

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Medford Caller - Joe Trefren of Butte Falls transacted business in Medford today.

On Business - Mrs. W. B. Totton of Eagle Point was a business caller in this city yesterday.

Band Practice - Accordion band will hold a special rehearsal Thursday at 4 p. m. at the Baldwin piano shop, 123 West Main street. Mrs. Harry Prentice is band director.

Building Permit - Earl Miller of 607 Park street applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to make an addition to a residence at a stated cost of $500.

Cars Collide - A minor collision at Ivy and Sixth streets Tuesday afternoon between cars driven by Bob Root of 15 Summit avenue and Mike O'Shea of 358 South Oakdale avenue was revealed in a city police report today.

Has Appendectomy - Dorothy Root, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Root of Route 1, recently underwent an operation for the removal of her appendix in Oestopathic hospital. She is recovering satisfactorily and may now receive visitors, attendants said today.

At Convention - Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Howard of 1507 West Main street, Dr. Bertha Sawyer of Ashland and Dr. Russell Sherwood of 523 Newtown street are attending a state osteopathic convention in LaGrande this week. The group will return here Friday.

Sister Dies - Word was received here today of the death of Mrs. Henry Davis of Ojai, Cal., eldest daughter of Mrs. W. E. Morris of Table Rock. Mrs. Davis had been a frequent visitor to southern Oregon and was especially well known in the Table Rock and Sams Valley sections.

At Convention - Word was received here today that Dr. A. N. Johnson is prolonging his sojourn in the south to attend the annual convention of the American Medical association in San Francisco. Accompanied by Mrs. Johnson and their young son, Dr. Johnson left on a vacation about three weeks ago. The family now plans to return to Medford June 19.

Have Baby - Word was received today of the birth of a boy to Mr. and Mrs. Elery Hall of Eugene on June 8. The baby has been named Robert Allen. Mr. Hall is associated with his father's construction firm. The couple formerly made their home in Ashland and have many friends in this city.

From Arizona - Dr. W. O. Sweet and Dr. N. J. McKown of the Grunow clinic in Phoenix, Ariz., spent the past two days fishing near Rogue River lodge where they were guests. Dr. Sweet landed a 21-pound salmon and several trout. The doctors are friends of Dr. and Mrs. Dwight H. Findley of 36 Glen Oak court. The four dined together at the lodge last evening.

Test Equipment - Heavy fire-fighting equipment from the Rogue River national forest warehouse on McAndrews road was tested out in the rough country on Forest creek back of Jacksonville today. The demonstration was observed by Simeri Jarvi, assistant forester in charge of fire control, and Jack Clark, chief mechanic at the warehouse. The tests were conducted by George Boussum and Gary Taber, guards stationed at the warehouse.

Gets Team Chance - Private Henry Buckland, son of A. H. Buckland of Central Point and a member of Company A, 29th engineers at Fort Barry, Cal., has been ordered to Fort Belvoir, Va., to try out for the engineers corps rifle team. It was announced in a press release received today from Maj. H. D. Bagnall, recruiting officer at Portland. Buckland enlisted in the 29th engineers through the Medford recruiting station. On the rifle range Buckland quickly qualified as an expert rifleman with a score of 244 out of a possible 250. This was considered exceptional for such a comparatively new soldier and Buckland was chosen to compete for a place on the engineers team. If he qualifies, he will be sent with other team members to Camp Perry, Ill., about August 1 for further training and participation in the national rifle matches. Maj. Bagnall said.

Vacation Here - Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nelson of Peris, Cal., are vacationing at Rogue River Lodge. The Nelsons are ardent fishermen and came here especially for the sport. Mr. Nelson owns a large gold mine near Palm Springs.

Takes Air Photos - Kathryn L. Gunnell, Salem photographer and lecturer, today took aerial views of Crater lake, Lake o' the Woods, Mt. McLoughlin and other southern Oregon scenic features. Her pilot was Thomas A. Culbertson, Jr.

Legion Picnic Tonight - Members of the American Legion, the auxiliary, their families and friends, will picnic tonight at Jackson Hot Springs. Swimming, softball and other games, and a picnic lunch will round out the evening. Anyone desiring information on the picnic may call 1275.

Airport Arrivals - Four United States army air corps reserve officers stopped at Medford municipal airport this noon on a return flight to their base at Boeing field, Seattle, Wash., from a practice cruise to California. They were in charge of Maj. John Gardner, regular army officer in command of the air corps reserve unit at Boeing field. The reserve officers were Capt. M. M. Turner, Lieut. H. C. Taylor and Lieut. E. D. Pollock, each piloting a North American basic trainer, and Lieut. John Blum, flying a Douglas basic trainer. Major Gardner also was piloting a Douglas basic trainer. Other arrivals today included D. N. Kintrop, en route from Auburn, Cal., to Portland in his Fairchild cabin plane.

Sigrid Gurie, Late Cinema Find Stars In Craterian Film

A new star makes her bow to local theatre-goers today at the Craterian theatre, with the opening of the Gary Cooper picture, 'Adventures of Marco Polo.'

She is Sigrid Gurie, who plays the leading feminine role, a part that gives her an auspicious start toward film fame.

However, Miss Gurie did not find motion pictures so easy to 'crack.' Trying for a long time to find herself an opening, she constantly was rebuffed and, as the saying goes, 'was getting nowhere fast.' But where there's a will there's always some way to find the sought after opening. In her case, it was a change of character. She became a famous Norwegian actress, made herself inaccessible to even the highest moguls of filmdom. And when that happens in Hollywood, it's news. So Sigrid Gurie became news. Big news. Being of news value meant she was immediately given opportunities of signing contracts. Finally, when she did sign, it was to play in 'Adventures of Marco Polo,' a role coveted by many of the cinema city's established actresses.

wegian actress at all—had merely played the part to get into the movie. Well, it worked, and the funny part of it all is that she has new and better parts in store for her after a fine performance in the Cooper picture. Such is Hollywood—where you're a sap if you don't put over your stunt—and a success if you do.

Four Famous Stars In Craterian Show Here Next Sunday

Four famous stars are united for the first time in "Three Comrades," Erich Maria Remarque's powerful story of post-war love, now made into a stirring motion picture, opening a three day run Sunday at the Craterian theatre.

Franchot Tunc, Robert Taylor, Margaret Sullivan and Robert Young are the quartet who play the important roles in the picture. Others include Guy Kibbee, Lionel Atwill, Henry Hull, Charley Grapewin and Monty Woolley.

Startling Picture Thrills At Rialto

The thrilling story of "Four Men and a Prayer," filmed in all its spectacular sweep held the audience of the Rialto theatre breathless at its great climax yesterday, where it opened a three day run.

The theme is an inspiring departure from the usual saccharine movie affection. Four stalwart young men, with a grand old soldier-father, are bound by a gallant pledge to rove the world to avenge his honor and death at the hands of a crooked munitions ring. That great love pervades the entire story. Yet the shimmering beauty of Loreta Young and her love for one of the brothers, Richard Greene (a sensational new star discovery, by the way) is a joy to behold.

There are superb characterizations in the great cast. Special mention should go to George Sanders, David Niven, William Henry (the other three brothers), C. Aubrey Smith (the father), J. Edward Bromberg, John Carradine, Alan Hale, Reginald Denny, Bertou Churchill and Barry Fitzgerald.

"Air Devils," a flawless mid-Pacific adventure, plays as the companion feature with Larry Blake and Dick Purcell in leading roles.

State police arrested Long yesterday after Dan Hiss of 606 W. 11th street signed a complaint alleging that Long stole a Caterpillar tractor motor block and casing from a vacant lot near the Pine Cone, and which belonged to him. State police recovered the block and casing from a local second-hand store, where Long assertedly admitted he had sold it for scrap iron for $2.30.

District attorney Frank J. Newman said today that Long claimed he believed the tractor had been abandoned, and that he attempted to locate the owner before taking

MOOSE PREPARE FOR ANNUAL CONVENTION HERE JULY 15 TO 17

Preparations were carried forward at a committee meeting last night for the annual convention of the Oregon State Moose association here July 15, 16 and 17.

Last night's meeting of local lodge committee members was attended by Tobe Watkins of Corvallis, state secretary-treasurer and an experienced organizer of conventions. Between 300 and 500 visitors are expected to be here for the convales next month. Mr. Watkins said. At the convention in Corvallis last year there were 350 registered delegates from the 22 lodges of the state, scores of unregistered members also being present, he stated.

Several drill teams will compete during the convention here, including the Corvallis women's team which won first prize at the past two annual convales. Mr. Watkins related.

Although the Medford lodge was organized only about a year ago, this city was chosen for the convention as a mark of honor for the young unit and the community, Mr. Watkins said.

Chairman of the general convention committee is Clyde Thompson of Klamath Falls, state prelate. Other state officers on the committee are Mr. Watkins and E. E. Benner of Klamath Falls, past president.
