

PRIMARY IN IOWA OUTSTANDING TEST FOR NEW DEALERS

Monday Election Is Closely Watched Since Hopkins' Support of Senator Guy Gillette's Opponent.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—(AP)—Iowa's primary election next Monday is only one of five scheduled for June, but its Democratic senatorial contest probably will be the month's outstanding test of Roosevelt's administration strength.

In none of the other June primaries—North Carolina, Maine, Minnesota and North Dakota—has an issue of first national interest developed.

The Iowa balloting might have attracted only formal attention had it not been for a recent remark by WPA Administrator Harry Hopkins that if he were a citizen of Iowa, he would cast his nominating ballot for Representative Otha Wearin rather than for Senator Guy Gillette.

That statement and the furor which it raised both in congress and elsewhere has marked Wearin in the public mind as the administration's choice. It has rallied to Gillette's support such anti-administration senators as Wheeler of Montana and Burke of Nebraska, who like him opposed the Roosevelt court bill.

The Iowa primary will be the fourth in which individual candidates have had some form of administration support, and so far the score stands two to one for the administration. It was victorious in Florida, where Senator Pepper won overwhelming re-nomination, and in Oregon, where Henry L. Hess campaigned successfully for the gubernatorial nomination.

ATTRACTIVE COEDS TO REIGN OVER CAMPUS CELEBRATION

These five smiling co-eds will reign over a three-day program of festivities during junior weekend which will be combined with the annual Mother's day celebration here, May 6 to 8. They were chosen by student vote from a field of 15 prominent co-eds of the junior class. From left are Blanche McClellan, Albany, and Marla Steinhauer, Hood River, princesses; Queen Virginia Regan, Pendleton; Jacquelin McCord, Portland, and Betty Crawford, Klamath Falls, princesses.

THAT'S THEIR STORY, and they'll stick to it. When Umpire Macerkuhn ruled that Tony Lazzeri had dropped a fly ball from Moore of Glants, indignant Chicago Cubs—Fletcher Clay Bryant (left), Outfielder Augie Galan (center) and Manager Grimm—"told him off." Macerkuhn was finally overruled by his co-umpires. The game went to 12 innings, was won by Glants, 6-5.

Wall St. Report

NEW YORK, May 31.—(AP)—The stock market bogged down today under extremely light selling.

Losses ran to two or more points at the worst, but support in the final hour enabled pivotal issues to chip down extreme declines and here and there modest plus signs were in evidence at the close. There were several new 1938 lows recorded.

The smallness of volume provided some comfort for analysts if not for the commission houses. The interpretation was that important holdings are reluctant to come out at current prices. Transfers were in order 400,000 shares.
