College Romance Leads To Wedding Set For June 28

A betrothal of especial interest to Medford was announced last Saturday in Evanston, Ill., when it was disclosed that Miss Betty De Tom Deroun Throckmorton on June 28 will become the bride of Dr. Tom Deroun Throckmorton on June 28. Miss Cleland is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hance H. Cleland, formerly of Olympia, Wash. Mr. Cleland was recently elected president of the California Oregon Power company and is now residing here.

Miss Cleland revealed her wedding plans at a luncheon for a group of her Delta Delta Delta sorority sisters at her home in Evanston. The Cleland family had taken up temporary residence in Evanston while Mr. Cleland had been engaged in a business mission there. When Mr. Cleland came to Medford after his election as head of the power company, Mrs. Cleland remained in Evanston so that the children might complete their school year.

The wedding ceremony will take place in the Congregational chapel in Winnetka, Evanston suburb, with Dr. Hugh Elmer Brown officiating. After the ceremony the bride and groom will make their home in Philadelphia where Dr. Throckmorton has been an intern at University hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Cleland and their sons, John and Buddy, will then make their permanent residence in Medford.

The wedding is the culmination of a college romance. Dr. Throckmorton was graduated last June from Northwestern medical school, where he was affiliated with Phi Beta Kappa and Alpha Omega Alpha honorary medical fraternity. He spent his undergraduate days at Drake university where he was a member of Alpha Tau Omega, national social fraternity. He was awarded a Phi Beta Kappa key, premier scholarship honor.

Miss Cleland left Northwestern university this winter in the middle of her sophomore year to take up studies at the School of Domestic Arts and Sciences in Chicago. She was a member of Tri Delta at the university.

Miss Cleland has not yet completed the list of her attendants, but the bridal party will include two of her friends from Olympia, Wash., where the Clelands resided prior to taking up residence in Evanston two years ago. Miss Patricia Murray will be her maid of honor and Miss Janet O'Leary will serve as bridesmaid.

Dr. Throckmorton's ushers will include three of his Northwestern medical school classmates: Dr. George Mountains of Detroit, Dr. Arthur Lueck of Passavant hospital and Dr. James Wimer of Wesley hospital, Robert Throckmorton of Des Moines, Iowa, will be his brother's best man.

Mr. Cleland will leave here in mid-June to attend the wedding. After the Cleland family become Medford residents, it is anticipated that Mr. and Mrs. Cleland will be active members of Rogue valley society, their sons participating in social activities of the younger set.

They are far above the average—he has just received a promotion—she runs the home intelligently and smoothly—both take an active and leading part in community affairs. In short, they are typical members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft. They and their fellow Circle members have learned an important lesson, for behind the fellowship and sociability of their happy gatherings lies the security of protection through low-cost insurance on standard legal reserve contracts.

Neighbors of Woodcraft, established for more than forty years, welcome in membership forward-looking men and women of character.

Retired Officer of Navy Plans Long Inland Cruise

"Please don't say that this is a postman's holiday," Lieut. Com. O. S. Earle admonished after he had been persuaded to describe a 3,000-mile inland water cruise he and Mrs. Earle will make this summer.

"Every time a navy man makes a pleasure cruise, newspapers call it a postman's holiday, or a husband's holiday or a fireman's holiday," the lieutenant commander said. "This is going to be just a simple holiday."

Lieut. Com. Earle was promised that nothing would be said about a postman's holiday. So now let's start the story all over again.

Lieut. Com. Earle retired from the United States navy in 1935 after commanding the destroyer Montgomery in Hawaiian waters. He now owns and operates a wide grape vineyard in Napa Valley, Calif. He and Mrs. Earle are guests at the home of Lieut. and Mrs. H. A. Stanley on the Crater Lake highway. The two families are old friends.

While in Honolulu Commander Earle had a motor boat built for pleasure cruising. The boat was fitted for the utmost comfort and convenience of two persons. It is this boat in which Commander and Mrs. Earle will make their summer cruise of continental inland waters. The boat is named, so help Commander Earle, Humuhumunukunauapua, which, he averred, is Hawaiian for "little fish with a nose like a pig."

The boat has been shipped to New York City whence Commander and months illness. Mr. Scovell was born at Alton, Ill., February 11, 1880. He had been employed by the California Oregon Power company at Klamath Falls for 12 years and was well thought of by all who knew him.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. May Scovell, four daughters, Mrs. Fred Jenkinson, Hebo, Ore.; Mrs. Darrell Lytle, Hebo; Dorris and Natalie at home; also a son, William Scovell, Tule Lake, Cal.; one sister, Miss Hattie M. Scovell, Alton, Ill.; two brothers, Henry A. Scovell, Alton, Ill., and Hugh L. Scovell, Medford, Ore.

Funeral services will be held at the Perl funeral home Friday at 3:30 p. m., Rev. James Hamilton of the First Christian church officiating. Concluding services at Sixtyfour Memorial park.

From New York the mariners will travel up the Hudson, through the Erie canal to the Great Lakes. After idly cruising among the Thousand Islands in the St. Lawrence, they will travel through the Trent canal, later to go through the Lake Huron and Lake Erie waterway, from Lake Ontario.

The cruise will then continue in Lake Michigan to Chicago, down the Chicago drainage canal to the Illinois river and on to the Mississippi at Rock Island. The last leg of the summer journey will take the couple down the Mississippi to New Orleans where they expect to arrive before winter sets in. The cruise may be extended in the spring, Commander Earle said.
