

STEWARDS FILE REPLY IN SUIT OF NEWBURY

An answer was filed in circuit court yesterday in the suit of Don R. Newbury and Marjorie Newbury against C. T. Steward, Adrienne Steward and D. R. Smith, contractor, for alleged damages sustained by the building of a retaining wall, on the Steward property which adjoins the Newbury property. The defendants deny any agreement was made relative to the building of the retaining wall, and that it is "artistic, and suitable for the purposes for which it was intended." Dismissal of the suit, with costs assessed to plaintiffs, is sought in the answer. The first flowing oil-well was drilled at Titusville, Pa., in 1889.

Martha Shurtleff Wed To Mr. Milne In Portland Rites

The marriage of Miss Martha Frances Shurtleff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Shurtleff, and Edwin E. Milne, son of Mrs. Alexander Milne of The Dalles, took place in the chapel of St. Stephen's Cathedral at 1 o'clock Monday, April 9, the Rev. Taylor of the Episcopal church of The Dalles officiating. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dressmaker suit of beige wool with rose and navy accessories, and a corsage of pink rosebuds and lilacs-of-the-valley. A wedding luncheon followed in the orchid room of the Heathman hotel for the immediate families and close friends. Following a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Milne will be at home at 806 West Main street, Medford. Mrs. Milne lived here with her parents for a number of years before moving to Portland. She is a graduate of Medford high school. Mr. Milne is associated with Safeway stores in this city.
