

SOCIETY AND CLUB NEWS OF THE WEEK

By CLARA MARY DAVIS

Garden Inspection Is Premier Event On Social Agenda

The leading event on this week's social calendar will be the tour of valley gardens on Wednesday. This is an annual affair of the Medford Garden club and this year, more than ever before, it is being anticipated as a most interesting and pleasant event.

Mrs. Alfred Carpenter is general chairman of the tour. Each garden open for visit and inspection has been specially named and at each home an assistant hostess will be present. Red pennants will indicate the nearest approach to the various gardens and a reception committee will be present at the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce from 9 to 10 o'clock in the morning and from 1 to 2 o'clock in the afternoon to direct callers to the different places.

An outstanding feature of Garden Day will be the tea at the home of Mrs. George Roberts on Crown Hill from 4 to 5 o'clock. This affair will bring to a close the day's activities.

Wednesday morning from 9 to 1 o'clock the west side of town will be visited and the following gardens will be offered for inspection: home of Col. W. H. Paine, 55 North Orange street, "A Man's Garden"; assistant hostess, Mrs. T. W. Miles; home of Mrs. L. E. Williams, 520 South Peach street, "Iris"; Mrs. Leland Metzger, assistant hostess; home of Mrs. Paul James, Perrydale, "A Secret Garden"; Mrs. J. C. B. Wells, and Miss Helen Bullis, assistant hostesses; home of Miss Anne Livingston, Old Stage road, "Picking Garden"; Miss Helen Carlton, assistant hostess; home of Mrs. H. D. McCaskey, Old Stage road, "Roses"; Mrs. H. Van Hoevenberg and Mrs. Charles Palm, assistant hostesses; home of Mrs. Raymond Driver, Old Stage road, "Picking Garden"; Mrs. Charles Taylor, assistant hostess; Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter, Old Stage road, where a grill luncheon will be served from 12 noon to 2 o'clock.

Wednesday afternoon from 1 to 5 o'clock the east side of the city will be visited and the following gardens open for visit: home of Mrs. E. E. Wilson, 410 and 422 Beatty street, "Neighborhood Garden"; Mrs. C. L. Goff and Mrs. J. W. Jacobs, assistant hostesses; home of Mrs. Gordon Voorhies, Coleman Creek road, (1/4 mile from Voorhies crossing), "Formal Garden"; Mrs. Sprague Riegel and Mrs. Martin Luther, assistant hostesses; home of Mrs. Corning Kenly, Jacksonville-Phoenix highway, (turn south), "Rock Gardens"; Mrs. J. E. Emmens, assistant hostess; home of Mrs. T. E. Daniels, corner Hillcrest and Berkeley way, "A Corner Planting"; Miss Kelleher, assistant hostess; home of Mrs. Leonard Carpenter, Hillcrest road, "Hilltop Terraces"; Mrs. Jack Spalding, assistant hostess; home of Mrs. H. Chandler Egan, Buckshot Hill road, "Terraced Picking Garden"; home of Mrs. Porter Neff, Highcroft addition, "Trees"; Mrs. Frank Newman, assistant hostess; home of Mrs. George Roberts, Crown Hill, "Tea Garden"; Mrs. Glen Armpiger, Mrs. Morris Leonard and Mrs. F. G. Thayer, assistant hostesses.

River Bend Lodge Scene of Luncheon And Bridge Party

Mrs. D. O. Frederick and Mrs. Maude Sinder were joint hostesses Thursday afternoon at the latter's summer home, "River Bend lodge" at Shady Cove.

At the delightful luncheon, a bouquet of wild flowers formed the centerpiece.

During the remainder of the afternoon bridge was enjoyed, with prizes going to Mrs. Frank Bellinger, Mrs. J. W. Bates and Mrs. R. J. Rinabarger; first, second and travelling prizes in order.

Guests at the pleasant affair included: Mrs. Bates, Mrs. Rinabarger, Mrs. Bellinger, Mrs. C. A. Hamlin, Mrs. A. F. Stennett, and Mrs. M. Liebman.

Joan Leland Weds Frank J. Beers In Grants Pass Rites

A wedding of special interest took place at Grants Pass on Monday afternoon, May 16, when Joan Leland, charming daughter of Mrs. Frances Leland of this city, became the bride of Frank James Beers at a simple rite ceremony at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage in that city. Only the immediate relatives of the couple were present.

Mrs. Beers is well known in Medford, having moved here from Arizona eight years ago with her mother and brother, Gilbert Leland. She is a graduate of the Medford high school and is very popular with the younger set here.

The groom came to Medford a year ago from Portland and is a member of the state police force. He attended University of Oregon, where he was a member of Sigma Chi fraternity, and also attended Eastern Oregon Normal.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple left by motor for Portland and points north. They will return to Medford about June 1 and will make their home here.

Past-Matrons Entertain Neighbor Clubs

The past-matrons of Reames chapter No. 66 O. E. S. entertained the Past-matrons clubs of Klamath Falls and Grants Pass Thursday at a luncheon given in the DeMolay hall. Thirty-five guests were present to enjoy the Medford members' hospitality. The tables were very attractive with May poles and vases of snowballs and coral balls.

After the luncheon many ladies played bridge and beanos while others visited.

Prizes for high scores in bridge were awarded to Mrs. George Willett and Mrs. L. C. Hunter of Klamath Falls and to Mrs. B. Baker and Mrs. L. Vanness of Grants Pass.

The Past-matrons club of Reames chapter will hold its last meeting of the summer on June 6. Mesdames Ethel Boggs, Ann Brayton and Harriet Merritt will be the hostesses.

Thursday Club To Hear Mrs. Lawrence

Thursday Morning Study club will meet May 26 at the Girls' Community club house at 9:30 o'clock in the morning.

An interesting program is being offered. Mrs. John Lawrence will be the guest speaker. She has chosen Austria as her subject. Mrs. Lawrence is an authority on history and is regarded as an excellent speaker.

Mrs. Goldy Elected Rotary President

Women of Rotary met Wednesday afternoon for a delightful session at the home of Mrs. Charles T. Sweeney on the Old Pacific highway.

Election of officers was in order with the following members being voted upon: Mrs. Mark Goldy, president; Mrs. Joe Marshall, vice-president; Mrs. Robert Wright, secretary-treasurer. This meeting marked the final one of the season.

Iowa Guests Visit Here

Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Jackson of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, are visiting Mrs. W. S. Manly and Wilma Kincaid at their home on South Oakdale avenue.

At the end of the school year, they all plan to motor to Seattle to visit relatives for a month. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Kincaid will go east to Cedar Rapids and on to Niagara Falls, New York and Boston.

SO DAZZLING WAS RECEPTION photographers gave three Albanian princesses Ruhlje (left), Myzejen and Maxhide (right), that they shut their eyes, temporarily, to United States they'd come to see. They wouldn't discuss reports they're "husband-minded."

Evening Banquet Enjoyed Thursday By AAUW Members

Members of American Association of University Women and their guests participated in one of the most enjoyable affairs ever held by the AAUW.

A banquet Thursday evening at the Hotel Holland followed by a unique program was in order.

Table decorations arranged by Mrs. John Lawrence were most attractive. A centerpiece of mixed flowers predominating in snap dragons, columbine and ferns with white candles in beautiful white pottery holders formed the effective setting for the dinner.

Miss Vera Humphrey presided as toastmistress and introduced Mrs. David Yale and Mrs. H. D. Perry who told of their experiences at the AAUW state conference held last month in Corvallis.

Miss Floy Young led in the singing of various college songs in which all members took part. Mrs. Dorothy Jane Hester accompanied them on the piano.

Miss Jean Garman was general chairman of the pleasant affair. Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Mable Ausman, sister of Mrs. Perry, and Miss Lucile Landen of Southern Oregon Normal school.

Committee in charge was composed of Helen Winter, Arlene Hay, Fredericks Brommer, Mrs. Lawrence and Jean Steel.
