country ball club, couldn't do much about it. When things got tough, Bill had a not-to-be-anecdotal high hard one and a sweet and sharp-breaking hook, and was in control of the situation in all but two frames, the fourth and fifth when the Sox got their help.

Hits Tell Hurler

Heavy slugging, by Dick Sakraida, Dick Lewis and Hoosier Hoffard helped wrap the ball game up for Rathke. Sakraida and Hoffard both got doubles and Hoosier, who right now is playing his best baseball in 10 years, came through twice in the pinch to drive in three of Medford's five runs.

Manager Orlo Oakes of the Northern California league club sent 17 players into the fray, and they were all about on a par so far as ability to reach Rathke for basehits was concerned. Herschberger collected three of their seven anekies, and nobody else got over one.

The Craters were never behind, starting in on Al Hogan for a run in the first frame. They nicked him for a pair in the third, and concluded against Lyle Turpin for two in fifth; Clyde Carlstrom, working the seventh and eighth, managed to escape damage.

Sakraida Starts Hit

In the first inning Sakraida, leading off, snatched a double into left. Manager Rickert sacrificed him to third, and Dick Lewis rifled a single to left for the tally.

Skipper Rickert opened the third with a single to right, went to second on a sacrifice by Lewis, and scored on Hoosier Hoffard's long single to right-center. Hoffard went to second on the throw-in and reached third when Third Baseman Sandstrom booted Cliff McLean's grounder. Lowell Brown then laid down a perfect squeeze bunt and Hoffard tagged the plate. That made it 3 to 0 for the Craters.

The Sox got their first run in the fifth on Pastega's double to right an infield single by Switzer, a hit nasm, and Bernard's single to right. Hoffard blasted an outside pitch to left field for two bases and Sakraida and Lewis both scored. It was the payoff punch.

Klamath Threatens

Klamath looked dangerous in the sixth, driving over two runs, but Rathke took a deep breath and fanned. Herschberger and Molatore, both left-handed hitters, to retire the side before serious damage was done.

The Sox garnered their two tallies on Herschberger's single, a hit nasm, and Bernard's single to right. Hoffard scored on Bernard's blow, and when the throw-in got away from Dick Lewis, Hammerickson, who had taken a pitch on the elbow, made the circuit from first. Rathke then whiffed Shipman and Molatore with a runner on base.

In the ninth, Shipman opened for the Sox with a single, went to second on an infield out, but was left stranded as Brown pulled a great catch of a high foul ball off first and Rathke struck out Brooks to end the game.

The Craters clash with Hill of the Northern California league here next Sunday, then go to Ashland May 8 for the Southern Oregon league opener.

SHARPSHOOTER TO STAGE FREE SHOW WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Sportmen of Medford will have an opportunity to meet Claude Parmelee, well-known Michigan sharpshooter and big game hunter, at a free sport show, to be held at the Dreamland hall, 425 East Main, at 8 p. m. Wednesday, April 27, under auspices of the Medford Rifle Club.

Several reels of exciting and thrilling wild life pictures will be exhibited. Among those to be featured will be a "thriller" taken last fall by Parmelee in the heart of Ontario on a moose hunt. It shows how the greatest antlered game in the world—the bull moose—is hunted in the vast Canadian "bush." Sportmen will see the Chippewa Indian guide take them into the remote country in canoes, up the great rivers and over the back-breaking portages. How a "moose camp" is pitched.

The picture vividly portrays the prowess of the red man in the wilderness—packing 60 to 80 tremendous "heads" and other tests of the "tumble" that are amazing. Perhaps the most thrilling part of the entire picture is that showing the Chippewa in a terrific battle with the ice that caught the hunters in an early "freeze-up." The picture—"With a Winchester in Canada"—is one of the most interesting big game pictures ever screened in the Canadian wilds. Sportmen will never forget it.

Parmelee will also entertain with several shooting exhibitions and lecture on the various topics in which hunters are interested and about which they wish to know more. He is one of their kind and understands their language. All sportmen are invited to bring their gun problems to him.

All the latest types of Winchester sporting arms will be on exhibit, giving the local hunters an opportunity to become fully acquainted with the various models before the "season" rolls around again.

COHEN NOT TO PLAY WITH BEAVER OUTFIT

PORTLAND, Ore., April 25.—(AP)—Al Cohen, left-handed hurler recently purchased from Brooklyn by the Portland Beavers, telegraphed President E. J. Schetter of the Coast league club that he was retiring from baseball.

Cohen was the fourth player listed by the Portland club to withdraw this season.

WEATHER CONTINUES FAVORABLE TO FRUIT

Weather conditions continue ideal for the pear crop, with the sunshines of last week aiding in the pollination and no frost to date requiring smudging. This is unusual, according to Frost Observer Rogers. The frost season generally extends into mid-May.

The pears have started falling and the pears are now in the most delicate stage of development for frost injury, Observer Rogers states.

DI MAGGIO SIGNS; STARTS PRACTICE

NEW YORK, April 25.—(AP)—Joe DiMaggio signed his $25,000 contract with the New York Yankees this morning, with the baseball season just one week old, but his pay will not begin until he has satisfied Manager Joe McCarthy he is in condition to play.

The slugging outfielder and major league home run king stands to lose at least $1,300, for being A.W.O.L. for eight days, including today, and may be "doctored" a total of $2,000 before he re-enters the lineup.

At his own suggestion DiMaggio did not accompany the Yankees to Philadelphia today but arranged, instead, to work out at the Yankee stadium.

PRUITTS SET RECORD FOR G. PASS ALLEYS

Two Grants Pass bowling alley records were shattered Sunday evening as Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pruitt of Medford, teaming together in a mixed doubles match against a Cincinnati City pair, turned in a total series score of 1257, a new high mark. In addition, the Medford duo rolled a 467 game to crack the single game record for mixed doubles, set by Mr. and Mrs. Pruitt's scores follow:

Roy Pruitt — 302 325 234—861
Mrs. Pruitt — 178 190 293—596
