To Salem — Cal Edwards, claims manager of the unemployment compensation commission at the city hall here, left by train last evening for Salem where he will transact business for several days.

Tonsils Excised — Roy Howe of Route 4 underwent a tonsilectomy at the Osepathic hospital this morning. Mrs. A. J. Hanby of 435 North Holly street was admitted last night for medical care.

Minor Accident — Earl R. Feller of 1803 West Main street and R. C. Padgett of Portland drove machines involved in a minor accident at the intersection of Boyd street and the Pacific highway yesterday morning, a city police report said today.

Returns South — Lee Holdakowski left by plane late last night to return to Oakland where he is chief radio operator for the United Air Lines. He arrived here Tuesday afternoon to check radio operations at the Medford station.

Writes Article — W. A. Frazer of 305 Vancouver avenue was the author of a story on Senator A. E. Reames in the current issue of the Record monthly publication of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, national social fraternity. With the article is a picture of Mr. Reames.

Driver Tests — Examinations will be held here as usual Saturday for applicants seeking licenses or permits to drive cars or trucks. Ward McReynolds, state examiner in charge of the southern Oregon district, and his staff will be at city hall from 8 to 5. Both written examinations and road tests will be given. Persons wanting licenses or permits are asked to report to Mr. McReynolds in council chambers on the top floor of city hall.

To Attend Dinner — Directors and the membership in general of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce have been invited to attend a chicken dinner to be given by the Central Point Civic club in the Central Point Grange hall at 8:30 Thursday, May 26. Arrangements for attendance are being made by George Henselman, chairman of the chamber's inter-city visitation committee. Tickets for the dinner will be available at the chamber of commerce Monday, Mr. Henselman said.

Assistant Forester — K. P. McReynolds, assistant forester, and Thomas Watson, administrative assistant of the Umpqua national forest with headquarters in Roseburg, were visitors here yesterday. Mr. McReynolds said two Umpqua forest officers were making an inspection of the Diamond Lake highway to determine what could be done about clearing it of snow. Plowing will start as soon as possible, Mr. McReynolds stated, adding that it was thought the highway could be cleared by Decoration Day.

P.-T.A. Meeting — Parent-Teacher Association of the Jackson school will hold election of officers at a meeting scheduled for tomorrow afternoon. The meeting will be held at the school after graduating exercises by the 6-A grade at 2:18. Mrs. James Roy will install the officers elected. Mrs. A. E. Brockway, county legislative chairman, will explain the initiative petition for amendment of the state annual public school payment of $10 a child. The petition was initiated by the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers and the American Legion and auxiliary.

On Vacation — Dr. Hyman R. Osheroff, assistant district surgeon with the CCC headquarters here, left today on a month's vacation trip to Texas and Nebraska before reporting for duty at Vancouver Barracks. Dr. Osheroff was recently commissioned a first lieutenant in the regular army medical corps. Dr. and Mrs. Osheroff, with their daughter Sharon, will visit Mrs. Osheroff's parents in Wharton, Texas, and the doctor's parents in Omaha, Neb. Dr. Lawrence Buonocore, formerly camp surgeon at Bly, has reported here for duty as assistant district surgeon, replacing Dr. Osheroff. Dr. Buonocore is a first lieutenant in the medical reserve.

Heroes of the Alamo — Photoplay of the historic founding of the Lone Star State of Texas, will play as the added stock attraction. The picture features several of Texas' and Old Mexico's famous characters; among them Stephen Austin, Sam Houston, Davy Crockett, Gen. Santa Anna, Col. James Bowie and William B. Travis.

Meeting Tomorrow — Rogue River Valley Navy Mothers club will hold a regular semi-monthly meeting at 8 o'clock tomorrow night in the home of Mrs. Lola Ludwig, 511 Austin street. Plans for participating in Decoration Day exercises will be discussed. After the business session a social hour will be held. All mothers having sons in the United States navy are invited to the meeting whether or not they are members of the club.

No Forest Fire — What was reported to Rogue River national forest headquarters yesterday as a forest fire near Crystal turned out to be a controlled burning to clear 25 acres of private land within the forest boundary, it was reported today by Simeri Jarvi, assistant forester. After an ERA crew had been dispatched to fight the reported fire, Mr. Jarvi and Owen Aydelott went from here to investigate the blaze. They found everything in order, the planned fire being attended and completely under control, Mr. Jarvi said.

Bids Asked — The United States army today called for bids for the erection of two 60-foot poles at Medford municipal airport. The poles are to be placed 118 feet apart to carry antennas for the radio station being installed here by the army. Information regarding the work and blanks for the bids may be procured at the airport from Sgt. William Daves, in charge of the army air corps unit here. The bids must reach the Presidio in San Francisco in time to be opened at 10 a. m. Monday, Sgt. Daves said.

Menuhin's Sister Will Wed Brother Of His Betrothed

LONDON, May 19.—(AP)—A music-minded cupid has scored the best bull's-eye of many seasons in the mating of two sets of brothers and sisters—the artistic Menuhins and the wealthy Australian Nicholases. It was announced today that Hepzibah Menuhin, 17-year old sister and constant accompanist of the stolid and gifted violinist would wed the brother of Yehudi's betrothed. In the second brother-sister set are Lindsay and Nola, children of the aspirin millionaire, G. R. Nicholas of Melbourne, Australia. Making a clean sweep of the Menuhins, it was announced that Yelsh, 16 and Yehudi's second sister, was engaged to William Stix of St. Louis and Washington.

Psychology on New Track. PROVIDENCE, R. I.—(UP)—Personality quirks are being straightened out in a new psychology course, "Personal Problems," offered at Providence College's extension school. The course aims at adjustment of an individual's perspective toward daily problems.

"It takes a heap o'livin' in a house to make a Home"

... but it also takes RESPONSIBILITY

You can't let a home "go," without inviting discomfort and risking your investment. It takes repairing, redecorating—sometimes remodeling — to KEEP a house a home.

That's exactly what Property Improvement Loans are for... to help you make home repairs promptly and pay for them conveniently.

This is the FHA plan: You repay the loan in monthly payments which are spread over a convenient period of years to suit your income.
