

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Manager Here—Everett Moore, manager of the fish hatchery at Butte Falls, was a Medford caller yesterday.

From Trail—Sid Brown of Trail transacted business in this city yesterday.

From Seattle—H. W. Cooper of Seattle has been transacting business here for the past several days.

Here on Business—A. Woodrich, proprietor of the Ladino cheese factory of Eagle Point, transacted business in Medford yesterday.

Family Visits—Wallace Dutton and family of Grants Pass were guests Thursday of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gilmore at the Elliott farm.

Shows Again—Hector B. Cady of 429 North Holly street, who has a large and valuable collection of agates and minerals, was in the Mail Tribune office today showing a beautiful, polished agate.

Return Home—Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Arthur left today for their home in Crescent City, Cal., after having visited Mr. and Mrs. Jack Simpson of 316 Howard street since Wednesday. Mrs. Arthur is Mrs. Simpson's sister.

Skier Through—Hannes Schroll, famed Austrian skier, was a passenger on the 1:11 p. m. northbound United Mainliner this afternoon. He was en route via Seattle to Mt. Rainier to compete in the Silver ski tournament Sunday.

Gives Talk—Paul Brinson, Butte Falls district ranger, gave an illustrated talk on fire prevention and Rogue River national forest recreational facilities before a group of Boy Scouts in the Medford junior high school last night.

Meeting Monday—Rogue River Valley Navy Mothers club will hold a regular business meeting at 2 p. m. Monday in the home of Mrs. Cora Lee of Central Point. Members are asked to assemble at 1:30 at the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce for transportation.

From Portland—Mrs. William Morgan of Portland arrived on this morning's train to be with her mother, Mrs. Nellie Roberts of 216 South Orange street, who has been confined in the Community hospital for the past several days. Mrs. Morgan plans to visit here for several weeks.

On Flight South—Charles and Homer Hillman and their families left Medford municipal airport this morning for San Francisco in their Waco cabin plane. They arrived last evening from Seattle, Wash. The Hillman brothers own the Hillman Investment company, Seattle.

To Conclude—Alfred Handley, patrol captain of the local DeMolay chapter, left by motorcar this afternoon to attend the annual state convolve of the organization in Eugene. The entire local patrol, consisting of 27 members, left here for Eugene yesterday.

Attends Meeting—Dr. Charles T. Sweeney, Medford physician, left today for Spokane, Wash., where he will be a guest at the annual meeting of the Spokane Surgical society Saturday at the Davenport hotel. Dr. Harry E. Mock, associate professor of surgery at Northwestern university, will be the guest speaker. He and Dr. Sweeney are friends of long standing and will renew their friendship at the session. Dr. Sweeney will return to Medford Sunday.

Minor Accidents—Bert F. Neff of Star route, box 26, and Ivan Barile of 81 Chestnut street drove cars involved in a slight mishap on North Central avenue between Fifth and Sixth streets Wednesday night, a city police report said today. Machines operated by Ernest W. Bears of 285 Beatty street and Charles B. Weaver of Ashland collided with slight damage on the Applegate road near Copper, Wednesday afternoon, according to a city police report today.

Youth Arrested—Charles M. Wykoff, 17, of Portsmouth, Ohio, was arrested by state police yesterday afternoon when he appeared at a local stage depot to claim a suitcase he allegedly stole from an automobile in Redding, Cal., last Monday. He asserted he had checked the suitcase through to Medford. He was held in city jail here overnight on a charge of possession of stolen property and this morning was transported to the California state line where California authorities took him into custody for the return to Redding. He told state police he was involved in the robbery with two other men who were now in jail in Redding, police said.

Mystery House Filmed—Mr. and Mrs. John Litster, owners of the House of Mystery on Sardine creek, transacted business here today. Paris Emory, universal cameraman in Portland, spent several hours last Sunday taking motion pictures of the House of Mystery for a release in the near future. Mr. Litster said. The weird tourist attraction has been bringing considerable publicity to southern Oregon of late. Recently a lengthy, illustrated article on the House of Mystery was published in the Sunday Oregonian magazine section and a short time later an Oregonian editorial cartoon was devoted to the place. New folders on the house are now being distributed widely by Mr. Litster.

"Singing Sweethearts" Coming

The singing sweethearts of the screen, Nelson Eddy and Jeanette MacDonald, have what many believe to be their finest picture, "The Girl of the Golden West," opening Sunday at the New Criterion theatre. Based on the famous play, "The Girl of the Golden West" tells the story of Mary, owner of a saloon and dance hall of a California mining town in 1850. She is loved by the sheriff (Walter Pidgeon), but she falls in love with Ramerex, a bandit (Eddy), believing him to be an army officer. When the sheriff captures the bandit in Mary's cabin, things are brought to a climax. Naturally, with its stars famous for their singing voices, the picture boasts of many outstanding tunes including "Shadows on the Moon," "The Wind in the Trees," "Soldiers of Fortune," "Senorita" and "Mariachi."

Regular enrollment at Louisiana State university jumped 1,300 during the 1936-37 session and 700 in the 1937-38 session. Regular enrollment for the 1938-39 biennium was 11,324 and 15,433 for the 1936-38 biennium.

Hilarious Comedy Coming Sunday

One of the funniest comedies of the year brings Frank Morgan and a hilarious cast of fun-stars to the Rialto theatre Sunday for "Paradise for Three." As an eccentric and fun-loving capitalist Morgan wins a slogan contest and a prize of a trip to the Swiss Alps. He goes incognito with his butler in the role of the millionaire. But with the intervention of his family and their pets, his fun is ruined to a point that gives the film one spontaneous laugh after another. Robert Young, Mary Astor, Edna May Oliver, Florence Rice, Reginald Owen, Herman Bing and Warren Hull have leading roles with Morgan. "He Loved An Actress," starring Lupe Velez and Wallace Ford, will play as the companion feature with the all-star laugh vehicle.
