Full Gospel Church Retains Rev. Weston At the annual business meeting of the Full Gospel church, May 3, Rev. Leonard Weston was retained by a unanimous vote for his fourth year as pastor of the local assembly. Reports given by the various department heads showed that each succeeding year of Mr. Weston's ministry here has been marked with new records in attendance at Sunday school and church services. The financial condition of the church has maintained a healthy norm, and each year the church property has received major improvements without incurring any debt. Commenting on his re-election, Rev. Weston stated, "I sincerely appreciate the splendid cooperation from the people of this community that has made a pleasant and progressive ministry possible. Also I wish to thank in behalf of the church, the Mail Tribune, KEMED and the many business houses who have given valuable and courteous cooperation at all times. The outlook is bright, and as we retain God's blessing in our midst the coming year should be our best so far."
