

BEND MEMBER IS VOTED GOVERNOR 20-30 DISTRICT

Carl Schuman Succeeds Harry Pinneo — Sunday Breakfast Winds Up Annual Northwest Conclave

Carl Schuman, past-president of the Bend club, was unanimously elected district governor at a breakfast and business session in Valentine's cafe Sunday morning that brought to a close the annual northwest district state convention of 20-30 clubs, which opened Saturday noon. Mr. Schuman succeeds Harry Pinneo of Medford.

At a sub-district meeting held in the Hotel Jackson, convention headquarters, preceding the regular business session, Howard Hamilton of the Medford club was elected sub-district governor, with delegates from Grants Pass, Roseburg, Marshfield, Bandon and Medford casting ballots. Marshfield was selected as the location of the sub-district meeting in September.

President Speaks

Fifty 20-30 club members and official delegates from 13 Oregon cities attended the business session Sunday morning, featured by an address by Ralph Layton of Pullerton, Cal., national president of the 20-30 association, who spoke on the civilian flagger printing program recommended by the association and endorsed by all clubs. He mentioned the fine publicity 20-30 is deriving from sponsoring the project, and stated that many national and state organizations of different kinds were solidly behind the program.

Pat Emmons of the Salem club, national chairman of the expansion committee, spoke briefly on the work being done toward formation of new units, and of the contacts being made in the state of Washington. He said that several clubs would probably be organized in this state in the near future.

Martin Andrus of Portland, national trustee of the northwest district, also gave a short talk.

Much time was spent discussing resolutions to be submitted at the national convention in El Paso, Tex., in August, regarding the cost of the conventions, and the manner of choosing and reimbursing delegates to the conclave. The Medford club, convention host, was accorded much praise for the excellent manner in which the affair was conducted, and Alton Anderson, especially, for his fine work as convention committee chairman. Delegates from all Oregon clubs gave their semi-annual reports.

To Meet in Portland

Portland was selected as the city to play host to the northwest district meeting in December.

Delegates attended the business session from Bend, Bandon, Grants Pass, Marshfield, Medford, Portland, Salem, Toledo, Lakeview, Klamath Falls, and Roseburg. In all, there were about 150 delegates and 20-30 members from all parts of the state.

Sunday morning while the business meeting was in session, visiting ladies enjoyed a breakfast in the Hotel Jackson, after which they were taken for sight-seeing automobile rides to different scenic spots in the valley. Mrs. Harry Pinneo entertained the ladies at her home during the afternoon.

Saturday evening, an exclusive Russian style banquet and dance was held at the Chateau, attended by 20-30ers and their invited guests.

Following are the official delegates who cast ballots at the business session: Marvin McCus of Bandon, Joe Slate of Bend, Fred Gould of Grants Pass, Paul Grant of Marshfield, Howard Hamilton of Medford, Nathan Basnick of Portland, Gordon Bennett of Roseburg, Floyd Emmons of Salem and Dick Batchelor of Toledo. Kenneth Lee, governor of sub-district 1 and Gordon Justrom, governor of sub-district 2, also were eligible to vote.

Negro Dance Band Wednesday Eve at Oriental Gardens

According to advance reports, the negro dance band known as Gen Coy and his 11 Black Aces which appears at the Oriental Gardens here Wednesday is a group of musicians who have filled engagements of considerable importance over the United States. While in the east this colored band played at the Graystone ball room, The Cotton club in Chicago, the New Penn in Pittsburgh and the Akron Ball Room, Cincinnati.

They also have been heard over CBS and NBC networks led by Gene Coy, better known as "Happy." The musicians and comedians are rated with such bands as those of Fletcher Henderson, Duke Ellington and Cab Calloway.

Coming to the west they opened the Ubangi club in Seattle, where they played a very successful run for eight months and are now on tour for several weeks and will return to Seattle to open at the New Lions Music Hall for an indefinite engagement. This tour will take them through Oregon and Washington including the Medford appearance in their itinerary.

Closing time for Too Late to Classify Ads is 1:30 p. m.

Ellis Promoted

C. W. ELLIS
Oregon Division Manager
GILMORE OIL COMPANY

Changes in the Gilmore Oil company's Oregon division personnel were announced last week by officials of the concern. C. W. Ellis, Portland branch manager, formerly of this city has been appointed Oregon division manager to fill a vacancy resulting from the illness of R. B. Lee. Owing to the serious nature of Lee's condition, it was necessary for him to take an extended leave of absence.

Ellis has been identified with the oil business for the past sixteen years starting in service station sales and advancing through various phases of the industry to branch management. He joined the sales organization of the Gilmore concern in 1931 and was manager of the Medford branch until 1936, when he was placed in charge of the company's operations in the Portland area.

Piche Wins Check In Fishing Contest

Al Piche was in receipt today of a letter and $5 check from the Ashway Lane and Twine Manufacturing company, Ashway, R. I., revealing that he was one of six prize winners in a national contest held by the company during airmail week. The company queried hundreds as to their preference in fishing lines, then sent them by airmail a line of their choice. A black, silk casting line, 28-pound test, was used by Piche to land an 8½-pound steelhead near Trail, and he sent a picture of the fish and affidavits to the company by airmail to conform with the contest rules.

MISS PERKINS TELLS WORLD LABOR CONFAB STRIFE EBBS IN U. S.

GENEVA, June 13.—(AP)—Miss Frances Perkins, United States secretary of labor, told the international labor conference today that "it would be a mistake to suppose that American industrial relations were those of strife." She said, however, that the United States "has much to learn from other countries regarding the improvement of working conditions and maintenance of good relations between labor and employers."

Industrial relations in the United States are now on a more stable basis than for 20 years," Miss Perkins declared. "The number of strikes has from any real point of view diminished. There were 4,700 strikes out of a working population of 38,000,000 in 1937. Thirty-four years ago there were 3,600 strikes out of a working population of 20,000,000."

"From information I possess I prophesy that this week will see federal minimum wage law bills come out of congressional committees in acceptable form," Mrs. Perkins said.

Not content with mere fingerprints, Scotland Yard is studying palmprints with the idea of using them for criminal identification, if practical.

The earliest "reciprocal trade treaty," involving the reduction of duties, was made between England and Portugal in 1703.
