

BAGANZ HARP CONCERT FAVORABLY RECEIVED

The harp concert sponsored by the St. Peter's Lutheran church in the Lincoln school auditorium Monday evening was well received by an enthusiastic audience of approximately 250 people.

The harpist, Otto Baganz, assisted by his children, Norma and Reuben, with vibra harp and marimba, gave new beauty and depth to familiar church hymns and classical selections. Such familiar compositions as Brahms' "Cradle Song," "Tareumerel," by Schumann, and "Wake, Awake, for Night Is Flying," were played by the trio with perfect synchronization. The tones of the harp were particularly clear and beautiful.
