From Trail — D. Sawyer of Trail transacted business in Medford Tuesday afternoon.

From Ashland — Gene Ritzinger and Clay Sugg of Ashland were business visitors in Medford this morning.

Prospect Visitors — Mrs. K. S. Wright and Mrs. Dale Griffin and children of Prospect transacted business in this city Tuesday.

Meeting Postponed — Alpha Delta class of the First Christian church has postponed the meeting scheduled for Thursday, until next month.

Fined $2 — Richard Milling of Medford was fined $2 in city court yesterday for failing to stop his automobile at a stop street.

Returns Home — F. E. Thompson, resident engineer for WPA, returned last night to Medford from Prineville where he spent three days vacationing.

Minor Accident — Edward R. Prefountain of Gold Hill and George W. Lance of Gold Hill drove cars involved in a minor accident on the Foot's creek road yesterday morning, a city police report said today.

New Residence — George F. Cook of 50 Kenwood Way applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to construct a new residence and garage at a stated cost of $2500.

S. P. Auditor Here — Harry Grindell of Eugene, traveling auditor of the Southern Pacific company, arrived yesterday to make a routine check of local stations. He expected to remain here for three days.

Drunks Punished — Louis Verschoor, 36, and Frank W. Meyer, 34, both charged with drunkenness, were ordered by City Judge Allen D. Curry yesterday to leave town immediately or spend 10 days in city jail. They said they would leave.

Vacation Ends — Hugo H. Guenther resumed his position as clerk at Medford postoffice Monday following a two weeks' vacation spent in sight-seeing in the Rogue valley. Part of the vacation was spent at the Guenther summer cabin at Union Creek.

Band Practice — Accordian band members will rehearse tomorrow afternoon at 4, in the Baldwin piano shop, 123 West Main street. All members are asked to attend rehearsal in preparation for the band's recital in Central Point the same evening. Mrs. Harry Prentice is director.

To Honolulu — L. O. Culp, public accountant, left by train last night for San Francisco whence he will sail for Honolulu, where he will establish a business. Mr. Culp was scoutmaster of Boy Scout troop 5 and the entire troop was at the railroad station to bid him farewell. He resided in Holly court.

Medics to Meet — Jackson County Medical society will hold a dinner-meeting at 7 this evening in the Lithia hotel, Ashland. Dr. E. G. Everett will be host. Dr. R. B. Dillehunt and Dr. Henry H. Dixon, Portland specialists here to conduct a children's clinic of orthopedics and psychotherapy, will be the principal speakers at the meeting.

Taking Course — Grace L. Nims, proprietor of the Marinella beauty salon at 303 North Holly street, is taking a three weeks' intensive course in hair styling in Hollywood. She left for the southern California fashion center by motorcar last Friday. While in the south she will also attend hair styling demonstrations and shows.

Court of Honor — Boy Scout troop 3, sponsored by the Lions club, will hold its third court of honor Thursday at 7:45, in the Roosevelt school auditorium. Three boys will be invested with the tenderfoot badge and several boys will receive advancement and merit badges. Parents of the boys are especially invited to attend the ceremonies by Earl Miller, scoutmaster, and the troop committee.

To Attend Dinner — About 50 members of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce are expected to attend the chicken dinner to be given by the Ladies' Civic club in the Central Point Grange hall at 6:30 p. m. tomorrow. The general public is invited, fellowship being the object of the dinner. Tickets may be procured at the chamber of commerce. Attendance of chamber of commerce members is urged by the inter-city visitation committee headed by George Henselman.
