Wall St. Report

NEW YORK, April 25.—(AP)—Speculative forces generally left the stock market to its own devices today and, in one of the slowest sessions of the past several years, leaders yielded fractions to a point with a few issues down 3 or 4.

A little buying support made its appearance occasionally and extreme losses were reduced or cancelled here and there at the close. There was no pickup in volume, however, and transfers approximated 400,000 shares.

The president's message to congress urging "prompt" action to remove tax exemptions from government, state and local salaries and future issues of federal, state and municipal securities resulted in scant repercussions marketwise.

CRATER LAKE NOTES START OF SUMMER TRAVEL IN OREGON

Diversity of car registrations at Crater Lake national park yesterday indicated that summer travel is beginning to flow through Oregon, headquarters said today.

One hundred fourteen cars carrying 411 persons were registered at the mountain resort yesterday. The cars came from Hawaii, California, Idaho, Illinois, Mississippi, Pennsylvania, Washington and Oregon, ranger tabulations showed.

Of the visitors 262 went to the park to see the sights, 93 for winter sports and 56 to use a shortcut in getting to their ultimate destinations rangers' reports showed.

Snow cover at park headquarters has settled to 140 inches and at Annie Spring to 122 inches, rangers said in their radio broadcast today. All park roads are in good condition and tire chains are no longer needed, they stated.

ATTORNEY MOORE TO RESIDE HERE

C. A. Moore, a retired attorney and for several years a resident of Los Angeles, has bought the residence of R. W. Dean at 34 Rose avenue and with his sister, Mrs Kate Moss of Lakeview, will make Medford his permanent home.

Mr. Moore is well known in this locality. He was reared in Lakeview and first practiced law there. He moved from there to Portland where he built up a successful practice. Because of his wife's ill health he moved to Baker in eastern Oregon and after her death in 1919 he took up residence in Los Angeles. His wife was a sister of Gus Newbury, Medford attorney, the couple having been married in Jacksonville.

Mr. Moore's brother practiced law in Ashland for 20 years and was district attorney of Klamath and Lake counties. At the time of his death in 1928 he was president of the Ashland State bank. C. A. Moore spent a year in Ashland settling his brother's estate.

BEND PLAYS HOST TO TRAPSHOOTERS

BEND, April 25.—(AP)—Marksmen from Klamath, Portland, Medford, The Dalles, Monmouth, Salem and Trail practiced on Bend's new trap grounds Sunday in preparation for the state shoot June 10-12, and pointed to the high scores as proof of the quality of the course.

Klamath took major awards, E. N. Hardenbrook scoring 99 out of a possible 100 for the day's high, and J. H. Martin making a perfect score of 50 in the 21-yard shoot.

Portland won the team shoot, breaking 119 out of 125 targets. Klamath was second, Bend third and The Dalles fourth.

Don Fisher of Portland scored a perfect 24 in the doubles.

Al Riehl, Portland, cashiered yesterday's registered shoot.

Four traps in addition to the four now in use are being installed for the state meet.

SOCIAL SECURITY TAX ASSISTANCE OFFERED

Although the deputy collector's office in Medford federal building takes care of all U. S. internal revenue taxation matters, special emphasis will be placed during the next few weeks on social security taxes, it was stated today by Robert Ellison, deputy collector at Portland.

Mr. Ellison came here to substitute for Erle Gray who is recovering from an appendectomy. He pleaded for cooperation and asked that he be consulted on social security taxes without delay. Appointments at his office may be made by telephoning 550. Mr. Ellison requested that he be consulted in his office whenever possible to avert delay.

Park Bear Hungry After Hibernation Tries Cabin Raid

First Crater Lake national park bear raid of the year was attempted early yesterday morning at the Annie Spring cabin of Ranger W. T. Frost, headquarters here stated today.

The big bruin, out of winter hibernation, was trying to break into the cooler of the Frost household when it aroused the ranger. Mr. Frost chased the bear. It was the first bear reported in the park since the premature emergence of one a few weeks ago.

Craterian's Stage and Screen Program Delights Audience

A round of applause welcomed the combined stage and screen program which opened a three-day run yesterday at the New Craterian. Johnny O'Brien easily proved why he is considered the world's greatest harmonica player with his pearsonal appearance on the stage of himself and his famed Harmonica Hi Hats. O'Brien and his gang imitated everything from a railroad train to a humming bird in their stage show last night and lovely Lora Lee won much applause with her two solo numbers.

And last but not least was the feature attraction on the screen, "Merrily We Live," which proved to be three times as funny as the sensational "Topper" which hit the screen a few months ago.

Miss Bennett appears as the spoiled and spirited daughter of the Kilbourne household, as curious, eccentric and lovable a group of characters ever to lodge under one roof. Her bright and pointed delineation of a modern girl is both amusing and appealing. Dignity is cast to the four winds if the occasion demands and Miss Bennett enters into the mad capers demanded by the script with an infectious gayety.

Aherne's role is much broader in comedy values than any he has heretofore portrayed. He manages the shift from fun-making to romance with deft touches and whether hobo chauffeur or guest in impeccable evening attire, enacts the character with an intelligent restraint.

Much of the hilarity is furthered by the inclusion in the cast of Alan Mowbray and Patsy Kelly, butler and cook, respectively.

Other important members of the cast included Billie Burke, Clarence Kolb, Tom Brown and Bonita Granville.

Hilarious Rialto Comedy Scores Hit

If a thousand years from now, some enterprising archaeologist should wish to learn all about entertainment in the year 1938, complete in all its phases and furbelows, that historian should excavate "Manhattan Merry-Go-Round," the hilarious production which opened yesterday at the Rialto theatre.

Not only does this production offer the best in the way of talent from the screen and stage, but it also borrows the current geniuses of the ether waves in order to give the public an eight-course entertainment meal.

Phil Regan, Ann Dvorak, Tamara Geva, Leo Carrillo, Henry Armetta, Jimmy Gleason, Gene Autry, Cab Calloway, Ted Lewis and a host of others contribute zestfully to the production. Regan and Dvorak score heavily as the young couple in love, but separated by the demand of Gordoni, a gangster, Leo Carrillo, that Regan make love to a temperamental opera singer so as to secure her signature on a recording contract.

"Ellis Island" plays as the added feature at the Rialto through Tuesday.

Father And Son Held As Rustlers

ALBANY, April 25.—(AP)—Howard Wells, of Prosser, Wash., and his son Lester, were held in the Linn county jail Saturday accused in three complaints of cattle theft with bail set at $6000 each.

Sheriff Herbert Shelton said the arrests, made by Deputy Mike Southward at an auto camp between Albany and Salem, followed a month of investigation.

The sheriff said the younger man had told of taking 28 cattle from farms in the two counties since January 1 and selling them in sales stables or to Portland dealers.

TULSA, Okla., April 25.—(AP)—Mrs. Rosa Mognette Hoots, 70, Osage Indian woman who won fame and fortune when her horse, Black Gold, won the Kentucky Derby in 1924, died at her home here yesterday.

From Drug Clerk to Proprietor!

Thriftiness Was Responsible for Early Success

A True Story: As a drug clerk he began saving regularly. One day a jobber salesman told him of an opportunity to go into the drug business in a nearby town. He had saved only a small amount and thought it impossible for him to purchase the store. But the salesman investigated his record—liked his attitude of thrifty saving—and arranged for his company to help with the financing. Be prepared when opportunity comes your way. Save here today for future happiness—at a profit, too!
