

HOODED GRAPPLER TO FEATURE CARD

The first masked grappler to appear in Medford since the Black Dragon raised havoc with opponents last year will be featured on next Monday night's program in the Armory. He is named the Black Secret, and for his initial showing here Promoter Mack Lillard has spotted him against Cowboy Dude Chick, world junior heavyweight titleholder. Reports on the ability of the hooded grunt and growler indicate he is not so villainous and brutal as the general run of wrestlers who keep their identity a secret behind head-coverings. Lillard said the new masked hero-wrestler was a marvel at scientific mat work, and only turned on the dirt business when forced to protect himself. Sgt. Bob Kenaston and Bulldog Ken Hollis will trade unorthodox tactics in the middle event, and Bobby Chick and Fritz Hansen will open the card.

Roxy Thriller

Bob Steele and Louie Stanley head the cast of "Tupder in the Desert," an out-door action drama of the old West, coming to the Roxy theatre for tomorrow only. Episode 13 of "The Mysterious Pilot" serial is also on the same bill.

Rehearsal—Jackson County Teachers chorus will rehearse at 10 a. m. tomorrow in the courthouse auditorium. Both choruses will rehearse together in preparation for the Junior Symphony orchestra concert in the Medford senior high school auditorium Tuesday night. Esther Church Leake, director, will be in charge of the rehearsal.

LOCALS

Back from North—Stephen Moore today was back at his duties as lumberman of the Rogue River national forest. He returned yesterday by train from Seattle, Wash., whither he went to have a general health check-up at the U. S. Marine hospital.

Flying North—Capt. Harry Ashie, chief pilot for Max Fleischmann, yeast and gin magnate, and Dan Withers, co-pilot, arrived at Medford municipal airport late yesterday afternoon from San Francisco, en route to Seattle, Wash. They were flying Mr. Fleischmann's sumptuously appointed Lockheed Electra plane. They continued northward after the plane had been serviced.

CONTINUE SEARCH FOR GAS STATION HOLDUP

With no definite clues on which to work, county, state and city police are continuing the search for the lone bandit who early Wednesday morning held up the Midway service station on the Butte Falls highway and escaped with $39.25 in the cash register and six gallons of gasoline. Fred J. Terry, owner of the station, has furnished authorities with a good description of the lone gunman, and all highways are being closely guarded. It is believed the bandit may possibly be still in the neighborhood and the territory is being thoroughly searched. The holdup man drove a green Dodge sedan with Oregon license plates, Terry told police.
