POLITICAL COMEDY SEEN IN TAX BILL FIGHT ALL-AROUND FACE-SAVING MARKED COMPROMISE EXPERTS IGNORED IN COMPROMISE DRAFTING TREASURY OFFICIALS MOURN SACRIFICES MADE

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The two men who really made the compromise on the tax bill never entered the stuffy capitol chamber where the senate and house conferees did the official wrangling. They could not, for they were not members of congress. And their names were Franklin Delano Roosevelt and Bernard Mammes Baruch.

There can be no question that the president supervised the horse-trading of his side. Representative Robert L. Doughton, of North Carolina, the tough old chairman of the house ways and means committee, did the talking. But the words he spoke were the words of the president. On more than one occasion during the conferees, he openly telephoned to the White House to get his next cue straight.

The senate's chiefman, Pat Harrison, of Mississippi, did not actually telephone Mr. Baruch when in doubt. Indeed, he may never have received direct advice from his great and good friend, although cynics will wonder whether even Mr. Baruch had will power enough to keep his fingers out of such an exciting pie. But the course followed by Senator Harrison was a course laid out by Mr. Baruch.

The president and Mr. Baruch have been conferees for a great many years, and very likely they will become cronies again. But the elder statesman and financial angel of the democracy parted company with his chiefman on tax revision. As has been pointed out here before, he and Senator Harrison and Senator James P. Byrnes, of South Carolina, carefully concerted the senate attack on the administration tax bill.

When the bill got to conference, the essential difference between the senate, or Baruch conferees, and the house, or presidential conferees, concerned the preservation of the "principle" of the undistributed profits.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(AP)—Senator La Follette (Prog.-W.) expressed belief in the senate today that the $1,156,546,000 naval expansion program originated with President Roosevelt and not the navy department.

Denouncing the program, La Follette told the senate: "I am convinced that in finding the final responsibility for promulgation of this program, we must look to the president of the United States."

The Wisconsin senator said naval officers had not asked for the expansion during frequent appearances before congressional committees in recent years. That, he asserted, was "conclusive proof" the program was not conceived by the navy department.

JOCKEY REINSTATED TO SADDLE WAR ADMIRAL NEW YORK, April 28.—(AP)—Jockey Charles Kurstinger was reinstated today and thus will be eligible to ride Samuel Riddle's War Admiral in the match race against Charles S. Howard's Seabiscuit at Belmont Park Decoration day.

12-YEAR TERM FOR EX-SECRETARY OF TEAMSTER'S UNION

A. N. Banks Given Severe Sentence in Connection With Destruction of West Salem Box Factory

DALLAS, Ore., April 28.—(AP)—Circuit Judge Arlie Walker sentenced A. N. Banks, former secretary of Local 324 of the AFL teamsters' union, to 12 years in the state penitentiary on an arson charge today.

Banks had pleaded guilty to an indictment involving the destruction by fire of the Salem box factory at West Salem, November 20, 1937. Damage to the plant was estimated at from $100,000 to $130,000.

Banks' sentence was the most severe to date of those imposed in connection with a campaign by Oregon officials against acts of alleged labor vandalism. The charges against Banks, a teamster, were for Marion Polk and Lynn counties, under Oregon law provided a minimum penalty of five years and a maximum of 15. District Attorney Bruce Spaulding told the court he believed a sentence of from 10 to 15 years of the kind of damage resulting from the West Salem fire. The court did not set a minimum.

Roy Hewitt of Salem, defense counsel, pointed out in court that the West Salem plant had not been picketed by the teamsters' union, and that no controversy existed between the union and the management.

Banks, asked if he had anything to say, replied in the negative. HILLSBORO, April 28.—(AP)—Two former AFL teamsters were sentenced to county jail terms and a third gained a delay in sentence in circuit court today.

Ernest Leland Kell and Orville Hart, who pleaded guilty to indictments accusing them of throwing rocks through the windows of restaurant at Beaverton, received nine-month terms. Ellis Burr Russell, who pleaded guilty to a similar charge, will be sentenced on May 7.

'FRISCO IN FUROR OVER VICE RAIDS SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—(UP)—All San Francisco law enforcement agencies and the federal bureau of investigation were involved today in vice raids, raids and trials from which the scandalous repercussions sounded. Civic and service organizations had a voice in the tumult demanding a cleanup and charging city departments with laxity in the course of duty.

In the middle of the furor, police raided 10 disorderly houses and jailed 20 women. Peter P. McDonough, whose ball bearing firm was termed the "fontainhead of corruption" in a recent police inquiry, announced he would furnish no more bail for prostitutes or those arrested in connection with vice cases.

Dolly Fine, alleged big shot underworld "madam," was under indictment on charges of permitting high school boys to frequent her resort.

MADISON, Wis., April 28.—(AP)—The Wisconsin C.I.O. asked Governor Philip F. LaFollette in a telegram today to declare support of the Roosevelt recovery program at his new party mass meeting tonight.

Supporting the governor's call to liberals for a political realignment, Gunnar Mikkelsen, state C.I.O. director, added: "I trust the efforts of reactionaries to use your good work as a wedge to split the progressive labor forces will be answered tonight once and for all. Our organization is standing solidly behind the Roosevelt recovery program and we look with confidence to your conference for similar support."

A. A. Berle, assistant secretary of state, was to arrive late today as personal representative of Mayor Fiorello La Guardia of New York. He was to be a guest of Governor La Follette.

MADISON, Wis., April 28.—(AP)—As the advance guard of mid-western liberals began to arrive for a mass meeting tonight, aides of Gov. Philip F. LaFollette took precautions today to prevent any disclosure of his plans for a political realignment before he addresses the meeting.

The governor remained secluded at his home, where manuscripts of his speech, generally expected to herald a national third party, were guarded carefully.

There was no announcement of early arrivals but the governor's office said Governor Elmer Benson of Minnesota and A. A. Berle, assistant secretary of state, would attend.

Aldeo to the governor, estimating an overflow crowd of possibly 10,000 in response to his radio plea for a depression-outlet public action, set up flood lights and erected a loud-speaking system on the grounds outside the meeting site.

Airgun Shot Hits Woman's Eyeball; May Cost Sight

KLAMATH FALLS, April 28.—(AP)—A four-year-old boy who said "Till about you," yesterday fired his air rifle at Mrs. A. Kalina, wife of the mayor of Malin, inflicting a severe eye wound.

Shot from the lad's gun struck Mrs. Kalina's glasses, breaking them and cutting one eyeball. A specialist here said the woman may regain the sight of the injured eye.

OLD ANIMAL HEAD FOUND AT MINE, ON DISPLAY HERE The skull and horns of what was believed to be a prehistoric animal of the bison species were placed on exhibition today in the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce.

The skull and horns, intact in one piece, were discovered yesterday during hydraulic operations at the Sterling mine in the Applegate section of Jackson county. The piece was found imbedded in a clay and sand stratum 35 feet beneath the ground on semibedrock 12 feet above the main bedrock.

Dr. Walter Redford, president of the Southern Oregon Normal school in Ashland, was notified of the find by the chamber of commerce this morning, and said he would telephone immediately to Oregon State college or the University of Oregon to have a paleontologist come here properly to identify the animal. Dr. Redford stated he himself came to Medford today to see the remains.

Amateur paleontologists here were of the opinion that the animal dates back several ages, in which case the find would be of immense scientific value. Until the remains are authoritatively identified, however, the age of the skeleton and the value of the discovery cannot be determined.

The horns, now crumbled and chipped off with age, measure 45 inches across. When unearthed the skeleton still contained a thin membrane that covered the brain cavity, but this crumbled to dust as the remains were removed from their ancient crypt.

The skeleton was uncovered yesterday morning while miners worked in the old Sterling creek channel of the Sterling mine. The men, realizing they might have uncovered something of immense value, stopped work and telephoned to the chamber of commerce here.

A. H. Banwell, chamber manager, immediately phoned E. R. Santo and William McClure of the Southern Oregon Gem and Mineral society. The two men hastened to the mine arrived there at 5 p. m., and immediately dug out the skeleton. Meanwhile, mining operations were suspended for the day so as not to disturb the skeleton.

PREMIER JOES INVESTIGATION OF DIONNE'S AFFAIRS

Request of Father Held Unwarranted—Dr. Dafoe to Remain Supreme in Caring for Quints' Health

TORONTO, April 28.—(Canadian Press)—Ontario's premier, Mitchell F. Hepburn, declared today that a judicial investigation of the affairs of the Dionne quintuplets was unwarranted and that none would be made.

Oliva Dionne, father of the five famous little girls, requested an inquiry last week. Dionne, Percy D. Wilson, official guardian of minors in Ontario, Dr. Allan Roy Dafoe and Joe J. Wallin are the quintuplets' guardians.

The father asked Attorney General Gordon Conant for an investigation of the general administration of his daughters' affairs, including handling of their fortune, now said to approximate $600,000.

Conant announced that the education of the little girls would be placed under the Bilingual (English-French) section of the department of education.

He said Dr. Dafoe's position as "supreme authority in all matters affecting the health of the quintuplets" would be maintained. An increase in the allowance paid the Dionne family from the quintuplets' funds from $100 to $300 a month was confirmed.

Conant's announcement was based on findings of an inquiry by Wilson. Wilson held out hope for ultimate reunion of the Dionne family and suggested that "the whole situation be surveyed from all points of view, including medical, educational and religious, with a view to reuniting of the family."

SHANGHAI, April 28.—(AP)—A Japanese army spokesman said today the south Szechuan army had fought to within ten miles of the Lunghai railway.

The penetration was at points between the grand canal and Pihsten and south of Tancheng, he said. Earlier, Japanese had claimed a "wide hole" blasted in the Japanese lines in that sector, some 50 miles east of Suichow, and that they were within range of the east-west railway upon which Chinese depend for transportation to their 500-mile-long Yellow river defenses.

Asks to Be Shot

CIO INVADES AFL IN EFFORT TO ORGANIZE CANNERY EMPLOYEES SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—(UP)—The committee for industrial organization officially opened its drive to reorganize California's 60,000 cannery workers today by going into American Federation of Labor ranks for members.

Members of the launching of its campaign to occur while the national labor relations board is holding inquiries into charges that cannery companies aided the A. F. of L. in forming unions of cannery workers, the C. I. O. mailed invitations to all union cannery employees to become members of new locals.

Labor observers looked on the drive as preening a major jurisdictional fight. Cannery itself is the second largest industry in the state, and thousands of growers depend on the successful operation of the canneries for an annual livelihood. Labor trouble at harvest time would bring ruin to many fruit and vegetable growers.

ARCHBISHOP URGES WAR ON INDECENCY BOSTON, April 28.—(UP)—William Cardinal O'Connell, archbishop of Boston, today urged Catholic women to war on indecent dress, plays, movies, books and magazines.

"Now the world is being flooded with what can only be called trash, filth in every form," he told the second diocesan congress of Catholic women.

"There must be abnormal brains that conceive all this stuff. They must be insane, diabolical. We find it on the stage and in picture books. "Don't go near the movies, the pictures," he said. "You must do without them if you want to save your soul. Children growing up think they must go to the movies and let them go. They don't know where they go. What kind of motherhood is that?"

Chairman O'Connor (D., N. Y.) of the rules committee, told newsmen no decision would be made until tomorrow on Mrs. Norton's request that the bill be given preferential status on the house calendar. He indicated members opposed to the legislation would be heard tomorrow.

COUNT OF COOGAN COIN SHOWS ONLY $545,924 REMAINING IN COFFERS

LOS ANGELES, April 28.—(AP)—Jackie Coogan dropped out of the millionaire class today.

Of the $4,000,000 "the kid" claims to have earned as a film star, only $545,924 now remains. And $171.96 of that represents sums advanced for his clothing and expenses by the Jackie Coogan Productions, Inc.

It was a blow to 23-year old Jackie—this deflationary inventory filed by a court-appointed receiver in his multi-million dollar accounting suit against his mother and stepfather, Lillian and Arthur L. Bernstein.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—(AP)—Harmone Wets Waley, now in Alcatraz prison for his part in the 1935 George Weyerhaeuser kidnaping case at Tacoma, Wash., sought freedom under a writ of habeas corpus today.

Waley was sentenced by federal court in Tacoma in June, 1935, after he and his wife had been arrested at Salt Lake City.

Waley challenged the federal court's jurisdiction over the case. He said he had served the full two years on one of the two counts of which he was convicted, and that his other 45-year sentence should be set aside. The two sentences were to run concurrently.

Henry Ford Is Optimistic After White House Visit

NEW YORK, April 28.—(AP)—Henry Ford, fresh from his White House conference with President Roosevelt, told interviewers today the president "is trying to do the best he can like everybody else."

The remark was prompted when someone commented that Ford had never appeared to be in such a genial mood. Was it because he came away from the White House with new optimism?

"Well, you never heard me say anything about the president, did you?" the automobile manufacturer smiled. "What's the use? He's trying to do the best he can like everybody else."
