Gary Cooper Coming As "Bluebeard"

It's always best to test out a bathtub before filling it with water. Gary Cooper, for example, in this scene from "Bluebeard's Eighth Wife," opening a three-day run Sunday at the New Craterian theater, finds his six feet four inches just a wee bit too much for a complete soaking. Perhaps Louis XVI knew the tub's ins and outs, but not Gary. It's one of the many hilarious sequences in this gay story of a modern Bluebeard and his eighth wife, who tamed him. Claudette Colbert is the tamer.

Joan Bennett At Rialto Sunday

Joan Bennett meets her love again in the person of handsome Henry Fonda, after being sidetracked by the unmistakable attractions of another man in "I Met My Love Again," which begins the two-co-stars to the Rialto theater for a three-day run starting Sunday. The story casts Miss Bennett as a headstrong maiden of the jazz and flapper era of 1927, and Fonda as the studious young New Englander to whom she is engaged. The romantic girl meets adventure in the person of Alan Marshall (the other man). Joan is swept off her feet until the new 1937 Fonda brings her back to earth.

"Hollywood Stadium Mystery," starring Nell Hamilton, Evelyn Venable and Smiley Burnette, is scheduled as the added feature.
