Wall St. Report

NEW YORK, June 7.—(AP)—Backsliding tendencies crept into the stock market today after a slow forenoon rally and early gains of fractions to a point or more were reduced or transformed into losses of as much as the close.

While selling was viewed as unimportant—transfers approximated 400,000 shares—the urge to cash in even small profits was sufficient to curtail what little buying was in evidence.

Today's closing prices for 32 selected stocks follow:

LEGION TO NOMINATE OFFICERS FOR YEAR

Officers for the ensuing year will be nominated at tonight's regular semi-monthly meeting of Medford post of the American Legion in the armory at 8 o'clock.

The meeting will also receive reports on the Legion junior baseball project and Beaver boys' state plans. Preparations will be made for representation at the annual state and national conventions.

Because of the importance of the agenda to be disposed of tonight, Don Newbury, post commander, issued a plea for every member to make a special effort to be present. Mr. Newbury also invited visiting Legionnaires to attend.

TALENT FROM AFAR GIVEN CHANCE FOR SHAKESPEARE CAST

ANGUS MOORE of Shawnee, Okla., and Hagen Moore of Baker, Ore., arrived in Ashland Sunday to take part in this year's Oregon Shakespearean festival, and were among those given auditions last night by Director Angus L. Moore.

The two Moores are not related. Angus Moore has just returned from England where he played during the past season with the Michael Martin-Harvey Shakespearean company touring the island. He also served as assistant stage manager with the stock company. Prior to that time, he studied with the London Central school and played with the Little Theatre company at Bath.

Hagen Moore, director of dramatics at the Baker, Ore., high school, is a graduate of the University of Oregon drama department and was granted a scholarship by the Pasadena Playhouse last season. He also studied last year with the Theodore Irving school in New York City, and is regarded as an actor of promise.

The two men are the first of a number of young actors coming to take part in the festival, according to Director Moore. Others are expected to arrive this week.

Bob Steadman, Klamath Falls, drama director for the Hanley, Ore., high school, arrived two weeks ago and is again working as technical director for the productions, "Twelfth Night," "Taming of the Shrew," "Hamlet" and the "Merchant of Venice" will be presented during the festival August 5 to 13, inclusive.

All young people in the valley who wish to take part are invited to attend the auditions at 8 o'clock every night this week in the Southern Oregon Normal school auditorium, according to Moore.

CRATER CLUB PLANS ENTERTAINMENT FOR OREGON PUBLISHERS

The outlining of plans for the entertainment of the Oregon Newspaper Publishers associations, who will hold their convention in Medford June 17 and 18, was the main topic of discussion at a luncheon meeting of the Crater club's Lords of the Forest at the Jackson hotel yesterday.

It was decided to hold a picnic at the Elks picnic grounds Friday evening, June 17, at which time several of the visiting dignitaries will be initiated into the Crater club in the impressive rites that have made the club one of Medford's outstanding organizations. Numerous entertainment stunts are also being planned for the benefit of the visitors.

Big Eruption O. O. Aelterier named his committees in charge of the various functions to be performed and already much of the evening's entertainment has been arranged.

The picnic will be open to the visiting delegates, the Crater club members, their guests and wives.

NEW DEAL PROPOSED FOR LOCAL BREWERY, CREAMERY PROPERTY

An organization is being formed here to take over the property formerly owned by the Gold Seal Creamery and Southern Oregon Brewing corporation, it was announced today.

It is planned to add additional business lines to those conducted now. It is reported that stockholders of the Southern Oregon Brewing corporation and the preferred stockholders of the Gold Seal Creamery will be given an opportunity to participate in the new organization by reason of their stock holdings in Southern Oregon Brewing corporation and the Gold Seal Creamery.

S. A. Kroschel, present owner of the property, is here now considering a proposal for the property from the new organization. He stated he saw a good future for the new organization, and regretted that he could not help operate it, but would assist the company financially. He has to leave for San Diego in a few days.

"Tom Sawyer" Here Wednesday

Lost in the darkest regions of "the cave" Injun Joe hiding somewhere close! One of the most thrilling moments of Mark Twain's most beloved story, "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer," loses none of its thrill in the new Technicolor picturization of the famous classic, which opens tomorrow at the Craterian theater for a four-day run.

A new Walt Disney cartoon comedy, featuring Donald Duck in "Donald's Nephews," will be an added attraction.
