

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Zonta to Meet—Zonta club will convene this evening at 8 in the Effie Kurtz studio, 204 North Ivy street.

Medford Callers—Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Regnell of Diamond Lake resort shopped and visited friends here Saturday.

To Lakeview—Paul Hanlin, United States deputy marshal, left last night for Lakeview where he was to spend several days transacting official business.

Grass Fire—The fire department's chemical crew was called yesterday noon to put out a grass fire in back of the Sacred Heart hospital. No damage was done.

Fish At Lake—Harry Hansen and Robert Field spent yesterday fishing at Fish lake but they were unable to make a catch. The water is still too high for good angling. Mr. Hansen reported.

From Grants Pass—Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Westergren and small son of Grants Pass spent Sunday visiting Mrs. Westergren's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph G. Bardwell, at their home 1002 South Oakdale avenue.

Floor Fishing Luck—Otto DeJarnett, Bernie Merston and Frank DeSouza spent yesterday afternoon fishing for bass at Hyatt lake without results. Several fishing parties were at the lake, some making fair catches. Mr. DeJarnett said.

At Ball Game—Among Ashland residents attending the Medford-Ashland baseball game yesterday at the high school park were Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Miles, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Gaudre, Mike Walcott, Bert Miller and Dr. W. J. Crandall.

On Inspection—Karl L. Janouch, supervisor of the Rogue River national forest left today to make an inspection tour of the Union Creek district. He was to be accompanied on the tour by Homer Hixon, Union Creek district ranger.

Park Staff Moves—Books, records and office supplies of Grater Lake national park were moved today from the administrative staff's winter headquarters in the Medford federal building to summer headquarters in the park. The administrative staff will now be stationed in the park until autumn.

Completes Leave—George E. Patterson, navy recruiter here, this morning resumed his duties at his office in Medford federal building after spending a week's leave of absence in Los Angeles. He attended the Shrine convention and renewed friendships with a number of former naval associates while in the southern California metropolis.

Back From South—Grace Nims, proprietor of the Marinello Beauty salon at 303 North Holly street, returned last night from Los Angeles and Hollywood where she attended a number of shows on hair styling. She was accompanied home by her assistant, Maxine Boone, who took an advanced course in hair dressing at the Marinello school in Los Angeles.

Pirate Girl Leaves—Zoe Dell Lantis left last night by United Mailer for San Francisco after a day's visit here. She arrived by Mailer Saturday night from Portland where she had participated in the rose festival. The former Medford resident is the Pirate Girl of the San Francisco International Exposition. She recently completed a part in her first motion picture.

Minor Accidents—City police reports today said that Cordelia E. Fralley of Tulelake, Calif., and Huxley D. Kern of 1127 West Main street drove cars involved in a slight mishap three miles north of Gold Hill on the Pacific highway Sunday; W. D. Miller of Klamath Falls and M. D. Bourne of Gold Hill operated machines colliding with minor damage on the Pacific highway near Gold Hill early Sunday morning; and O. E. Sabin of 103 South Riverside avenue and R. L. Barnett of Klamath Falls drove vehicles involved in a slight collision at Central avenue and Eighth street Saturday evening.

Romantic Role

Lovely Loretta Young follows a strange quest to the ends of the earth in the romantic drama, "Four Men and a Prayer," opening a three-day run at the Rialto theater tomorrow. Introducing the new star discovery, Richard Greene, the cast also includes George Sanders, C. Aubrey Smith, David Niven, Alan Hale and Berton Churchill.

Jerome Kern Music Features Comedy on Craterian's Screen

Something radically refreshing in film musicals made its bow yesterday at the Craterian theater, the sprightly new Irene Dunne-Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., comedy with Jerome Kern music, "Joy of Living."

In the story Miss Dunne is a top-notch musical comedy star, whose selfish family is only interested in spending her money faster than she can earn it. Fairbanks, convinced that happiness is the greatest thing in life has, on that belief, bought himself a South Sea island and a tramp freighter that he uses as a self-supporting private yacht. All he wants is a queen for his island, and he decides that Miss Dunne will do. He starts and then irritates the lady by his contemptuous attitude toward her pet relatives. But he maneuvers her into a series of ridiculous situations in an effort to prove his point, and when he finally takes her out for the evening on a hilarious two-dollar party, things build up rapidly to an exciting climax.

The stormy progress of this unique romance is enlivened by the Jerome Kern melodies which Miss Dunne sings beautifully, and by a colorful array of settings that vary from Fairbanks' dingy steamer to Miss Dunne's luxurious home. Through it all the lovely actress and her popular lead scamper in engaging fashion, and their portrayals rank high among the year's acting displays. The excellent cast has Guy Kibbee and Alice Brady as Miss Dunne's hypocritical parents.
