SOFTBALL SEASON TENTATIVELY SET TO OPEN JUNE 10

Commercial League Will Be Limited to Eight Clubs — No Limit Placed On Service Club Entrants

Medford's softball campaign under the stars and stadium lights will open on or about June 10, it was decided at a meeting last night in the M. N. Hogan Brokerage company office, attended by managers and sponsors of 16 teams. Sam Jenkins conducted the meeting.

It was voted to limit the Commercial league to not more than eight clubs. This circuit will be composed of expert players, and produce a fast brand of ball. The Service loop, to consist of an undetermined number of teams, will be composed of players who desire recreation more than anything else.

The two leagues, which will both play their games on the stadium turf, were not definitely organized, but it was apparent that 16 teams were assured.

It was voted to conduct a twilight league, starting about the middle of May and ending the second week in June, to determine the clubs which will enter the Commercial wheel in the regular season. From this twilight league, which will be for players, managers and sponsors only, the eight best teams will be selected to battle it out during the regular campaign. It will be in the manner of a tryout league. E. H. Hedrick, explained, with managers getting a chance to look over their players, strengthening their clubs where needed, and preparing their entries for the pennant race.

It is announced that softball receipts last year amounted to $1812, of which $1200 was paid on the $2500 lighting system. It is the hope of the softball association and the school board that the remaining $1300 owed can be cleared this season.

Sponsors of teams this year will pay a $15 entrance fee, to be treated in case the lights are paid for and there is money remaining. As usual, all children under 14 will be admitted free to all games. Every team sponsor will receive two season tickets, and all bonafide players will receive one season ticket.

It was decided to leave one night open each week for Inter-city games with Ashland, Grants Pass and other teams.

Next meeting, to complete plans, will be held next Tuesday night in the Hogan office. Officials of the softball association will be elected.

LITTLE DADO STOPS MANN IN 4TH FRAME

LOS ANGELES, May 4.—(AP)—Little Dado, Manila flyweight, added Horace Mann to his list of victims last night, stopping the game San Jose, Calif., boxer in the fourth round of a scheduled 10-round bout.

Despite a constant barrage of leather, Mann kept on his feet, but the referee halted the fighting when Dado opened an old cut over his opponent's eye.

Dado scored 117, Mann 118 1/2.

DETROIT TIGER SCOUT PAYS MEDFORD VISIT

Justin Fitzgerald, baseball coach at Santa Clara university and scout for the Detroit Tigers, was in Medford yesterday en route to Corvallis, Eugene and other northwest cities, where he will look over promising baseball ivory. He planned to stop in Grants Pass and see Bud Perrilli and Ken Williams, old-time friends.

Fitzgerald said he was interested in Wimpy Quinn, University of Oregon third-baseman, and a Mount Angel college pitcher. Following a look at college games in Oregon, he will "make" the Western International league and return to Santa Clara by June 1, he said.

SAN DIEGO MANAGER UPHELD IN REDUCING BLEACHER SEAT COST

By the Associated Press. Pacific Coast league baseball fans today can thank blustering Bill Lane, president of the San Diego Cubs, for saving them the price of a hot dog in bleacher admission prices.

Greeted daily shortly after the start of the season by almost empty bleacher seats, Lane defied league President W. C. Tuttle and cut the prices from 50c to 40c. League directors at the start of the season had voted to boost the price to 50 cents.

Lane asked a telegraphic vote of the directors to back his action. He got a four-way tie and a $100 fine from the league president. Lane refused to pay the fine and said he would continue to charge 40 cents whether the directors liked it or not.

Yesterday Tuttle announced another telegraphic vote favored the reduction and it was ordered into effect at once.

The San Diego team then celebrated their boss' victory by trimming Oakland, 8 to 4.

The Hollywood stars staged a five-run seventh inning uprising to defeat the Portland Beavers, 8 to 4 and go into a tie with the Beavers for the league leadership.

Impressed by Pitcher Ken Douglas when he blanked the Portland Beavers, 7 to 0 last Sunday in the first game of a doubleheader, the Portland team obtained the hurler from Oakland on waivers.

Gene Lillard, who played every position but catcher for San Francisco last season before being sold to Los Angeles, pitched the Angels into a tie for third place with Sacramento last night. He limited the Sacramento team to four hits while teammate Rip Collins' home run with the bases loaded went a long way toward the Angels 6 to 0 victory.

The Seals, with Dominic DiMaggio leading the attack with a double and three singles in five times at bat, beat Seattle, 7 to 4.

WILD BILL BOYD WINS NOD OVER BIRKIE

SEATTLE, May 4.—(UP)—Wild Bill Boyd, Seattle, former U. S. navy heavyweight boxing champion, last night won the decision over Hans Birkie, Oakland, Cal., in a 10-round main event heavyweight bout at the Civic auditorium. Boyd weighed 191. Birkie scaled at 201.

BERKELEY, Calif., May 4.—(AP)—Sam Chapman, University of California baseball star, confirmed reports he had signed with the Philadelphia Athletics. He will join the American league team in about two weeks.

While he declined to discuss terms, Chapman was understood to have been given a bonus of $5000 to sign.

STATE HIGH JUMP ACE OUT WITH BROKEN LEG

CORVALLIS, May 4.—(AP)—Duane Ackerson, Oregon State College high-jump star, will be out of competition indefinitely with a broken ankle, Dr. W. S. Ball, aquid physician, said yesterday.

Ackerson broke his ankle last week in a dual meet with Linfield college and the University of Portland. Dr. Ball said X-rays showed Ackerson had been scheduled to perform against Washington at Seattle next week.

Billy Hulen says: Southern Oregon Baseball Curtain Goes Up Sunday

Beginning next Sunday, all fooling around for the six Southern Oregon league baseball clubs will abruptly cease. Starting the 15-game schedule for the pennant, topped by a last season, by Crescent City's colorful Merchants, the boys will forget all about exhibition clashes and pre-league warm ups, and open their bats.

From dope and data obtained as a result of a few practice games, and by baseball's "grapevine telegraph," it appears that Medford and Ashland will make things more than interesting for last year's champs that Grants Pass club, that Crescent City is still the team to beat, and that Glendale and Yreka, Cal., are "mystery" outfits.

Clus H. Phan of three league cities will witness the curtain-lifting, as Ashland's Lathians entertain the Medford Craters. Grants Pass plays host to Crescent City, and Yreka travels to Glendale. Appropriate opening day hallyho has been arranged for the three inaugural cities, with major chiefs of police, senators and other distinguished citizens participating.

About the only thing certain at this date is that Medford and Crescent City will be better competitors at the get-away than are the other clubs. The Craters have played three exhibition games, Crescent City two, Grants Pass one, and Ashland, Glendale and Yreka, none. After dropping a 4 to 10 decision to Bellingham of the Western International league, Medford rapped out a 5 to 1 loss to 1. Ashland managed to get three innings of baseball played with Hill two weeks ago before the game was called on account of rain, with the Lathians ahead, 4 to 3. Glendale and Yreka have neither one seen any regular action, and the strength of the two clubs is a deep, dark secret. Pitting in the probably come up with a pretty fair tub, and Glendale not so hot. The little California town has the reputation of turning out good ball teams and interest is reported high. As for Glendale, all home boys are to be used, it is understood.

In several street-corner sessions of local hot-stove leaguers, we have heard it remarked that this Crater team looks like the likeliest to take the field in 10 years. Well, that's taking in a lot of time and a few pretty good outfits, and maybe it would be better to get on with it.

However, there is no doubt but that Manager Wally Rickert has a club considerably stronger than the one last season. There is tremendous improvement behind the plate and at third base, where Cliff "Chief" McLean and Altha "Ager" respectively (both Lowell Brown on first base, not he) the fielder Bob Smith was, but he has a far better arm and will probably hit as well. Hooster Hoffard in right field is playing better ball than he did last season. Dick Sakralda in center is still the flashy fletcher and is hitting, to boot, and Russ Acheson in left is an improved fly-chaser. Dick Lewis at short, and Birkie at second, are continuing where they left off last year, which was the finest double play combination in the circuit.

As for pitching, Erickson of last year's staff is wheeling them over with more effectiveness this season; Pepper, although not yet in first class shape, is coming around, and Bill Hatke, the newcomer, has showed more stuff, to date, than any of last season's hurlers. Add Lowell Brown, the southpaw, as a relief hurler and possible starter later in the campaign, and it looks like the best mound array in the league.

SIX SCHOOLS TO VIE IN MEET HERE

Medford high school will play host Friday night at the stadium to nearly 100 athletes from six schools in the annual Jackson county class B high school track and field meet. This will be the first time the affair has been brought to Medford; in the past it has been staged under the auspices of Southern Oregon Normal school at Ashland.

Bob Wood, Jacksonville high athletic coach, is in charge of the meet, and he announced that Gold Hill, Prospect, Central Point, Eagle Point, Phoenix and Jacksonville would definitely enter teams. One or two last-minute entrants may also compete, he stated. Phoenix high won last year.

All athletes will compete in two classes, A and B, according to their age, weight and previous experience. The meet will start at 6:30 and probably last until 10:30, Wood said.

Wall St. Report

NEW YORK, May 4.—(AP)—The stock market seemed to get a touch of inflationary inspiration today from a spurt in gold shares and turned most of its earlier losses into gains before the finish.

Reports the French franc might be revalued further diverted speculation into the golds. Apparently traders assumed the metal would command a higher price, at least in France.

Other mining shares fell in line with golds and industrials generally rallied from a forenoon setback to show net gains of fractions to more than a point.

With trading more active on the late upwarp, transactions approximated 550,000 shares.

Junior Symphony Gains New Laurels in Concert

Marked improvement in performance, greater understanding of the object and aims of the organization, a larger and more truly appreciative audience, characterized the last concert of the season given by the Medford Junior Symphony orchestra, playing Tuesday evening at the high school auditorium.

A prime project of the Medford Zonta club, the president, Mrs. Margaret Fabrick, prefaced the concert with remarks explaining the part the orchestra was playing in the community. She stated that the project was one of the largest of any existing Zonta club, thanked the chairman of the committee, Mrs. Lois Young, and her assistants, Mrs. Ethelwyn Hoffmann and Mrs. Effie Herbert Kuris, also Director John R. Knight. Among other individuals and concerns which have been most helpful, Mrs. Fabrick mentioned Mr. Kurtz, the lumber companies, the county court, the senior high school, KMED, chamber of commerce, the local press and the Women of Rotary, all of whom rendered invaluable services in various manners.

Tuesday evening's program began with the reciting of the stirring lines, "I Am Music," by Mrs. Lois Young, closing with the memorable statement, "I am the instrument of God, I am Music."

The musical program which followed was enjoyable from more than one standpoint. The orchestra showed definite progress, the numbers, confined to three besides accompaniments, were decidedly more difficult and ambitious than any others previously given, and the performance was distinctly better in every way.

Mrs. Kurtz was in excellent voice; Esther Church Leake, director, and the teachers' mixed chorus, again prove assets to the orchestra's musical life, and the harp solos by Esther Palmer Day were pleasant musical diversions, the harp being heard all too seldom as a solo instrument.

Medford should be more than proud of this organization of faithful young musicians, of the earnestness and usefulness of the director, John R. Knight, of the Zonta club which is making its existence and continuance possible, and feel a debt of gratitude to all others who are assisting. If the orchestra continues to improve as it has since its very brief season of rehearsals and concerts, we may look for a growing musical asset which will mean much indeed to southern Oregon.

Major Charles Spencer Hart of New York City, grand exalted ruler of the Elks lodge, will be entertained by the Medford lodge at a luncheon Saturday noon. It was announced today by Ernest L. Scott, secretary.

Major Hart will arrive at municipal airport at 11 a. m. Saturday by United Airliner, and will be taken on a short tour of the valley. After showing points of scenic interest, luncheon will be held in the temple, and he will leave the city shortly before 2 p. m. for Klamath Falls, where Saturday night a huge rally of all southern Oregon and northern California lodges will be staged.

According to tentative plans, the grand exalted ruler will return to Medford Sunday morning to try his luck fishing in the Rogue river.

The Klamath Falls armory will be the scene of the meeting and banquet for Major Hart, and the official reception will be held in the temple. The Medford Elks band will take part in the program, and nearly 100 local members are expected to attend.
