COLORFUL PARADE OPENS CAMPAIGN AT HIGH SCHOOL

Office Boys and Wooden Boxmen Winners in Division A—Elks and Western States B Class Winners

Medford's softball season under the lights and stars got under way last night at the stadium with an estimated 1300 spectators on hand to watch Office Boys and Wooden Boxmen open opening games in Division A, and Elks and Western States belt out Division B victories.

Sam Colton hurled his Office Boys to a 7 to 5 victory over Murray's Maid-Rite, allowing only six hits while his teammates socked Ken Leavitt for nine safeties.

Wooden Boxmen beat Lamports' 7 to 4, with Steiner pitching six-hit ball, Don Monthel, Lamport moundsman, was touched for eight blows by the winners.

In the B division, Bill Bowerman was tough in the pinches to hurl the Elks to a 12 to 4 win over Domestic Laundry, and Cook chucked Western States to an 8 to 2 victory over Lewis Super-Service.

Colorful ceremonies officially inaugurated the summer campaign, the Medford high school girls' drum corps leading the 14 uniformed teams onto the field. C. C. Lemmon drew the names of the teams from a hat, and A. H. Banwell announced them. Short scores for Division A games follow:

Team	R.	H.	E.
Office Boys	7	9	7
Murray's Maid-Rite	5	6	2
Colton and Luman; Leavitt and G. Clitzen	5	6	2

NATIONAL OPEN ANYBODY'S RACE

DENVER, Colo., June 8. — (AP) — America's finest professional golfers, plus a sprinkling of fairly solid contenders from the amateur ranks, fired final practice shots today in the warm-up for the 1938 national open championship.

The big show gets underway tomorrow. On the basis of practice spins and form-charts, it shaped up as a wide open scramble, with the seasoned campaigners apparently holding no great advantage over a contingent of lesser lights from all sections of the country. Only three places remained to be filled, by alternates, to bring the starting field up to minimum of 170.

Betting books listed Guildahl and Sneed, with Harry Cooper, all at 8 to 1. A poll of players also revealed sentiment for the chances of Paul Runyan, Tony Penna, Horton Smith, Dick Metz, Henry Picard, Tony Manero, 1936 title winner, and John Revolta. There was some question as to Revolta becoming a starter, however, due to a finger cut suffered during the Kansas City open last week.

YOUNGEST DI MAG STARTS NEAR-RIOT

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8. — (AP) — Dominic, youngest and most docile of the baseball Maggies, outfielder for the San Francisco Seals in the Pacific Coast baseball league caused a near riot as the Portland Beavers trimmed the Seals, 5 to 4 in eleven innings.

All Dominic did was protest he was not thrown out at first in the last of the eleventh inning last night with the bases loaded and the whole San Francisco team and most of the cash customers streamed onto the field.

Dominic claimed he was hit in the foot by the ball thrown to first base. Umpire Bert Cole ruled him out, retiring the side and ending the game. When the fans and players swarmed the field and threatened Cole with an untimely end the boys with the big feet and brass buttons from the law and order league came to the rescue.

HENRY WOODS WINS NOD OVER CARLOS MIRANDA

STOCKTON, Calif., June 8. — (AP) — Henry Woods, Seattle negro, was awarded a 10-round decision over Carlos Miranda, Los Angeles. In a bout witnessed by 2,000 fans here last night, Woods weighed 138 and Miranda, 141.

ARIZMENDI BATTLES CHAMP LOU AMBERS TO 10-ROUND DRAW

LOS ANGELES, June 8. — (AP) — Baby Arizmendi upset many an apple from the cart last night when he battled Lightweight Champion Lou Ambers to a draw in a wild 10-round non-title fight before 10,000 screaming fans at the Olympic auditorium.

Today the bellicose Baby, veteran of a thousand and one nights in a prize ring, came out flatly and predicted that Welterweight Champion Henry Armstrong would knock Ambers out when they meet in New York July 28.

Arizmendi should be an authority on the subject. Two months ago he took a beating—but never a knock-down—from Armstrong in a vicious 10-rounder at the Olympic.

"Armstrong is stronger than Lou and throws too many punches. Ambers is easy to hit; I staggered him and while I took my best shots at Henry, I couldn't phase him," Arizmendi declared.

Ambers, a three to one favorite over the Baby, said after the fight that he felt sluggish and couldn't get started.

"I hope to do better against Armstrong," he said.

The consensus of ringers, coinciding with the Associated Press score sheet, favored Ambers by a shade. By round count, the Associated Press had it five, four and one for the champion, Ambers scaled 136, Arizmendi 136½.

CLUB IS FORMED TO CURB TOLL OF HEART AILMENTS

Winning Shooter Thanks Tribune For Paper Prize

Clifford A. Dunn, Klamath Falls trapezist who won a leg on the Mail Tribune's trophy at the Medford Gun club's registered shoot two weeks ago, wrote today thanking this paper for the year's subscription, which goes with winning the shoot, and stating that "this trophy has done much to promote trapezisting in southern Oregon."

Mr. Dunn wrote that he "would like very much to bring the trophy to Klamath Falls for a permanent resting place." He stated that the Mail Tribune's cooperation with shooters of southern Oregon was highly appreciated by all.

The statistics upon which the decision to form the association was based show that in the past six months 250,000 Americans have died of heart disease.

As the first step of its campaign, the association has sent to all of its members a classification of the various kinds of heart disease as follows:

1.—Congenital disease, which is the class where the individual is born with some heart abnormality.

2.—Infections of the heart. These occur in virtually all cases during the early years of life and seldom after 40. The worst offender is rheumatic fever.

3.—The syphilitic heart. In these cases the aorta, the largest artery of the body, is affected. These heart infections usually take place 16 to 20 years after the original infection.

4.—Degenerative diseases of the circulatory system. These become evident after 40 years of age and they form the group in which an ever increasing mortality is taking place.

Under this group comes hardening of the arteries, hypertension, and coronary diseases such as angina pectoris. These illnesses occur in direct proportion to the age, the older the individual the more frequent is found the disease.

5.—There is a large group of disordered actions of the heart which are dependent almost entirely on the emotions such as fear, anger, passion, love, hate, worry and introspection. These disordered actions manifest themselves by irregularities, heart consciousness, weakness and breathlessness. They are known as functional disorders and a physician can tell whether there is anything organically wrong with the heart or whether it is just functional disturbance.

PERVERSE PITCHER GIVEN $250 FINE

BOSTON, June 8. — (AP) — Johnny Allen, Cleveland pitcher, left the game between the Cleveland Indians and Boston Red Sox in high dudgeon Tuesday after being told he could not pitch while wearing a shirt with a ragged sleeve.

The score was 2-2. Jimmy Fox, hitting Boston first baseman, had hit his 15th homer of the season with one on.

Joe Cronin, Sox manager, protested about Allen's shirt to Umpire Bill McGowan, who ordered Allen to change or fix his shirt.

Allen left the field, followed by Manager Oscar Vitt, who wanted the pitcher to remain in the game.

Allen said, "I've been pitching all season with this shirt on, and if I can't pitch with it on, I won't pitch."

Zuber replaced Allen. A few minutes later Vitt imposed a $250 fine on Allen.

McDonald is a far different acting gentleman outside the ring than he is inside those ropes. Surrounded by hump and facing a grappling foe, Sockeye is a brutal, vicious "killer," with only one thought in his head, and that to "win as soon as possible, no matter how." There has never been a fellow wrestler in Medford who can come anywhere near approaching Sockeye's ability to take it and dish it out.

"When I'm not in the ring I forget all about wrestling; I take things easy and relax," he said, and maybe that's why his manners on the street are as mild as a kitten's. He uses the King's English perfectly, something you can't say for every grunt and groan guy, and he can apparently talk intelligently on almost any subject. Really quite a fellow is this big Sockeye; even his ears are something.

After seven years of knock-down-and-drag-out grappling, the McDonald ears show absolutely no sign of the beatings they must have taken.

SPORT GRAPHS

They are unmarked as a baby's, and he doesn't know just why they have escaped being "cauliflowered." He said, "My ears have been hurt several times, once or twice swelling up as big as your fist, but they always go back into perfect shape. Why they do so I don't know."

About this meanie business, Sockeye had quite a bit to explain. "Most fans think I wrestle dirty, and maybe that's what you call getting in there and trying to win as soon as possible, and in almost any manner. But, there are two things I won't do, no matter how tough the going is. That's gouge eyes and punch low. Once I saw a wrestler's eye drop clear down on his cheek after hitting his head on the ring post, and that cured me of ever fooling with a man's eyes. I try to take advantage of every opportunity, and I like to belt those fellows on the chin, but as for being downright dirty and mean—well, I don't think I am."

And, now that Jack has mentioned it, we can't recall ever seeing him throw a clout below the belt or do any eye-gouging. Punch savagely—yes, but just as he says, he has never really acted the villain that many other grapplers have.

McDonald says that Alvin Britt is the smartest opponent he has ever wrestled, although Dude Chick is not far behind and is a tougher. "Britt is the greatest leverage wrestler I have ever faced," he said. "He is not the toughest, mind you, but for knowledge of leverage holds and ability to make a man suffer, Britt is the greatest in my estimation."

Being a former pugilist in Seattle and vicinity, Sockeye naturally had plenty to say about the coming Max Schmeling-Joe Louis heavyweight brawl. "I pick Louis to stop Max inside six rounds," McDonald said.

"However, if it goes beyond that round I believe Schmeling will win the decision. But I don't see how the German can last over five or six heats; he isn't getting any younger and Louis just hits too hard with either hand."

Sockeye learned his wrestling from the man he calls the "greatest to ever step inside a ring"—Ed "Strangler" Lewis. Sockeye was working in a lumber camp in Washington about seven years ago on some property owned by Lewis, and after he and the then heavyweight champion had worked out a few times together, Lewis asked Sockeye if he would like to become a wrestler. Sockeye's answer was yes, and Lewis took him in tow. We have seen the result here plenty of times, so thank you, Strangler Lewis.
