At an open house party held Saturday evening at her home on Haven street, Mrs. Bernice Carder Kunzman was hostess honoring her daughter, Miss Madge Kunzman of Lindley, Calif., her sister, Mrs. Virginia C. Young and children, Barbara and Robert of Los Gatos, Calif., and her brother, Dr. Dean S. Carder of Oakland, Calif. Many guests called during the evening to greet the California visitors who were here over the week-end.

On Sunday at Mrs. Kunzman's home, a family dinner was enjoyed, those present were: Mrs. Cora E. Carder, Dr. Carder, Miss Kunzman, Mrs. Young and children, Stanley Kunzman and Mrs. Kunzman. Later other relatives who called included: Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Bliton and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Redden.

Gulbrandson of Hollywood, Calif., on June 10th in the latter city. Miss Kunzman is a graduate of Medford high school and of San Jose State College. Why Dobbin wore a Nosegay

THE BUBBLING FRENCH have a proverb "Toujours l'audace," which is to say "Always kick adversity in the pants." Nineteen-seven was a year of adversity. In the North-west they used script for money because money had been heard there was a panic and had run down its hole. So Portland celebrated by putting on her first Rose Festival.

A whole community not only kicked adversity but slapped it in the face. Dobbin—the V-eight of his day—tucked a nosegay behind his ear and pranced down Washington street in the shafts of a surrey blanketed with blossoms from the garden. So did certain horseless-carriages of the Pope-Hartford vintage. And all the people made carnival.

The same gay charm, the same finger-snapping spirit will mark this year the thirtieth Rose Festival—to be held June 8-9-10-11. The only difference is that Portland now shares her fun with the world—and particularly with the Pacific Coast.

Thousands of Washington, Oregon and California folk join in something which was once a purely community celebration. If the dates don't fit the regular vacation schedule, they make it the occasion of a special holiday—always easily possible in these days when the rule is weather good—roads fast.

The decorations were lovely with an arch of fern and blue wisteria with a background of yellow, pink and white anemones and roses forming the altar. Large bouquets of mixed flowers were used effectively throughout the rooms.

The bride was most attractive in a wedding gown of peach lace and chiffon with blue and silver accessories. Her corsage was of Tallman rosebuds, lilacs-of-the-valley and delphinium.

PRECINCT POSTS WILL BE DECIDED BY DRAWING LOTS

Sixteen Jackson county women and three men, tied for various precinct committee posts in the recent primary election, have been advised by the county clerk at his office and draw lots to determine the winners. The Republicans are to report Thursday and the Democrats Friday.

Five of the ties were on the Republican ticket and three on the Democratic. All ties were between women with exception of two men in the East Talent precinct, and Jesse Rush, tied with two women in the Beagle precinct, the official count shows.

In the South Central precinct the race was deadlocked with three votes each. In the Eagle Point precinct two votes were cast for each of two aspirants. In other precincts the candidates rated one vote each.

In the South Central precinct of Medford, A. P. Stennett was elected Democratic precinct committeeman along with Mrs. Stennett. Both parties nominated a man and a woman for each precinct. Write-ins caused the ties.

The Republican contests were: Beagle: Sadie Prink, 1; Ruth Ellis, 1; Jesse Rush, 1.

South Central Point: Mrs. H. D. McCaskey, 3; Lorie Minnick, 3; Della Tex, 3.

Pomona Grange

By Gertrude Hawk
Pomona Grange met in special session for the principal purpose of initiating 38 candidates in the degree of Pomona. This makes a total of 101 candidates initiated last month, an all time record.

Greater interest in Pomona Grange is due in part to adoption of the Pennsylvania plan of collecting Pomona dues. This plan is proving immensely popular in this county, as it is in all counties where adopted. The master of the Klamath Pomona reports that under this plan the membership of their Pomona doubled in a few months.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Bursell were elected as alternate delegates to the state Grange convention. At the village of Rattvik, Sweden, there is an interesting church service which can be attended only by persons over sixty.
