YREKA WALLOPS CRATERS, 12 TO 8, IN TEN INNINGS

League Leaders Commit Nine Errors While Visitors Blast Three Pitchers for Total of Twenty Hits

Yreka may be sunk in the Southern Oregon league cellar and Medford deadlocked at the top of the heap, but you'd never have known it yesterday afternoon at the high school park.

Not even a couple of Crater home runs and a triple play helped matters to any great extent as the Californians, displaying no basement characteristics, whatever, landed on three Medford hurlers for 20 hits and tallies in the tenth inning to break an 8 to 2 deadlock and win, 12 to 8, in a wild-eyed, hysterical encounter.

Medford was behind, 5 to 8, in the last half of the ninth inning when Cliff McLean came up with two aboard and blasted a home run into right-centerfield, knocking the count. That blow more than made up for a wild throw and a dropped throw the "Chief" had made previously, and things were all even again. But, not for long.
