Baiers Celebrate Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary

On Tuesday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Stocks on the Old Pacific highway, a delightful dinner party was held in celebration of the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Baier of Epworth, Iowa.

Decorations of yellow tulips and roses and lilies of the valley made a beautiful table setting. The honorees were presented with many gifts appropriate for the occasion.

Those present at the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stocks, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Albin of Alamosa, Colo., Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Taylor of this city and Mrs. Helen Casper of Medford. The above women are all daughters of the Baiers. Also present were the Baiers' four grandchildren, Ardo, Muriel and Kenneth Stocks and Marianna Casper. Other guests included: Mr. and Mrs. John Juergens of Fresno, Calif., Mrs. Florence McCraney, Mrs. Baier's sister of Iowa City, Iowa, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fry and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McDonough and Mrs. Penny Jordan and son Clarence, of this city.

Degree of Honor Enjoys Party

On Thursday evening a group of Degree of Honor young ladies entertained the members of their lodge in honor of Mother's day. A program was presented in which a skit entitled "Meet the Duke" occasioned much laughter. Other numbers consisting of vocal solos by Jack Parker and Naimo Hubler. Several appropriate readings by Lucille Sieler were very well received. A unique feature of the evening was the lunch. This was served to each guest in colorful red and white may baskets, each topped with a gay nosegay of spring flowers. Those in charge of the evening were Adebee Selter, Ester Hubler, Lucille Selter, Viola Dietrich and Cherokee Selter.

Gladys Denman Wed To Mr. Knips In Friday Rites

Miss Gladys Denman, daughter of Mrs. Lee Surles and Gilbert Knips, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Knips of this city, were united in marriage Friday evening at a 9 o'clock service read by the Rev. Joseph Knotts at his home.

The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Lee Franks.

Miss Denman was attractive in a dress of beige with luggage tan accessories and wore a corsage of tallman roses. Mrs. Franks wore a becoming dress of blue and a corsage of tallman roses.

The couple left immediately after the ceremony for a wedding trip to the coast and Portland.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Knips have resided in Medford for a number of years and are popular members of the younger set. Both are graduates of Medford high school where Mr. Knips was a prominent athlete.

They will return to make their home here at 807 Beatty street.

Prior to their wedding, Mrs. Knips was feted at many entertainments. Mrs. Harley Dresler honored her with a dinner party and later a shower was given for her by Mrs. Dresler, Mrs. Lee Franks, and Miss Fionnie Hollars. Mrs. A. L. Case was hostess at a dinner party, also honoring the bride.

DeMolay Group Sponsor Dance

Under the auspices of the patrol of the Medford chapter, Order of DeMolay, a dance will be held in the Masonic temple Saturday, May 21. This is the first of a series of chapter functions to be held in the near future.

According to Harold Hartzell, master counselor of the Medford chapter, and general chairman for the dance, a large crowd is expected to attend.

The local patrol just returned from the state convocation held in Eugene the 29th and 30th of April, Medford conducted a drill of the streets of that city and was heartily received by the citizens. Alford Baillie, majority member of the local DeMolay, is the patrol captain. There are 27 members in the organization.

Sebastian Apollo Students Please Large Audience

A capacity audience, filling the Baldwin recital hall, so that many were forced to stand, enthusiastically praised the piano students who were presented in recital by Sebastian Apollo Thursday evening.

Particularly noted and appreciated by music lovers in the audience was the technique and fine points of piano study which were felt to be very well demonstrated. The outstanding progress made by students, during the months since his last recital, particularly in the advanced class, was the subject of much comment from listeners.

A special feature of the program was the presentation of Mrs. Rollin A. Cantrell, (lyric coloratura soprano) of Klamath Falls, who assisted Mr. Apollo.

Mrs. Cantrell possesses a beautiful and well trained voice, which highly pleased her listeners. She is a pupil of Mrs. A. J. Vove of Klamath Falls. Her numbers were beautifully rendered and her pleasing personality captivated the audience. She was accompanied at the piano by Miss Marie Obenchain, who is an accomplished pianist, also of Klamath Falls. Students presented on the program were: Bobby Hearn, Ada Nakagiri, Bonnie Galbreath, Alan Riebel, Johnny Voorhis, Mildred Gardner, Natalie Wilcox, Nell Pollock, Beverly Brooks, Phoebe Swell, Wanda Reed, Zoe Carpenter, Nell Carpenter, Gloria Wunsch, Marguerite Spappington, Mrs. Gladys Ingham.

Lois C. Young Entertains Club

The Wednesday Study club had a most interesting program on May 4 at the Girls Community club in honor of National Music Week. Mrs. Lois Young read the poem "I am Music" and her daughter Helen played the piano numbers, which were much enjoyed.—(a) Polish Dance by Scharwenka (b) Dance of the Dwarfs, by Greg.

Mrs. J. H. Cochran gave current events, followed by a review of a most interesting book, "The Peoples Want Peace" by Tolstokre, given by Mrs. B. G. Harding. Mrs. L. E. Williams closed the program with a review of the book "Armana" by Bertha Shambaugh.

The club will hold its final meeting and election of officers on Wednesday, May 18.

Past Matrons Enjoy Party

Past Matrons club of Reames chapter were entertained recently at the home of Mrs. Charles T. Sweeney on Midway highway.

Mrs. W. H. McGowan and Miss Alice Hanley were assistant hostesses for the delightful affair which 21 members enjoyed. A guest at the party was Dr. Sweeney's sister, Mrs. Grace Wilkinson of San Francisco, who has been visiting in the city for some time. Mrs. Wilkinson was presented with a lovely guest gift.

Mrs. J. A. Perry and Mrs. William Blaup won bridge prizes. An invitation was extended to Past Matrons club of Klamath Falls and Grants Pass for luncheon in the Masonic Temple on May 19.

Manns Go North For Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Mann left here Thursday for Eugene where they will be the guest of their daughter, Miss Jane E. Mann, for Mother's day festivities at her sorority, Gamma Phi Beta. The Mann's other daughter, Margaret Mary, a student at Oregon State college in Corvallis, will join her parents and sister for the week-end in Eugene. On Monday the Manns will proceed to Portland for several days and will attend the popular showing of "Victoria Regina" starring Helen Hayes. They will be joined in Portland by Miss Betty Vilim, who also is in Portland for the stage play, and the group will return to their homes here together on Wednesday.

Mrs. Newbury Hostess For Bridge Party

Mrs. Don Newbury entertained Saturday afternoon with a delightful luncheon honoring her mother, Mrs. W. A. Delzell of Portland, and her aunt, Mrs. A. J. Maddox, a visitor in Medford from Klamath Falls. Luncheon at the Hotel Medford was followed by four tables of bridge at Mrs. Newbury's home on Siskiyou heights.

Spring flowers and decorations of a Mother's day motif was carried out. Twenty guests enjoyed the affair. Mrs. Delzell has been a house guest at the Newbury home for the past week, she will be here for several weeks more.

Mrs. Pennington Presents Lions Charter to G. Pass

Eight members of the Lions club auxiliary of Grants Pass were honored guests at the regular meeting of the Medford lady Lions held last week at the home of Mrs. Laurence Pennington on the Jacksonville highway.

During the luncheon guests were entertained with a piano solo by Miss B. Taylor, a violin solo by Alice Brill accompanied by Fred Williams, and several songs by Mrs. Isabel Byrne, who was accompanied by Mrs. Clyde Williamson. Following a brief business session, bridge was played, with Mrs. Edith Beck winning first prize and Mrs. C. E. Wingert, of Grants Pass, winning second. Hostesses for the enjoyable affair were: Mrs. Pennington, Mrs. Art Adler, Mrs. Vivian Anstey, Mrs. Farrell Haws and Charles Pritchett.

Mrs. Pennington, state president of the auxiliary, presented the Grants Pass president, Mrs. Oscar Shepherd with a charter for their chapter.

Grants Pass guests at the luncheon included the following: Mrs. Oscar Shepherd, Mrs. Charles Grove, Mrs. J. D. Hale, Mrs. G. A. Nunn, Mrs. A. E. Thornburg, Mrs. C. E. Wingert, Mrs. Virgil Yonce and Mrs. M. R. Anderson.

Supper will be served at 6:30 p. m. Committee in charge is Dorothy Watkins, Floyd Watkins, Harriet Watson, Leah Ivy, Lucille Anseth.

Health Class Meets Monday Mrs. Viola Sweeney's health class will convene Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the Townsend hall. Guest speakers will be present. Anyone wishing additional information may call Mrs. Ida M. Wilson, phone 1964.

Birthday Party Pleasant Event

A birthday party was given Tuesday, May 3, by the Merritt Circle at the First Presbyterian church. Each guest was met at the door and taken to the table representing the month in which she was born. The room was beautifully decorated with lilacs at the windows and massed at one end forming a very pleasing background for those who took part in the program. The center table held a large birthday cake decorated in pink, with a row of candles on the lower tier. The twelve months were very appropriately indicated at the different tables, ranging from a snow-covered forested hill for January, to a shaded tent beside a lake with children romping in the sand, for August. Piping the most outstanding table was that of February, a replica of Lincoln's cabin and rail fence. These were made from trees on Lincoln's home place, and enclosed red soil also brought from there.

At the beginning of the program, like little flowers themselves, Barbara Williams, Yvonne and Jacqueline Madigan, sang "Happy Birthday To You," and then graciously distributed to each one present, a corsage to each one present. Mrs. Fred L. Strang sang "A Birthday," by Woodman, accompanied by Mrs. O. C. Felling. Two musical readings were given by Mrs. Lulu Saulsbury, accompanied by Mrs. Ruth Severance Hoffman. Mrs. Saulsbury then recited by request, "How Old Are You?" From the high school, Mary Louise McElhose, Josephine Bullis and Corinne Harwood sang a group of songs accompanied by Dorothy Hester, Mrs. Catherine Gribble Neely, accompanied by Mrs. Gribble, Neely, which three numbers, Mrs. Werner Jessen, accompanied by Mrs. Felling, sang "I Love Life" and "Dawn." The entire program, in charge of Miss Edna Ewert, was most enjoyable and greatly appreciated. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee were then served.

Olsons Here From Portland

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Olson of Portland arrived in Medford to spend the week-end with Mrs. Olson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Andrews at their home on Vancouver avenue.

From here the couple will proceed to Klamath Falls and eastern Oregon before returning to their home in Portland.

The Garden Club

At the Thursday evening meeting of the Medford Garden club Mrs. T. W. Miles and Mrs. Louis Bundy were elected delegates to the state conference to be held in Marshfield June 2-3. The regular meeting of the local club will be postponed one week because of this conference.

Plans for a "garden day" May 25 are being made by Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter, chairman, and everyone is asked to reserve the date and watch for further announcements. Only part of the new set of officers were elected at this meeting. The list will be completed and announced soon. An iris show will be held in the near future. Also the dedication of the magnolia tree on the court house grounds to the memory of Dr. Pickett who planted the tree. Mrs. L. G. Gentine won first prize for her flower arrangement and Mrs. E. E. Wilson second prize. The Medford Garden club has been invited to attend the Illinois valley wild flower show in Kerby the afternoon of Tuesday, May 24.

"Snow White Tea" Successful Event Thursday Afternoon

A delightful and novel benefit tea was given by the Medford Music club Thursday afternoon at the Presbyterian church. The Snow White motif was cleverly and completely carried out in setting design. Tea was served from a "Wishing Well" by Mrs. Carlton James, Mrs. William Andrews, and Mrs. Eunice Hills. Proceeds from this tea are to be used for prizes for Music week posters as designed by students of the Junior and Senior high schools. The program given was as follows:
