

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

From Prospect—Tracy Boothby of Prospect called in Medford today.

From Ashland—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Butler of Ashland were Medford visitors this morning.

Medford Callers—Worth Smith, author, and Mrs. Smith of Rogue River were Medford callers today.

Back From South—Mrs. Anna G. Bengtson of 203 North Peach street returned by train this morning from Petaluma, Calif., where she spent ten days with a friend.

From Los Angeles—J. F. Andrews of Los Angeles is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Andrews on West Main street. The gentlemen are brothers.

Recital Tonight—Indications point to a large attendance at the harp recital to be given in the Lincoln school auditorium at 8 tonight by Otto Baggen of Fond du Lac, Wis. Mr. Baggen will be assisted by his son and daughter on the vibrato and the marimba.

Rehearsal Tonight—Combined Jackson County Teachers chorus will hold a rehearsal at 7:30 tonight in the Medford senior high school auditorium. It will be the final rehearsal before the appearance of the chorus with the Medford Junior Symphony orchestra in its concert in the high school auditorium tomorrow night. The rehearsal will be in charge of Esther Church Leake, director.

Attend Conference—Ray E. Wright, Walter Nittel and G. A. Barr attended the annual spring conference of Oregon agents of the New York Life Insurance company in Portland Saturday.

Heater Condemned—An oil burner at the Colyear Motor Sales company, 103 South Riverside avenue, was condemned by Chief Roy Elliott following a fire at 8:25 this morning. The heater did not feed the fuel properly and caused a couple of fires in the past, Chief Elliott said. The fuel, he explained, backed up the feed pipes and ignited, creating smoke and odor. No damage was done by this morning's fire, the chief reported. The fire department's chemical crew answered the alarm.

At Convention—Mayor C. C. Purman, Fred W. Scheffel, city superintendent, and Frank P. Parrell, city attorney, were today attending the annual convention of the League of Oregon Cities in The Dalles. The convention was to extend through tomorrow. The mayor and Mr. Scheffel, accompanied by Mrs. Purman, left here Saturday, going first to Portland. At Portland they were to continue to The Dalles by river boat, the vessel being scheduled to be the first to go through the Bonneville dam locks. Accompanied by Mrs. Parrell, Attorney Parrell left here for The Dalles yesterday.

Anti-Fire Aid—Karl L. Janouch, supervisor of the Rogue River national forest, H. C. Obay, assistant supervisor, Stimer Javri, assistant forester, left this morning for Klamath Falls to assist the American Legion in conducting "Stop Forest Fire Week." A forest service truck with equipment was sent over from here for display purposes. Observance of the week, set aside each year by the American Legion's Klamath Falls post, was to begin today with a parade led by the fire chief, Sgt. J. J. Sargent. During the week John Sargent, ranger of the Lake O. Woods district, and Owen Ayleott, assistant ranger, will give illustrated talks on forest fire prevention at Klamath Falls schools and clubs during the week. The forest service show boat from Portland also will assist the Legionnaires.

Minor Accidents—Five auto accidents were reported to city police over the week-end as follows: Boyd Donald Hamilton of Ruch and Charles H. Schroeder of the Riverside apartment drive cars involved in a wreck on North Riverside avenue early Sunday morning. Main street and Riverside avenue intersection was the scene of an accident between machines operated by Walter I. Gould of Milwaukee, Wis., and Raymond L. Martin of Medford Saturday night. Gus H. Samuels of Medford and M. Siemes of Trail drove cars involved in a mishap on North Central avenue between Fifth and Sixth streets Saturday evening. Automobiles operated by Clement M. Parker of 1813 North Riverside avenue and Nansen Day of Medford collided with slight damage on North Riverside avenue Saturday afternoon. Also on North Riverside avenue Saturday afternoon occurred a minor mishap involving cars driven by Peter Boerman of Grants Pass and Paul J. Quackenbush of 534 North Bartlett street.

NAZARENE CONFERENCE TO HEAR DR. JONES OF MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Tonight the North Pacific district assembly conference will get under way with an address by Dr. C. Warren Jones, general foreign missionary secretary, in the new local church of the Nazarenes. Dr. Jones will speak at 7:30. Tonight's session will be under auspices of the Women's Foreign Missionary society, the Rev. Mrs. E. E. Martin, president. Dr. Jones comes from Kansas City for the annual conference.

At the formal opening yesterday of the new church the main auditorium was not adequate to accommodate the three major services of the day, at which time the pastor, Rev. Fred M. Weatherford delivered the initial sermon in the new edifice at 9:45.

Rev. E. E. Martin, district superintendent, fittingly presented the new edifice to Medford and southern Oregon. Miss Lois Herman and Mrs. Beatrice Yoakim sang.

FROHREICH SELLS POULTRY CONCERN

Announcement was made today of the sale of the Medford Poultry and Egg company by Hugo Frohreich to H. C. Fredette and C. J. Geer of Central Point. The new owners look over the management this morning.

Mr. Fredette and Mr. Geer said patrons would receive the same efficient and courteous services they have received in the past. They said they solicit continuance of the business connections already established.

Mr. Frohreich expressed his thanks for the patronage accorded him in the past. He said he would move shortly to his ranch home in Grants Pass. The ranch is considered one of the finest poultry farms between Portland and San Francisco. It is stocked with more than 10,000 Holroyd White Leghorns and Mr. Frohreich said he would go extensively into the baby chick and egg production business.

CCC COMPLETES FEATURE MOVIE

A full-length feature movie, filmed under the direction of CCC enrollees and with enrollee actors, has been completed at Camp Peanut, Hayfork, Calif., and has been presented to Maj. George R. Owens, Medford district commander.

The film, which runs for 80 minutes and depicts CCC life, was directed by Al Ford, first sergeant of the company. When Major Owens visited Peanut last week, he was presented with the film by Capt. Russell C. Harpole, company commander, who requested the district commander to act as the "Bill Hayes" in reviewing the film. The picture will be shown in camps of the Medford district.

Eagle Point

EAGLE POINT, May 2.—(Spl.)—National Music week will be observed at Eagle Point high school Tuesday at 8 p. m. Pupils of Mrs. Lois Young will be presented at a musicale. Those taking part include Mary Harnish, Christine Carney, Marcia Greb, Helen Harnish and Dorothy Young. All caring to enjoy an hour of music are invited.

Mrs. New Stanton will go to Medford Tuesday to see a shipment of 200 two-week-old White Holland poulters from a Grants Pass hatchery. Mrs. Stanton recently delivered 710 bronze poulters from a setting of 840 eggs. The birds were delivered to George Putman of Eagle Point.

Claud Miles and mother, Mrs. Julia Doubleday, are having their recently purchased home pointed.

John Smith is doing some repair work on the front of the library building.

Work on the new Grange hall is progressing fairly satisfactorily despite continued unfavorable weather.

Funeral services for Mrs. Effie May Terrill, who died early Saturday morning, will be held in the First chapel at 2 p. m. tomorrow, the Rev. E. S. Bartlam, pastor of St. Mark's Episcopal church, officiating. Interment will be made in the Siskiyou Memorial park.

Funeral services for Charles G. Carlson, who died late Friday night, will be held in the Perry chapel at 3:30 p. m. tomorrow. Interment will take place in the Siskiyou Memorial park.

"Lotus" Coming With Circus

Lotus weighs four tons. She's the world's only performing hippopotamus. Along with 1,000 other furred and feathered jungle denizens, she'll be seen in Medford Wednesday, May 11th the date the Al G. Barnes and Sells Floto Combined Circus arrives. Hundreds of the world's foremost scenic stars, glambored pageantry, and cavalcades of clowns will be seen at both afternoon and evening performances.

WINTER'S RETURN CUTS ATTENDANCE AT OUTING SPOTS

Snow, hail and rain combined with low temperatures to give Medford another touch of winter this morning. The mercury dropped to a low of 36 and by early afternoon had climbed no higher than 49. Yesterday's maximum temperature was only 52. Forecast was for partly cloudy weather tonight and tomorrow, not much change in temperature.

Cold, rainy, dismal weather yesterday reduced attendance at southern Oregon recreational centers. The few who got up into the hills encountered snowfall.

At Crater Lake national park 388 persons in 105 cars were registered. Of the visitors 273 were sightseers. 42 were out for winter sports and 33 used the park as a short cut to their destinations.

Two and a half inches of snow fell in the park in the 24 hours ended at 8 a. m. today, rangers radioed. Weather this morning was cloudy. All park roads were open and tire chains were not needed, the broadcast said. Snow depth at park headquarters had settled to 129 inches.

Party members of the Southern Oregon Gem and Mineral society attended the turkey dinner held at the McCue bridge campground of the Rogue River national forest.

A few fishermen reported good catches in Beaver creek. Several parties spent the week-end at Fish lake, some travelling the last five miles by ski and some by foot. It was cold on the lake, forest officers reported. The lake, they said, has thawed only at the ends. Snow was general in the hills and mountains, an inch falling at the South Fork CCC camp.

Lake Creek

LAKE CREEK, Bay 2.—(Spl.)—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Jones, who have spent the winter at Dead Indian soda springs, have moved to near Butte Falls.

Kermit De Haas and family moved last week from the Ragdale place to his own place near Lake Flats.

Wallace Ragdale has moved into his place, just vacated by Kermit De Haas.

Mark Edith and Lyle Hoeft who play with the Eagle Point high school orchestra, went to Ashland Friday, to the music festival.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Pech and family spent Thursday with the A. L. Pech family.

Quite a number of friends and neighbors of the Charley Terrill family, attended the funeral of Mr. Terrill, at Medford, Thursday.

Mrs. Roy Orisom and Charlotte spent Thursday at the Ragdale home.

William, Mark and Lyle Hoeft and Johnny Walsh spent Wednesday fishing at Fish lake.

W. R. Crawford who recently moved onto the Miller place has moved back to his home near Medford.

Jeanette MacDonald And Nelson Eddy In Craterian Romance

Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy have reached their topmost heights as the screen's queen and king of song in "The Girl of the Golden West" which opened yesterday in the New Craterian theatre.

An excellent blending of charming music and the romance of California in her early, rildid gold camp and pastoral mission days, the new operetta is an inspiring picture recommended for theatregoers and music lovers of all ages. The picture is based on David Belasco's memorable stage play.

In the story, May, owner of a dance hall, is loved by the gambling sheriff, Jack Rance. On her way to Monterey her stage coach is held up by the romantic masked bandit, Ramerrez, with whom she later falls in love, believing him to be Lieutenant Dick Johnson. A former sweetheart betrays Ramerrez. He escapes, wounded, in a gun fight with the sheriff but is captured later in Mary's cabin.

After being caught cheating in a game of cards with Rance for the bandit's life, Mary agrees to marry the sheriff if he will liberate Ramerrez. On the day of the wedding Rance again finds the lovers together and the picture ends with a very ingenious climax.

Frank Morgan Stars In Rialto Hit With Brilliant Star Cast

One of the most amusing of this season's comedy dramas opened last night at the Rialto theatre in "The Girl of the Golden West." The novel plot is carried out to perfection by the excellent performances of Frank Morgan, Robert Young, Mary Astor, and May Oliver. Morgan portrays the rich capitalist who wins a contest and as a reward is sent to an Alpine resort for two weeks. To enjoy his vacation he masquerades as a poor man, making his valet, Owen, act as a man of wealth. Morgan's daughter, Miss Bloss, and his housekeeper, Miss Oliver, find out about his plan and inform the local hotel to play up to his whim, but to treat him well. They mistake him for another contest winner. Young, who is actually an unemployed man. From then on things begin to happen.
