Friday Evening Recital Delights Large Audience

Outstanding in style and accomplishment was the recital, Friday evening, June 3d, at which Roberta Ward Bebb presented a group of her piano and voice pupils, at the Baldwin Recital Hall.

The range of the program was wide and varied. Music by Bach, Beethoven and Chopin represented the past, while the names of Grainger, Manzucza and Campbell-Tripton signalled the present.

The performers played with a technical surety and attention to details of phrasing and expression, which reflected great credit on pupil and teacher alike. The well selected songs were delightfully offered, with clarity of diction and a surprising sense of interpretation.

The two piano numbers were performed with excellent coordination. Explanatory remarks descriptive of the pieces played and sung added greatly to the interest of the compositions.

A capacity and hospitable audience received the students' interpretations with warm applause.

In appreciation for her untiring efforts, little Nancy Lageson and Mary Virginia Wait presented Mrs. Bebb with a large basket of beautiful flowers, on behalf of all her pupils.

Miss Barbara Lemmon and Miss Jeannette Field charmingly served as ushers.

Missionary Group Install Officers

The Adult Missionary society of the First Christian church met Wednesday in observance of 50 years of organized missions in Oregon, also for installation of officers.

Reports for the year show a big gain in every goal with finances doubled which doubtless will put the society on the honor roll. Miss Hattie Mitchell, returned missionary from Africa, installed the newly elected and appointed officers with a few well chosen words, also reporting on some of her work. Mrs. W. Kindred in charge of the program presented Mrs. A. H. Gregory in the past work of the state missions. Mrs. Susan Eads in the local work from 1919 to 1925; Mrs. A. D. Curry 1926 to 1935, and Mrs. L. G. Genter from 1935 to 1938. Mrs. Lois Young sang, "It Was Alone" accompanied by Helen Young; Miss Margaret Luman sang, "Hold Thou My Hand", accompanied by Miss Mildred Buckles. Mrs. Mabel Sims' group won the attendance contest. Honored guests were Mrs. Margaret Fisher, a charter member; Miss Hattie Mitchell; Mrs. Rogers of Ashland, granddaughter of the first state missionary president.

Mrs. Latham and group served refreshments to 84 members and friends.

Pocahontas Lodge Elects Officers

Last Friday evening the Pocahontas lodge held election of officers. Those elected for officers were: Proprietess, Nancy Johnston; Pocahontas, Velma Singler; Wrennah, Lucille Anseth; Powhatan, Fred Powell, and reporter, Ions Doorn.

After the business meeting refreshments were served by Norma Martin and Hilda Clifford.

On Friday evening the Pocahontas lodge will sponsor a dancing party. Members and their invited friends are welcome. Dircky's orchestra will furnish the music.

Thursday Club Will Present Comedy Playlet

Thursday Morning Study club will celebrate June 9 with its annual business meeting and "frolic" at the home of Mrs. Charles W. Lemery on Roseborough addition.

Luncheon will be served at 12:30 o'clock after which election of officers will be held. Mrs. C. C. Lemmon is general chairman of the affair.

Following election a humorous playlet will be enacted by a group of members of the club. A farce in one act written by Howard Reed of Chicago entitled, "Who Won the Revolution" will be presented with the following cast:

Miss Plummersell, a librarian. Mrs. J. R. O'Connor, Beesie Dunn, her new assistant. Mrs. Karl L. Janouch, Rhoda Updyke, Leona Snodgrass and Bertha Bangs, daughters of pioneers will be played by Mrs. R. C. Mulholland. Mrs. F. C. Dillard and Mrs. L. L. Sanders. Angie Featherborough, Zella Pitts, and Miss Nusbaum, colonial girls will be played by Mrs. H. C. Obye, Mrs. Rawley Moore and Mrs. Oliver Overmyer.

The location is a reference room in the library of a small town in the present time of a summer morning. Mrs. Mulholland is director of the playlet.

There are now 80 active members of the Thursday Morning Study club.

Moose Members In Convention Plans

Klamath Falls members of Loyal Order of Moose lodge were recent visitors here and were conferring with local members regarding the coming convention. Klamath Falls members included: Fannie Mae Thompson, Billie Bener, Mildred Wilkinson, Opal Bilen, Mrs. William Peterson, Laurel Baldwin and Anna Eccles. A group of Klamath men lodge enrollees were also present.

The drill teams and uniform groups will attend the convention in July. Reservations from many sections of the state have been received and the lodge expects a large class of men and women initiates in the near future. Indications are that high state and national officials will be present for the convention.

Baptist Ladies Have Session

Ladies of the Baptist S. O. S. Bible class met at the home of Mrs. Dale Jackson Friday for their regular monthly meeting. Business and brief devotions were in order.
